Dear [redacted]:

Your letter dated December 29, 1960, with its enclosures, has been received and the interest which prompted your communication is indeed appreciated.

In response to your inquiry, I must advise that the jurisdiction and responsibilities of the FBI do not extend to furnishing evaluations or comments concerning the character or integrity of any individual, publication or organization. The FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and, as such, does not issue clearances or nonclearances. Therefore, I cannot make any comments concerning the material or the organizations which you have mentioned. Furthermore, my book "Masters of Deceit" which you have read, contains the only comments I am at liberty to make concerning the matter about which you have inquired.

I am enclosing some literature on the topic of communism which may be of interest to you.

Sincerely yours,

John Edgar Hoover
Director

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent states she has read the Director's book, "Masters of Deceit," and states she cannot understand his statements concerning the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) or Judaism. She states this is particularly true since she has received material from the Christian Educational Association and the Christian Nationalist Crusade which indicates that the NAACP is connected with the Communist Party (CP) and that many Jews are members of the CP. She enclosed the newspaper entitled "Common Sense" and a pamphlet published by the Christian Educational Association which sets forth the identities of numerous individuals who hold high positions in Government and who are of Jewish origin. In addition, she enclosed a pamphlet, entitled "The International Jew," published by the Christian Nationalist Crusade. Correspondent states she would appreciate the Director's comments concerning the opposing views expressed by the Director and the Christian Educational Association and the Christian Nationalist Crusade. Bureau files contain no identifiable data concerning the correspondent.

The Christian Nationalist Crusade is an extremely anti-Negro and anti-Semitic organization and has been the subject of Bureau investigation. The Department advised in 1957 that the activities of the Christian Nationalist Crusade were not such as to bring it within the purview of EO 10450 (62-43818).

"Common Sense" is a notorious anti-Semitic hate sheet published by the Christian Educational Association. The Christian Educational Association has in the past been the subject of a Racial Matters investigation for the purpose of determining whether the organization advocated, condoned, or incited to violence for the purpose of denying others their constitutional rights (105-9621).

The following items of literature were sent to the correspondent: Reprint from "FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin," March, 1960, with "An Analysis of the 17th National Convention of the Communist Party, USA"; "What You Can Do to Fight Communism and Preserve America"; "America - Freedom's Champion"; "God and Country or Communism?"; "Communism Illusion and Democratic Reality."

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
F. B. I.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I have just read a copy of your book, "Masters of Deceit."
It was a very informative book, but I have come across several statements that I do not understand, especially after reading other information concerning the Communist Conspiracy.

Enclosed are copies of the information referred to, which I received from Christian Educational Association, Union, New Jersey and the Christian Nationalist Crusade, Los Angeles, California.
I have received information from other sources but these two are the only ones which have come out with this on Judaism and the NAACP.

As you know now, I cannot understand your statements on the NAACP - denouncing Communism - and on Judaism. I wonder now if this other information is true or just subversive propaganda?
I feel you are the one to set me straight - if anyone can.

I do not wish to become a member of a hate group as I know the Communists want us freedom loving Americans suspicious of each other - fearing and hating.

Thank you so very much for your help.

Yours truly,

HERE IS THE STORY . . .

At the apex of his career as the world's number one industrialist, Henry Ford, Sr., founder and owner of the Ford Motor Co., became aware that certain Jews were trying to get his company. This aroused Mr. Ford's curiosity concerning their motives and the background of their manipulations. He called in the wisest men in his research department and asked that they prepare a series of articles dealing with the Jewish problem. The articles were prepared under the direction of Mr. W. J. Cameron and published in the official organ of the Ford Motor Co., known as the Dearborn Independent. In charge of the publication of the documents was Mr. Ernest Liebold. The moment that they appeared in print a terrific howl went up from every official Jewish headquarters. Campaigns of vilification were inaugurated. Boycotts were organized. Mr. Ford was smeared, ridiculed and threatened. Mrs. Ford was terrified. Anonymous telephone calls and anonymous letters became a daily experience in the Ford family.

The series of articles were bound in a book and distributed far and wide. They could be purchased from any Ford dealer in the United States or the world.

Then something sensational happened. There appeared in the press over Mr. Ford's signature an apology in which he expressed regret that the book "The International Jew" had been published. It no longer appeared for sale. It disappeared from the bookstands and the newsstands. Jews and others stole copies out of libraries until it was virtually impossible to buy the book at any price. It was rumored that certain editions were bringing as high as $700.00 per copy. Any attempt to republish the book was thwarted.

Some years later Mr. Ford reported to Gerald L. K. Smith and others, while guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ford, that he hoped some day to republish "The International Jew." On this occasion he denied that his signature was affixed to the much publicized apology. This seemed impossible to believe, but no one could doubt the integrity of Mr. Ford. His word concerning this matter was later to be confirmed by a former employee, who wrote a book after the death of Mr. Ford. The author of the book was Harry Bennett, who at one time was one of the three most powerful employees in the Ford Motor Co. His book entitled "We Never Called Him Henry" was intended to be unfavorable to Mr. Ford because of some disillusionment that Mr. Bennett had experienced in his relationship to the Ford family.

Following is what Mr. Bennett had to say concerning the Ford Apology:

"I GOT IN TOUCH WITH ARTHUR BRISBANE, AND THROUGH HIM LEARNED THAT THE AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE COULD SETTLE THE MATTER. I ENTERED INTO NEGOTIATIONS WITH SAMUEL UNTERMAYER AND LOUIS MARSHALL OF THAT ORGANIZATION AND WITH BRISBANE. THEY DREW UP THE NOW-FAMOUS 'APOLOGY,' WHICH WAS TO BE THE BASIS FOR A SETTLEMENT. IN THIS FORMAL STATEMENT, IT WAS SAID THAT MR. FORD WOULD SEE TO IT THAT NO MORE ANTI-SEMITIC MATERIAL CIRCULATED IN HIS NAME AND THAT HE WOULD CALL IN ALL UNDISTRIBUTED COPIES OF 'THE INTERNATIONAL JEW,' WHICH WERE BOOKLET REPRINTS OF THE (DEARBORN) INDEPENDENT'S ARTICLES. FOR THE REST, THE 'APOLOGY' SAID THAT MR. FORD HAD HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF WHAT HAD BEEN PUBLISHED IN THE DEARBORN INDEPENDENT, AND WAS 'SHOCKED' AND 'MORTIFIED' TO LEARN ABOUT IT.

"ARTHUR BRISBANE BROUGHT THIS STATEMENT TO ME AT 1710 BROADWAY. I PHONED MR. FORD. I TOLD HIM AN 'APOLOGY' HAD BEEN DRAWN UP, AND ADDED: 'IT'S PRETTY BAD, MR. FORD.' I TRIED TO READ IT TO HIM OVER THE PHONE, BUT HE STOPPED ME.

"SO I SIGNED MR. FORD'S SIGNATURE TO THE DOCUMENT. I HAD ALWAYS BEEN ABLE TO SIGN HIS NAME AS REALISTICALLY AS HE COULD HIMSELF. I SENT THE STATEMENT TO UNTERMAYER AND MARSHALL. THE SIGNATURE WAS VERIFIED, AND THE CASE WAS CLOSED.

"ALL THIS WAS DONE WITHOUT MR. FORD'S TAKING ANYONE ELSE INTO HIS CONFIDENCE. EDESEL KNEW NOTHING ABOUT IT, AND CAMERON AND SENATOR REED HEARD ABOUT IT BY READING THE PAPERS.

"CAMERON'S REACTION WAS QUOTED BY THE NEWSPAPERS: 'IT'S ALL NEWS TO ME AND I CANNOT BELIEVE IT IS TRUE.'

Now comes a new edition of this sensational volume. The Introduction is written by Gerald L. K. Smith, National Director of the Christian Nationalist Crusade. With the exception of the Introduction and a few footnotes, every line in this dynamic abridged volume is in the exact words as they appeared in the original. Sixteen exciting chapters combine to make this one of the most informative and logical reviews of the Jewish problem ever to appear in print.

The literary quality of "The International Jew" is that of the great student and rhetorician W. J. Cameron, who was noted as one of the most attractive writers of English prose to be found in the United States. The book is fresh and contemporary as if it had been written yesterday. No mature student of world affairs can afford to be without this sensational and super-sensational volume.

FIVE CENTS

ZIONISTS CONTROL NAACP

Herbert Lehman

Zionist Jew, director in the NAACP, has 10 Communist front citations. Most powerful in Marxist movement.

Felix Frankfurter

Zionist Jew, rules Supreme Court with an iron hand, was attorney for Red-front NAACP for ten years.

Arthur Spingarn

Zionist Jew, is president of the NAACP and has contact with many Red-front organizations.

Sen. Jacob Javits

This Zionist Jew along with Congressman Emanuel Celler were authors of the infamous Civil Rights Bill.

How Red Is NAACP & Its Leaders?

The NAACP, supposedly a Negro organization, is controlled by Asiatic Marxist Jews who do not have the welfare of the Negro at heart! They use the Negro to create strife and disorder—The oldest trick in the book—DIVIDE AND CONQUER!!

Some people in Northern States are under the impression that Negro people want to abolish segregation and that it is the colored people who are pushing for integration.

After interviewing people of both the Black and White race in 20 States we can truthfully say that approximately 90% of the colored people throughout the South WANT separate schools for their children

Why shouldn't they? Most people like to be with their own kind. We saw Negro schools which appeared equal, and in many cities the Negro schools were better than those for whites!

The two races have been living in harmony in the South for a long time, and they understand each other. Clever Jewish Communist organizers from New York area have been agitating young Negroes in the South, using false promises just as they did with the Hungarian workmen to secure their support in communist Hungary. Later when Jewish Communism had gained full control of Hungary, the workers asked for recognition and were mercilessly slaughtered. We now state that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is positively a Communist dominated, agitating group which has never had a Negro as head of the organization since it was founded and financed by the Communist Garland Fund. A JEW has always headed the National Association for the Agitation of Colored People (A more appropriate name for the NAACP).

The NAACP derives its real power from the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith which is the Jewish F.B.I. Twenty-four years study of the Marxist conspiracy enables us to state that the United States is in the process of being brain-washed and slowly but surely being prepared to give up its freedom.

Since the Supreme Court decision on segregation has focused attention on the NAACP, and they have been exposed time and again as a Communist-front, at important public meetings they cleverly state that they must be careful to screen out all Communist influence. Then, why don't they start with themselves? All the important officers in the NAACP we know of, have been tied up with Communism for years. When the Communists are put on the spot or in a corner they conveniently take the "FIFTH AMENDMENT" or "don't remember," or like Alger Hiss, who in an effort to deceive the public, sued Whittaker Chambers for calling him a Communist. Major Jordan's Diary shows conclusive evidence that former Senator Herbert Lehman (Zionist) is a powerful man in the world Communist movement and certainly he is the most powerful man behind the NAACP!

The Zionist controlled NAACP agitators hand-pick Negroes to force into schools of the South as an opening wedge to break down segregation. The Autherine Lucy case

Martin Luther King Jr. MARXIST TOOL & RACE AGITATOR

By Sam Crockett

On Jan. 1, 1958, the power-crazy Negro "leader" Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., led a "Marchers for Public Schools" on Emancipation Day march on Richmond, Va. The Va. branch of the NAACP and the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) co-sponsored the march. This school integration propaganda gesture is another in the long series of racial agitation activities led by King, and as usual was reported in the Worker, 12/21/58, p. 16, with full approval by the Communist Party's official organ.

Let's take a good look at King's record since he was picked as one to "lead" the Negroes down the crimson path to a Soviet America.

"Over the Labor Day weekend (8/30 to 9/2/57), Highlander Folk School, at Monteagle, Tenn., staged its 25th anniversary seminar on 'the . . . integration struggle.' Notorious communists, veteran communist fellow-travelers, and Negro leaders in all the recent major incidents attending integration were present at the seminar . . . (This) School was organized by . . . Don West, was District organizer of CP of No. Carolina. This school is actually a Communist Training School. The closing address at this seminar was made by Martin Luther King. Pictures taken at that time shows him together with Abner Berry, Negro member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party and columnist for the Daily Worker. Pete Seeger, participant in the N. Y. State Youth Board of the CP, (Daily Worker, 12/22/58) and long-time CP member, entertained the delegates.

King is president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and led the Montgomery Boycott and the March On Washington, the latter with Bayard Rustin his manager, who, according to the Daily Worker, attended the 1957 convention of the Communist Party.

"Leading Communists have been writing enthusiastically about King's movement . . . the Party looks upon King's work and movement as a new opportunity to incite racial animosity."

King's manager, Bayard Rustin, is listed as a member of the Editorial Board of Liberation (April 1956; Jan. 1957 issues). This is a pacifist-anarchist publication. Its contributors included typical communist-fronters Norman Mailer, Dorothy Day, Lewis Mumford, Pifrim Sorokin, A. J. Muste, infamous pacifist, communist-collaborator, also is listed on the Editorial Board. Martin Luther King contributed an article to the April 1956 issue in which he stated that "The extreme tension in race in part by the revolutionary change in the Negro's evaluation of himself . . . " Ruskin contributes another article and is identified as having "had many years of direct experience in racial conflicts in the South." In 1946 he served a sentence on the chain gang in N. C. for refusing to sit in the Negro-section of a bus. He went to India in 1947 and Africa in 1953. He is an expert on civil disobedience. The title of his speeches delivered in Africa and U. S. was "AFRICA AND THE WORLD STRUGGLE." Bayard Rustin was sentenced to 90 days in jail as a sex pervert in Pasadena, Calif., January 22, 1953 by Judge H. Burton Noble.

The Youth March for Integrated Schools to Washington, D. C., 10/25/58, was another of King's activities. He was co-chairman along with veteran Communist-fronter A. Philip Randolph, Roy Wilkins of the NAACP, who also has a record, and committee member Algernon Black (66 fronts), George B. Ford, Harry Fosdick, Milton Galamson (Brooklyn NAACP head), Clarence Pickett, James H. Robinson, Bayard Rustin, all of whom have front records. (See Call) Three bus loads of Communists from the cited Communist N.Y. Teachers' Union participated in the March (N. Y. Teachers News, 10/18 & 11/1/58). The Worker (11/2/58, p. 3) reported the March with the heading "Rev. King said: The Oppressed Always Marched For Freedom" accompanied by a picture of Mrs. King, who delivered the speech for her ailing husband. The Youth Pledge of the Marchers was reprinted in its entirety by the Worker. The entire front page of this issue and 14 columns of print were devoted to the March, May 17, 1959. Communist-fronter

Harry Belafonte was a speaker to the Marchers. The Worker stated (p.15) that "Large numbers of the Left (Communist) forces actively aided in mobilizing support for the Youth March and were in vast attendance." Challenge, official publication of the Young Peoples Socialist League (11/1/58) headlined the story and pointed out that the Marcher's White House Student delegation leader and 14 of the main youth organizers were members of the YPSL.

The N. Y. Post (7/11/58 reports an interview with King by Mike Wallace (Myron Wallikoff) in which King asserted "I'm sure that integration will lead to intermarriage. I don't deny that . . ."

The Communist National Guardian, 10/20/58, p. 8, carried a laudatory review of King's book "Stride Toward Freedom."

While autographing copies of this book in a Jewish department store in Harlem, King was stabbed in the chest by a Negro woman who resented his integration activities and yelled as she stabbed him "You made enough people suffer in the last six years." (N.Y. Journal American, 9/20/58). With King was the president of NAACP, Arthur B. Spingarn (x). The woman also stated that Rev. King has ruined my life; he is no good; the NAACP is, no good, it's 'Communistic. (N.Y. Amsterdam News, 9/21/58, p. 11).

The Daily Worker, 3/10 & 14/57, described the celebration marking the birth of the Communist-run Negro state of Ghana in Africa under the premiership of Communist Party member Kwame Nkrumah. Soviet representatives were present: Communist W. E. B. DuBois (72 Fronts) was invited by Nkrumah; Cedric Belgrave, CP member, was present; Communist-fronter A. Philip Randolph and identified Party member Ralph Bunche were there, and so were King and his wife.

The one organization in this country which has been supporting the South African communists traitors currently on trial is the American Committee on Africa. An 11/7/58 letterhead shows King listed as a member of its national committee, along with a long list of communist-fronters: John Guttenther (x); Oscar Hammersfein II (x); Will Maslow (x), identified Communist Party member Alex Melkolejohn (x), Reinhold Niebuhr, Sidney Poitier, A. Philip Randolph, Mrs. FDB (over 100 Fronts), Rex Stout, Channing Tobias (50 Fronts), and about three dozen more. A Jan. 11, 1956, letterhead shows Bayard Rustin on the Executive Board (Also 1957 letterheads).

The 1958 CORE (See above) letterheads show King on the National Advisory Committee along with red-fronters Roger Baldwin, Will Maslow, A. J. Muste, A. Philip Randolph, Ira DeA. Reid, and Goodwin Watson (82 Communist fronts).

With the Zionist Jews controlling practically all the news outlets, you will seldom read or hear about the Negro leaders who are proud of their race and want to keep segregation of the races. Here are just a few and you can bet there are many more who are not being fooled by the NAACP!

Above are a group of distinguished Negro leaders who are REALLY concerned with the welfare and advancement of their race. These people are rarely heard of in the controlled press and they are despised by the Jewish controlled NAACP. Due to lack of space, the pictures of five other Negro leaders had to be left out.

They are proud of America and their race, and oppose desegregation in any form whatsoever. They believe the Negro was created by God with a culture all of his own and should remain as such.

They are shocked and appalled at the harm and unrest the NAACP has brought to their people here in the U.S. as well as abroad.

These sterling Christian Negro leaders are well aware, as are most level headed Americans that the Negro is being used by the NAACP to confuse and divide our people and create strife and turmoil, and in the end mongrelize BOTH races!

The Southern people, Black and White, have lived in harmony all these years until Marxist agitators out of N.Y. upset the South in their program to condition our country for Communism.

Time and again it has been proven the NAACP, with trouble in mind, has picked certain Southern schools as their opening target for agitation and had hand-picked "students" enroll at the opening classes knowing full well the trouble that would result.

To create trouble between races is one of the oldest communist tricks in the book. The NAACP which is supposedly organized to HELP the Negro has been dutifully following the Reds to the letter!

Only the whole-hearted support of the type Christian Negro leaders such as are pictured here can bring back the harmony and respect of White for Negro and Negro for White. To be proud of your race is not a crime—to mongrelize what the good Lord created most certainly IS!

Force The Races To Mix At Any Cost - NAACP'S Goal

In considering the problem of race segregation, it must be approached from the standpoint of the greatest good both to Negro and White. Sentimentality or prejudice cannot properly enter into the merits of segregation.

The only logical method to determine the best situation is to depend on well authenticated facts as to results when conditions have been in effect long enough to have produced a definite pattern.

Free, indiscriminate, intermingling of the races is the NAACP's goal. It is a sinister plot by the Marxist masterminds out of New York and Washington, D.C., to weaken and degenerate the entire White race.

The Negro should be proud of his OWN heritage and NOT let the Jewish controlled NAACP force him into seeking the unnatural association of the whites!

If our Creator intended only one race, a mulatto race, he would have so created it in the beginning and NOT expected the NAACP to finish His work for Him. Our Lord gave each race its own character, individuality and charm. It is obvious He intended they should remain so. The Jewish organizations and the NAACP intend to change the wishes of our Creator.

If the Communist policy of conquest by absorption can be fulfilled through racial intimacy and the inevitable intermarriage of Whites and Blacks, then this evil Marxist philosophy will prove the downfall, if not the actual disappearance of the entire White Race!!

The North, like the South is not without its share of the segregation problem in its schools as well as its public housing projects.

In the latter part of 1957, deep in Brooklyn's Bedford-Stuyvesant area, which has a predominantly Negro population, public school 258 incurred the wrath of the Jewish controlled NAACP!

P.S. 258, a new junior high school with 1,500 Negro students and less than 5 or 6 white students was not integrated enough to suit the NAACP.

The white families, trying to protect their children had moved out of the neighborhood as fast as the Negro families had moved in, thus making the Bedford-Stuyvesant section all Negro. Disregarding this fact, the NAACP, always on the offensive when there is a chance to agitate, contended that if the school was "not good for whites it is not good enough for Negroes" and went into their usual tactics. They created such a disturbance and pressured the school board to such an extent that the Negro children are now being transported by bus several miles out of their way to schools in all-white districts at taxpayers expense! All this just to pacify the NAACP and forcefully integrate the races.

A great majority of New York schools are being FORCEFULLY integrated in this manner. The white students are being transported or "reassigned" to previously all-Negro school districts, despite their parents disapproval!

As a direct result of this NAACP inspired FORCED integration the teaching standards of New York schools have dropped far below par due to the loss of many qualified teachers quietly leaving the profession in disgust. Crime is rampant throughout the school corridors to such extent that school authorities cannot cope with it and many schools require police protection for its students as well as its faculty members.

The only safe alternative for many white families is to move out of the city and into the suburbs, or as a last resort, out of New York state itself! This very same pattern of forced integration is being enacted in many large metropolitan areas throughout the North with the inevitable happening—the cities automatically become segregated.

In Washington, D.C. with the forced integration of previously all-white schools, the wholesale muggings, stabbings and rapings of decent girls has forced the white families to send their children to private schools across the line to Arlington, Va., where the NAACP is now agitating in the Courts for immediate integration of all Virginia schools. In our Capitol, Washington, the schools, after integration, are now 75% Negro.

Is This What You Want?

Here is the inevitable result of integration. The young child in school can vote under the influence of the increasing crop of one-world minded teachers. Early theory was to capture the young minds of the children at school, indoctrinate them, and parents would lose them forever. This is the same type of philosophy the Jewish controlled NAACP carries on. The seating of a Negro child in a White child in school is the wedge!

REDS RACIAL RECORD

William Z. Foster, present head of the Communist Party in America, declared in his book entitled —

TOWARDS SOVIET AMERICA

"The American Soviet will of course abolish all restrictions upon racial intermarriage . . . The revolution will only hasten this process of integration, already proceeding throughout the world with increasing tempo." (page 305-306)

David Lawrence reported in his newspaper column (Times-Picayune, Nov. 12, 1958) that Prof. Allen Nevins, long time professor of American history at Columbia University, two time Pulitzer prize winner—

"is emphatically in favor of desegregation and calls upon the Southern people to face reality, as he tells them that intermarriage between the races in the coming years is inevitable."

Today, the Kremlin leadership in Moscow feels so firmly entrenched in the NAACP that the top official organ of the Communist Party in the US has advised all of its followers that:

"We must support the NAACP in this struggle with every ounce of energy at our disposal."

(Political Affairs, official organ of the CPUSA, Feb. 1950, p. 26).

HOW RED IS THE NAACP?

was an outstanding example of this type agitation, the same tactics were used in Little Rock. Anyone who has studied the NAACP and its questionable leaders should be able to see rights through their evil schemes.

The master-minds in New York are directing this attack on segregation, fully realizing that it is going to bring trouble between White and Black — that is the reason they work so feverishly. Few people realize that this is only part of the plan to further weaken and condition our country for Communism!

A great part of the world in which half the population of the world exists, has already been broken down and Marxist rule set up. All kinds of deception were employed to bring this about, camouflaged with high-sounding purposes.

The Jews of the South may join the Citizens' Councils, but each and every Jewish organization and publication in the U.S. are wholeheartedly backing the fight to mongrelize the races through integration!! If Zionist pressure were withdrawn from the race-mixing movement, it would die a sudden death!

Careful research has been done on Marxist leaders within the NAACP and key Government positions. With this information, the subject of integration will be approached with a better understanding of exactly who controls the NAACP and the Supreme Court of the United States!

The NAACP was a member of American Youth For A Free World, which was organized in 1942 and, in 1948, was described by the California Un-American Activities Committee as "heavily infiltrated and effectively dominated by the Communist Party." The House Un-American Activities Committee in its 1951 Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications described the American Youth For A Free World as "a Communist clearing house."

MILLION READERS

ANNA ROSENBERG VISITING U. S. TROOPS

Anna Rosenberg (X), while Asst. Secretary of Defense in charge of all manpower, supervised the hiring of more than a million employees of 115 government agencies. She packed the Defense Dept. with Reds and Communists during the Truman administration.

When the late Sen. McCarthy began digging into the Defense Dept. and demanded to know who promoted Peress, the Reds and liberals screamed for McCarthy's scalp.

It was Anna Rosenberg's influence that caused the removal of crosses from cemeteries and the placing of thousands of Negro troops in Germany where they had close associations with the girls. Results—Eleanor Roosevelt asked the U.S. to adopt 5,000 Negro babies from Germany.

— FAMOUS QUOTATIONS —

Senator Theodore G. Bilbo

"If our buildings, our highways, our railroads should be wrecked, we could rebuild them. If our cities should be destroyed, out of the very ruins we could erect newer and greater ones. Even if our armed might should be crushed, we could rear sons who would redeem our power. But if the blood of our white race should become corrupted and mingled with the blood of Africa, then the present greatness of the United States of America would be destroyed and all hope for the future would be forever gone. The maintenance of American civilization would be as impossible for a negroid America as would be redemption and restoration of the white man's blood which had been mixed with that of the negro."

All Jewish Groups Urged to Consult On Integration

BOSTON (NJN) — The view that consultation between all the Jewish agencies and the Jews of all parts of the U.S. on problems involved in the school integration fight was desirable was expressed by several speakers at the 17th plenary session here of the National Community Relations Advisory Council. The NCRAC is the over-all Jewish agency involved in community relations work.

David L. Ullman, was re-elected chairman of the group.

AID INTEGRATION RABBIS ARE ADVISED

Excerpts from Miami Herald of May 1, 1958.

The attitude of the rabbi both in the South and North must be "clear and definite" concerning integration, rabbi Paul Reich of Norfolk, Va., declared. He added "there must be no pussyfooting."

Rabbi Reich spoke to 600 spiritual leaders of the conservative branch of Judaism at the annual convention of the Rabbinical Assembly of America.

Gentlemen:

In view of the fact that most Americans are besieged by a never-ending stream of books, magazines, newspapers and publications, we are found occasionally to be reading something unpleasant and alien to our way of thinking.

I recently read several pamphlets distributed by "The Christian Education Association" whose address was listed as Union, New Jersey. I understand they are also the distributors of "Common Sense", the bi-monthly newspaper devoted to the exposing of communism.

The main theme of these pamphlets were "anti-jew" and often referred to communism as a "Zionist Tool". These publications also name a great number of present and past American leaders in government and the military who are members of this Zionist group intending to ultimately control the world through the international manipulation of money and political power.

If possible, I would appreciate receiving any information you may have available regarding The Christian Education Association, whether or not they are distributors rather than publishers of this material and if so, who might the editor(s) be and something about the experience The Federal Bureau of Investigation may have had with this organization.

Dear Sir:

I believe that such matter as is enclosed should come to your attention. This was sent to me by our very able Superintendent of Public Schools, as indicated by the enclosed memorandum. I am sending this a a citizen convinced that our government representatives should put a stop to all such "hate literature", to so called "anti-communism" crusades through the mails, and to all other forms of publications sent through the mail which spread the seeds of discord and disunity. I believe those responsible for such material and whose names are printed on the bottom of the last page of the enclosre should be duly indicted. It would be my privilege and pleasure to be instrumental in any way in stopping such activity through our Government's legal processes.

If at all possible, I would like the enclosed paper and the memorandum returned to me when you are finished. Thank you for your cooperation.

During the past year, I have been receiving copies of the enclosed paper "Common Sense". I have been amazed at some of the comments that are made in this publication and have begun to feel that this paper should be brought to your attention.

I have no idea as to how my name ever got on their mailing list. I did not subscribe to the paper and I notice that the publication does carry a subscription fee.

Will you please advise me as to whether or not this publication is one that you would endorse or do you feel as I do that it is something that just doesn't look right.

JEW RELIGION EXPOSED

FROM THE "TALMUD" WHICH IS THE JEWISH HOLY BOOK, TAUGHT BY THE RABBIS IN THE SYNAGOGUES, WE FIND THAT JESUS IS REFERRED TO AS:

an Am-haaretz, or ignorant clod, a fool, liar, deceiver, the bastard son of a harlot, who set up His churches as whorehouses with harlots inside to get male customers drunk until they disrobe and worship the "IDOL" Jesus as in Baal sex-worship. TODAY He is given FIVE deaths wherever "Judaism" is taught: He is sunken in "dung to the armpits" and strangled; sunken in "dung to the armpits" and boiling lead poured down His pried-open mouth to burn the intestines; He is decapitated; He is stoned to death; He is crucified as a "blasphemer" of this religion of Pharisaism. Christians rank far below prostitutes, with whom they are standardly compared. All are consigned to hell where "boiling excrement" is their punishment and "boiling semen" is Christ's. Mocking the Bible is no sin but mocking the Talmud "Sages" is the crime of crimes for which the above punishments are given. The "Sages" reverse every Biblical teaching. One may curse parents and beat them to the point of drawing blood when alive, but the sky is the limit when they are dead; a grown man may always rape or commit sodomy with a baby girl under three years old and may commit sodomy with little boys under "nine years and one day" and with a "terefah" (chronically sick person), a dead body or with a neighbor's wife. The basic doctrine of Pharisaic Judaism is that all non-Talmudists rank as non-humans, "the people that are like an ass—slaves who are considered the property of the master" (the human being or Talmudist). The non-Talmudist has no rights under any legal code whatsoever. The "Lord" will never forgive anyone who returns a lost article to a non-Talmudist UNLESS not returning it will jeopardize Jewry in general and expose the Jewish religion for the code of anti-human criminality that it is—THEN it is a crime not to return it. To try to kill a non-Jew is so meritorious that if in the effort to do this a Jew is killed, there is no penalty.

If a woman's lightest sin be that incestuous relations with an older son resulted in a younger son, her heaviest sin must then be "minuth" or Christianity. Even talking to a Christian is likened by the "Sages" to visiting a harlot's house. Murder, robbery, rape, deception of non-Jews, rank only as the meritorious acts of a human being who owns the chickens, cows and asses of creation for his own use. Every Talmudic authority boasts that Marxism was invented and has been led by "them which say they are Jews."

COMMUNISM-SOCIALISM is only the Talmudic code in action. It is sadistically ANTI-CHRIST, anti-human, filthy and SATANIC. It is no accident that all Jewish authorities today state that the Jewish religion as it is today springs in an unbroken line thru all the centuries from the PHARISEES. Nor is it any accident that the Divine Savior warned in the flesh and from the Spirit that the Pharisees were of the Devil (John 8:37-44; Luke 11; Matt. 23; Rev. 2:9;3:9) saying "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews and are not but do lie and are of the synagogue of Satan" (Rev. 2:9;3:9).

But, today, as in the time of Christ, hatred of Him also inspires the buying up of Judases to betray Him:

"Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass land and sea to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves" (Matt. 23:15).

The pagan Pharisees, whose Babylonian Talmud TODAY permits burning children to Molech, did not gain mastery over Judaism until the Sadducees, sticklers for Scripture and against Pharisaic "Tradition" which nullifies the Bible, were overwhelmed after the Bible believing Jews accepted Christ and left the synagogue. Pharisees then took over and completely remodeled "Judaism" on abominator lines. (Matt. 23:31).

JEW'S ADMIT IT WAS A JEW'S WAR!

The Jews themselves make no secret of the fact that the recent war was a Jewish one in its entirety. Consider these statements by Jews on it. The Jew Scholem Asch in a pep talk to French troops in the line, (written in the French newspaper Les Nouvelles Litteraires of February 10th, 1940), says "This is our war, and you are fighting it out for all of us. Even if we Jews are not bodily with you in the trenches, we are nevertheless morally with you."

The Rabbi Reichhorn wrote on July 1st, 1880, in the periodical Le Contemporain, "We shall drive the Christians into wars by exploiting their national vanity and stupidity. They will then massacre each other, thus giving room for our own people."

The Jew Marcus Eli Ravage wrote in the periodical The Century Magazine of January, 1928, "We have stood at the back of, not only the last war, but all your wars; and not only the Russian, but of all your revolutions worthy of mention in your history."

The Jew Valadimir Jabotinsky, leading Zionist, wrote in his book "Die Fudische Kriegsfront, 1940: "When the National Socialists and their friends cry or whisper that this is brought about by the Jews, they are perfectly right."

The Jewish magazine The Sentinel of Chicago wrote in its issue of October 8th, 1942 as follows: "The second World War is being fought for the defense of the fundamentals of Judaism."

FROM THE PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION (JEW CONSPIRACY FOR WORLD CONQUEST)

It is indispensable for our purpose that wars, so far as possible, should not result in territorial gains; war will thus be brought on to the economic ground, where the nations will not fail to perceive in the assistance we give the strength of our predominance, and this state of things will put both sides at the mercy of our international agentur: (agents and agencies made use of by the Jews) which possesses millions of eyes ever on the wealth and unhampered by any limitations whatsoever. Our international rights will then wipe out national rights, in the proper sense of right, and will rule the nations precisely as the civil law of States rule the relations of their subjects among themselves.—(Protocol No. 2).

Non-Jew. this is the truth that will make you free and can be proven in any OPEN American court. Copy it, scatter it. Organize, secretly, now, to beat these "Children of the Devil," at their own game. Fear not, God is with you in the spirit of our Lord Jesus, a Judean, but not a Jew. Your legal authority is in the 10th article of your country's constitution.

JEWS AND YOU

JEWS RULE THE WORLD IN SECRET. THIS IS THEIR YEAR 5716. BERNARD M. BARUCH IS THE PRESENT JEW KING. THEY REFER TO ALL NON-JEWS AS CATTLE (GOYIM). FOLLOWING ARE EXCERPTS FROM THE "TALMUD," JEW HOLY BOOK, EQUIVALENT TO OUR BIBLE, TAUGHT FROM BY THE RABBIS IN THE SYNAGOGUES.

"YOU ARE HUMAN BEINGS, BUT THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD ARE NOT HUMAN BEINGS BUT BEASTS."
—Baba Mecia 114, 6.

"ON THE HOUSE OF THE GOY (NON-JEW) ONE LOOKS AS ON THE FOLD OF CATTLE."—Tosefta Erubin VII, 1.

Gems From The Talmud

"Marriages taking place among Gentiles have no binding strength, i. e., their cohabitation is just as the coupling of horses, therefore their children do not stand as humanly related to their parents." (Law 88).

"MEDINA IVRIT" (The Jewish State). Prague, No. 33, Sept. 27, 1935:

"In our hearts reigns but one sentiment. We command our hearts to banish all other emotions and to let themselves be led by that unique sentiment: that of revenge. Our people have now but one desire: TO DESTROY, RANSACK, BOYCOTT!"

KILL: In a 1931 booklet by Abraham L. Reiskind of New York, entitled "My Conception of God," the Jewish author admits: "There is a passage in the Talmud which is exceedingly bitter against the Gentiles, namely: 'The BEST of the Gentiles—KILL'."

"A thing lost by a goy may not only be kept by the man who found it, but it is even forbidden to give it back to him."—Schulchan Aruch, Choszen Hamispat, 266, 1.

"The robbing of a Gentile is allowed as they are not our brothers" (Baba mezia 61).

"Should a Jew inform the goyish authorities that another Jew has much money, and the other will suffer a loss through it, he must give him remuneration."—Sz., Ar., Ch. Ha., 388.

"If there is no doubt that someone has thrice betrayed the Jews or caused their money to pass to the goys, a means and wise council must be found to do away with him."—The same.

"Although it is not a direct obligation for a Jew to kill a Gentile with whom he lives in peace, yet, in no case, is he allowed to save a Gentile's life." (Law 50).

Klatzkin, Jew, Zionist leader in Der Jude, 1916: "Only the Jewish Code rules our life. Whenever other laws are forced upon us, we regard them as dire oppression and constantly dodge them. We form in ourselves a closed juridical and business corporation. A strong wall built by us separates us from the peoples of the land in which we live—and behind that wall is a Jewish State."

THE COMPLETE EXPOSURE OF THE JEW

WHY JEWS ARE PERSECUTED FOR THEIR RELIGION:

"A Jew is permitted to rape, cheat, and perjure himself; but he must take care that he is not found out, so that Israel may not suffer."—Schul. Aruch, Jore D.

"If a goy kills a goy or a Jew he is responsible; but if a Jew kills a goy he is NOT responsible."—Tosefta, Aboda Zara 8:5.

"It is permitted to kill a Jewish denunciator everywhere. It is permitted to kill him even before he has denounced."—Schulchan Aruch, Choszen Hamispat, 338.

"A Jewish mid-wife is not only permitted, but she is compelled to help a Jewish mother on Saturday (Jewish Sabbath) and when so doing to do anything which otherwise would desecrate the Saturday. But is forbidden to help a non-Jewish woman even if it should be possible to help her without desecrating the Saturday, because she is to be considered only as an animal."—Schul. Aruch, Orach Chaims, 539.

"A Jew may misuse the non-Jewess in her state of unbelief."—Maimonides, Jak. Chasaka 2:2.

"A Jew may violate but not marry a non-Jewish girl."—Gad. Shas. 2:2.

"A Gentile girl who is three years old can be violated."—Aboda Shara 37a.

"A Jew may do to a non-Jewess what he can do. He may treat her as he treats a piece of meat."—Nadarine, 20, B; Schulchan Aruch, Choszen Hamispat 348.

Who and what is in a position to overthrow an invisible force? And this is precisely what our force is. GENTILE masonry, blindly serves as a screen for us and our objects, but the plan of action of our force, even its very abiding-place, remains for the whole people an unknown mystery.—(Protocol No. 4).

To complete the ruin of the industry of the GOYIM we shall bring to the assistance of speculation the luxury which we have developed among the GOYIM, that GREEDY DEMAND FOR LUXURY which is swallowing up everything. We shall raise the rate of wages which, however, will not bring any advantage to workers, for, at the same time, we shall produce a rise in prices of the first necessities of life, alleging that it arises from the decline of agriculture and cattle-breeding: We shall further undermine artfully and deeply sources of production, by accustoming the workers to anarchy and to drunkenness and side by side therewith taking all measure to extirpate from the face of the earth all the educated forces of the GOYIM.—(Protocol 6).

We will not give them peace until they openly acknowledge our international Super-Government, and with submissiveness.—(Protocol No. 9). (i.e., U.N.).

We have fooled, bemused and corrupted the youth of the goyim by rearing them in principles and theories which are known to us to be false, although it is by us that they have been inculcated.—(Protocol No. 9).

In countries known, as progressive and enlightened we have created a senseless, filthy, abominable literature.—(Prot. 15)

Economic crises have been produced by us for the GOYIM by no other means than the WITHDRAWAL OF MONEY FROM CIRCULATION. . . . You are aware that the gold standard has been the ruin of the States which adopted it, for it has not been able to satisfy the demands for money, the more so that we have removed gold from circulation as far as possible.—(Protocol No. 20).

Dear [Redacted]

Your letter dated March 7, 1961, and enclosure have been received, and I want to thank you sincerely for your kind message concerning the work being done by the FBI. Your best wishes are also appreciated.

Although I would like to be of service, the functions and responsibilities of the FBI as a Federal investigative agency do not extend to furnishing evaluations or drawing conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. I regret that I am unable to help you and hope you will not infer in this connection either that we do or that we do not have data in our files relating to the subject of your inquiry.

In view of your interest, I am enclosing material on the general subject of communism available for general distribution by the FBI.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

How to Beat Communism

Series from "Christianity Today"

Honorable J. Edgar Hoover,
Director of the F. B. I.
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Hoover:

EP
I would like some information on the publication Common Sense. I am enclosing their subscription blank.

Sometime around 1952 I wrote a conservative letter to the Dallas Morning News and in a few days I received a sheet entitled, "The Coming Red Dictatorship" - from this same publisher. I figured they got my name from the Dallas paper. Then yesterday I was shown this same sheet, along with two issues of Common Sense - headline on one is "Zionists Control NAACP" and the other headline was "Keep Christ in Christmas." I am sure that you are completely familiar with this firm and its publications. I cannot decipher the founder's and Editor's name; it appears to be Coude McGinley. As yet I have been unable to find any information on this person.

Since I feel that it is the duty of every good American to familiarize themselves with all publications and since I am unable to trace this particular one, I would very much appreciate your advice. It may be good or it may be bad. Hitler used such tactics and it cost a lot of blood.

I simply do not have adequate words to express to you my deep appreciation for your superior work. You live in the heart of every good American and you always will. Our country is indeed fortunate and blessed in having your goodness and greatness. May God bless you always.

Any information you can give me will be appreciated.
Thanks for your kind courtesy.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:

Each time I read yours of October 26, 1960, in reply to mine of October 19, 1960, I become more confused and disgusted at not being able to locate the information I seek.

Surely if you can not supply the requested information, you can refer it to someone who can and will supply, for I seek authentic and truthful facts regarding the security of our government and country.

Therefore, kindly refer mine of October 19th to

Dear Mr Hoover

I am forwarding herewith to your Bureau the enclosed envelope, together with its contents, postmarked Los Angeles, California, which we received this morning.

It contains an assortment of rather extreme propaganda which apparently is being widely circulated under the guise of "fighting Communism". If we receive similar mailings in the future, we shall be happy to forward them also if the Bureau would like to have such things.

THE FORD FOUNDATION

(Philanthropy, with a tax-exempt smile)

Take a dozen Quakers—be sure they're sweet and pink—
Add one discussion program to make the people think;
Brown a liberal education in television grease
And roll in economics, seasoned well with peace.
Crush a juvenile delinquent (or any wayward kid)
And blend it with the roots of an Asiatic's id.

Dice teachers' education, and in a separate pan
Make a sauce of brown technicians from India-Pakistan
And pour it over seed-corn in a pilot demonstration,
One that has been flavored with peel-off implication.

Take a board of good conservatives, the nicest you can buy,
And mix them with the white of a beaten liberal's eye.
Now render the conditions of a peace that's just and free
And mix them with insistence on national sovereignty.

Stir everything together and when the fire's hot,
Pour a little Russian exile into the steaming pot.
Sweeten with publicity all the serving bowls
(By the way, this recipe serves two billion souls),
Garnish with compassion—just a touch will do—
And serve in deep humility your philanthropic stew.

New York State Supreme Court Justice, Meier Steinbrinck - who illegally and unethically also holds the job as the legal head and New York chairman of the (Anti-) -Defamation League of B'nai B'rith declared at the close of this subversive and un-American group's this year's convention at the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria:

"Under American law an offender who has served his sentence meted out by the courts is considered of having paid for his offense.

"This is not our idea!

"Anybody who has offended or harmed the Jewish cause is never to be forgiven and we (the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith) shall employ the millions of dollars at our disposal to see to it that such enemy of the Jewish cause shall never regain his previously held position or social standing."

KURT MERTIG

July 3, 1950

JEWISH LIFE New York, May 1938 declared: "Every Jew who is interested in the plight of the Jews . . . should realize that the best sons of the Jewish people are the Jewish communists, and that the most faithful ally of the Jews . . . is the Communist Party."

"How you feeling, Chicky Baby?" asked Sen. Kennedy's sister, Pat (Mrs. Peter Lawford) as she kissed Sammy Davis Jr. (negro) at his marriage to May Britt (white).

Columnist Dorthy Kilgallen writes: "I am inclined to regard as logical the theory of those who say that wedding was postponed until after Election Day because Mrs. Peter Lawford was bound to attend and kiss the groom, and the presence of Sen. Kennedy's sister at the inter-racial marriage might have cost the Democratic contender plenty of water among Southern segregationists."

Do you know of any peoples so devoid of "pride of race" as are Jews and Negroes?

THESE ARE THE FRUITS . . .

Propagandists for racial integration are fond of pointing out that young children, when mixed with Negroes, show absolutely no racial "prejudice" or awareness of skin color. This, they contend, "proves" that race consciousness is unnatural, and that children are taught racial "bias" by their elders. That sounds like a good argument, but it isn't, because the truth is that young children are equally unprejudiced against dirt, poisonous insects and a multitude of other harmful or undesirable things. The fact that very young children display no racial awareness proves nothing—except that they need to be taught racial self-respect along with their table manners and personal hygiene.

On the other hand, if white children are thrown together with Negroes at every possible opportunity (as these Los Angeles City College students were) and are taught that racial integration is one of nature's noblest virtues, then scenes like the ones shown here will eventually be duplicated on every college campus in America . . . It's being planned that way. #206

PLEASE!

A dedicated great American patriot, who deplores the apathy and/or ignorance of many Americans re: the trend toward Communism, and the alien onslaughts upon our American Way of Life and United States Constitution, who has for years been a strong supporter of the Christian Educational Association,—publisher of the Anti-Communism paper "COMMON SENSE", edited by Conde McGinley, Box 807, Union, New Jersey,—in a letter to another American patriot said:

"What is the answer? Financial support for "Common Sense" until it hurts. Common Sense cannot long continue on its present basis. It is arithmetically and physically impossible. If Common Sense closes up, all opposition to the conspirators will soon collapse. They will read the handwriting on the wall. In my opinion every Christian patriot should send Common Sense some money EVERY WEEK, even if it is only $1.00 salvaged from cigarette money, soft drink money, liquor money, movies, and other unnecessary comforts and luxuries. Ten thousand such persons could turn the tide, and a hundred thousand such persons could make a grease-spot of the conspiracy in six months time. If Common Sense shuts its doors we might as well push in the chips and join the other side. If we do not do it willingly we will have to do it unwillingly very soon. Conde McGinley is a living saint in my opinion. Must he also be a martyr?

"For twenty years I have attempted to point out the only outcome of indifference to the threat of civilization. I was laughed at by those who are now shivering in their shoes because what I explained to them and warned them against has now materialized. Now I see Common Sense the only anchor to windward which can prevent the wreck of society on the rocks of a Christless civilization. With the financial support to tell the basic facts to millions Common Sense can be the Paul Revere of this age. The Christian population is being so brainwashed that they will commit cultural hari-kari in their ignorance. It would be comic if it were not so tragic. If Christians gave 10% of the time and money they devote to professional sports the problem facing us would disappear like snow at the Equator. As it looks to me now, we are trying to slay a dinosaur with a fly-swatter. We can only exhaust ourselves doing that. We cannot slay the dinosaur. Endless chains have been worked for almost everything. Can an endless chain for Common Sense be started? We are not dopes, or are we? We can sell everything it seems but we cannot sell the most precious product now on the market, our security and survival."

Won't you subscribe to COMMON SENSE (only $1.00 a year) and do your utmost to help with a donation, too, and/or added subscriptions? Don't hesitate and regret later.

Sir: AN OPEN LETTER

U.S. CONSTITUTION A DEAD LETTER?

Some "vital statistics" or headlines: "Ike Presents $81 Billion Peak Peacetime Budget"; "Ike Order Triggers Gold Price Slump.. by forbidding Americans to hold gold abroad"; "1962 'Pot Roast' Hard to Digest: the Government's budget book weighs 4 lbs. 7 oz., about as much as a small pot roast"; "Paul Samuelson, top economist for Kennedy recommends pump priming costing 3 to 5 Billions"; "Rusk (incoming Sec'y of State) Urges more help to New, Poor Nations"; "Double (Foreign) Aid, JFK Panel to Suggest." - - "Since End of WW II, USA has given away 80 BILLIONS," said Dean Clarence Manion over Manion Forum. - - "National Suicide: If entire national income of U.S. were spent to improve living conditions of hundreds of millions in underdeveloped areas, their living standard could not be raised by even one per cent, especially because of fast-growing populations of those countries," said Life Line, Washington, D.C. - - And so on ad infinitum.

Despite the Fifi fields, money is the lifeblood of a nation, representing sweat, toil, tears of its people. Millions no longer suffice; Big Government tosses out uncountable BILLIONS, in addition to present stifling debt of nearly a trillion: mortgaging the unborn. Christ said, "The poor ye have always with you." Can our 7% of world's population change that, by impoverishing ourselves? The Kennedy Regime intends to add billions to our deficit, causing more inflation.

By confiscating our tax monies, our property (via Metro), Freedom, and individual rights, those in power have made the Constitution largely a dead letter, especially ART. I, Sec. 8, Part 5. This has been always largely ignored by every President (except Lincoln); though each President solemnly swears on the Bible to "preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States. But the Middle Class is being enslaved and wined out in America, as in Communist countries. Most of the Kennedy program is Socialistic and unconstitutional. Soviet Internationalism largely controls the earth now, despite the U.S., UN, NATO, and all other expensive entanglements. We are infiltrated by it as we spend ourselves to destruction. (Wonder why these so-equal underdeveloped countries - now UN members - can never do anything to improve their own lot?)

Nor did President Eisenhower have any Constitutional authority to forbid Americans, either here or abroad, to own gold. The Constitution requires Congress to COIN money, not print it. In short, "to make coins by stamping; to convert metal into coins; to mint it."

THIS IS LAWFUL MONEY, so why shouldn't Americans own some? FREE men can always own gold. ALL nations are eventually destroyed by printing press money and usury. Our Constitution was written solely for the BENEFIT OF AMERICANS - not Foreigners. If Big Centralized Government lawfully obeyed its only charter, The American Constitution, and did not try to do everything FOR the people, they could then look after themselves, save their own money, and be independent. THIS IS AMERICANISM, instead of serfdom. "With the consent of the governed," used to be a vital part of Americanism. Now, "Do as I say or else!" says Big Government, which is no longer the servant of OUR people, but of Foreigners. What is the essential difference between having everything run from Washington -- or from Moscow?

Quoting John Stuart Mill: "The worth of the State, in the long run, is the worth of the individuals composing it: and...a State which dwarfs its men, to be docile instruments in its hands even for (so-called) beneficial purposes, will find that with small men no great things can be accomplished."

"Hate Germany" Propaganda Exposed

By Holten Whitney

(A word about the Author: The author of the following article, an American soldier, went to Europe believing all the conventional hate propaganda against Germany that had been disseminated in America by a controlled and kept press, radio, movies and other sources of information. But being possessed of a keen, intelligent and inquiring mind, he investigated in a fair way. After carrying on his research, he came back home from Europe disillusioned with his former feelings of animosity against Germany.)

WHAT I SAW.

Back in June, 1945, I was stationed at the former German concentration camp at Dachau, Bavaria.

The Jewish refugees were still there in great numbers, the war having ended for Dachau only two months earlier. The other refugees had long since gone home and to work. The Jewish refugees remained and were stripping the camp of everything they could steal and carry away. The warehouses and shops and storerooms of the camp had been full of all kinds of goods and material at the end of the war.

The first time I noticed this Jew thievery was when a Jew commandeered an army truck going into Munich. He had large cloth bags with him. They were full of leather. But he was just an ordinary thief. Another time a Jew tried to steal five hundred pounds of brass out of a utility shop and got caught within my presence.

One Rumanian Jew stole enough goods out of the camp and got enough free labor from the prisoners of war that he started a factory of his own and shared its ownership with the Jewish-American sub-commander of the camp maintenance system. His name was Major Greene. The reason I know is that I often took gangs of prisoners of war over to the factory near the village of Dachau and guarded them while they toiled.

The Jews stole cars and trucks from the camp and maintained them right in the camp at the expense of the American army. I've seen them bribe G.I.'s to steal gasoline for the trucks and cars.

German engineers and auto experts were employed to keep the stolen vehicles in good condition, when the German prisoners were supposed by army authorities to be working on American army trucks.

An enduring mental picture I have of the Automotive Repair shop is the cars of the various Jews jacked up for repairs and occupying all the space in the garage.

The Jews also used material and labor from the camp in order to keep up and repair their homes and homes of their girl friends outside the camp, sometimes as far away as Munich. I used to take work details over to Munich to work on these private houses.

The Jews occupied nearly all the decent housing on the premises of the camp while many American soldiers had to live three to a room.

The house of the former commandant of the camp in German days was occupied by a Jew named Mildos and his White servants. He wore black leather boots and riding pants and drove around the camp in a German limousine. He used to throw parties for some of the American officers. Then the house would be lit up all night and the sound of the band could be heard all over the camp, which covered about a square mile.

I sometimes would mention to other G.I.'s stationed at Dachau what I saw the Jews doing. "That's nothing. Yesterday they . . ." was an answer I often got back. The same thing was happening all over the camp from what I heard. I was told specifically that the Jews stole glass wool, army gasoline, radio parts by the truckful, and a whole warehouse full of skis.

Within a few months after the war, the cupboard was bare of materials and goods in so far as wartime Dachau was concerned. But many a Jew fortune was made.

How did the Jews get away with it?

One way was thru the propaganda about their persecution at the hands of the Germans during the war. This propaganda caused the Americans to be indifferent towards the Jewish plundering of property belonging to others.

Some people seemed to think that Jews were above the law and beyond criticism. Once a Jew went up to a G.I., a youngster in years and army experience, and pointed out the window to a detail of Hungarian prisoners of war. "See that Hungarian out there with the stripes on his arm? He was a member of the Hungarian secret police during the war. He tortured a lot of Jews." The American soldier went out and forced the Hungarian to clean snow off the tops of a row of army trailers. He made him do it with bare hands.

Another thing was the organization of Jewry itself. The Jews were for all practical purposes in charge of Dachau. Most important jobs and positions seemed to be in their hands. The section of the camp where I was employed was overseen by an American Jewish officer. The American army sergeant of the prison compound where I worked was still another American Jew.

THOSE "SIX MILLION" JEWS

The Jews have so intimidated the public that no columnist has dared give the German side of the "six million" Jew story, hence, the lie is repeated by people who know nothing of the facts.

It is queer that members of our military occupation forces and non-military men who devoted weeks and months over post-war Germany trying to locate the remains of some sign of the gas chambers found nothing. These investigators were sent from one place to another. Only a pipe was called to their attention but further inquiry proved that these were buildings where millions of prisoners were sent through to disinfest their clothing and delouse the bodies as a safety measure in preventing disease. The official Jewish figure for Jewish population in Germany was 640 thousand.

Germany was being threatened from the outside while the communist Jews were trying to take Germany over from the inside, this forced Germany to place many Jews in concentration camps. Jews over the world cried for war on Germany; 22 nations then were out to destroy Germany which was attacked by several thousand bombers in a single day.

Germany was blockaded and faced with feeding themselves as well as millions of prisoners; thus, Germans were on the verge of starvation. Communist Jews inside Germany were a serious source of trouble, they, who had brought on the war could not escape suffering under these conditions which they were responsible for.

The whereabouts of these so-called Jews is no mystery to those who have given time to the study of the question. The U.S. as well as South America and other countries have been systematically flooded. It is well to remember that President Truman set aside 12 ships to bring Jews from Europe after the war. Hundreds of thousands came in illegally.

"Six million Jews," is an effective slogan for blackmailing the Germans and adding to the age old propaganda of Jews being persecuted. West Germany and U.S. taxpayers have given hundreds of millions to Israel that did not exist during the war.

The Jewish-owned TV channel 5 in New York City on July 18 ran an hour long film "REMEMBER US" — a movie creation grossly exaggerating conditions in Jewish camps in Germany during the war.

Several times NINE million Jews were mentioned as being burned in ovens. A woman described what she witnessed in several camps, but like the Anne Frank lie, it was not explained how she was allowed to see all of this and live!

In order to deceive the public more fully, pictures of several ovens were shown. The same single-body oven found in every city, for cremating. Jews outsmart themselves in their "LOVE THE JEWS", hate the Germans, program.

His name was Givertz. The foreman of all the prisoners of war sent out from the compound was a Jew refugee. And the compound office swarmed with droves of other Jews.

When Givertz came to the office in July, he was a "T" corporal and was outranked by a gentle buck sergeant. The buck sergeant was transferred to another job in another part of the camp early in August. Later on he took a civilian job at the camp at $5,500 a year. Givertz was promoted first to buck sergeant, then to staff sergeant, and the last I heard he was a master sergeant, by the first of 1946.

In January of 1946 the American army forcibly deported Ukrainian freedom fighters to Communist Russia. When the war had started in 1941 between Russia and Germany, the Ukrainians had risen up against the Red dictatorship at Moscow and fought alongside the Germans. They did so in order to free their country from Russian occupation.

The Russians permanently reoccupied Ukraine at the close of WW II and hundreds of thousands of Ukrainians had fled to the West for sanctuary, where they were jailed by the American army and kept in camps like Dachau. The Red government at Moscow said the Ukrainians were Nazis and demanded their return.

One day at noon I heard a terrible cry and sounds of commotion at the Ukrainian compound. Upon arriving there, I saw that the Ukrainians were being forced by a contingent of the artillery soldiers, to board railroad boxcars. The train was parked on a siding just outside the Ukrainian compound.

The effort to force the Ukrainians had not succeeded as yet. First the American officers had asked the Ukrainians to get on the train. Then they sent American soldiers into the barracks to force them out. Then the Americans had tossed tear gas bombs into the barracks. And still the Ukrainians had not come out. Instead the Ukrainians crowded to the windows for fresh air and pleaded with the American soldiers for mercy.

Near the gate to the prison enclosure stood the American officers and the Red officers who were to accompany the Ukrainians to Russia. Swarming around the boxcars of the train and spilling over into the compound were hundreds of spectators. The compound was filled with a battalion of American soldiers milling around trying to escape the fumes from the bombs that had been tossed into the barracks. They were unable to approach them because of the gas clinging to the building and all in it.

After a conference between the American and Communist officers, gas masks had been summoned from an infantry regiment headquarters. Shortly the American soldiers donned the masks and divided into teams.

American soldiers went into the barracks with clubs. They beat down resistance and dragged the Ukrainians out of the barracks one by one. They handed them to the main body of American soldiers who remained outside the barracks. Two soldiers would then get on either arm of a Ukrainian and another American soldier would follow along behind with a club. If the unfortunate twisted or resisted the soldier behind would strike him on the back of the head. And they did not spare the rod.

The doors of the railroad boxcars were thrown wide open. The Ukrainians like cattle were packed tightly in both ends of the boxcars. Both ends were boarded up and nailed fast, leaving the middle of the car empty where the doors opened. A soldier rode in the middle of the car as guard.

As a last measure of resistance, the sweaty, tear-stained Ukrainians locked their arms together in sheer desperation and came outside the barracks. The ragged lines swayed as they sang national anthems of their country. The soldiers charged the lines and beat them down with clubs.

Still another team of American soldiers

ALLIED BOMBERS LEAVE THEIR MARK

This is one of the many groups of victims of the ferocious Allied bombings of Dresden, Germany, the art center, on Feb. 13, 14, and April 17, 1945, which "held no important industries which could have bolstered the fading German war effort" (N.Y. Herald Tribune), but whose 625,000 population had just then been swelled to 1,000,000 by refugees from the Russians believing that the Four Freedom crusaders would not bomb where bombing would kill only women and children—and art. "When the Red Army arrived on May 8, it ordered the thousands of corpses that were still being taken out of the debris to be piled up in the Altmarkt The streets leading to the square were roped off and flame-throwers were turned on the bodies."

Hundreds of thousands of Germans who were buried in the mass graves as a result of bombings were exhibited later to deceive Americans into believing they were Jews.

cleared out from the barracks whoever tried to remain inside. One youth was dragged by the feet out from one of the barracks. He had wedged himself under a bed and breathed deeply of the gas fumes.

When they dragged him out he was suffocated by the tear gas. The color of his face was deep purple. His long, lank body and close-cropped blond hair reminded me of some American high school athlete of pre-war days in America. But the youth was not the only dead Ukrainian. The area was littered with the bodies of victims of tear gas and physical assault. One of them had regained an upright position. He was praying, and for some reason I fancied he was saying "Forgive them, Oh Lord, for they know not what they do."

I knew that history was in the making. I therefore had the urge to participate. So I joined the ranks of one group of American soldiers as they left the railroad cars after having delivered their charges to them.

I got in line and grabbed the left arm of a Ukrainian and began escorting him to the train. The smell of tear gas was strong and I could feel the sweat under his arm thru his torn shirt. He sagged a little and bent his head as he went along. Half way to the gate I leaned towards his ear and said in a low voice, "Fini, eh?" He answered in the affirmative.

For a long time I fancied I could smell the sweat from his arm on my fingers. I could not help but contrast the oriental features and squat build of the communist officers with the light complexioned and straight-featured countenance of the Ukrainian patriot.

Days later there were stories around the camp that the Ukrainians had been shot as soon as the train crossed into the Soviet zone of Germany.

I hate to admit it but not one American soldier I talked to about it displayed the slightest amount of sympathy for the Ukrainians. "They were traitors," were the inevitable answers. Once I replied to a buddy of mine, "Then the Italians were traitors for turning on Germany. The Ukrainians are no more Russians than the Italians are Germans." My friend could not understand.

What I Learned Thru Personal Investigation in My Capacity as a Guard at the Camp.

GAS OVENS AT DACHAU

When I came to Dachau I had heard of the horrors of the gas chambers where it was stated that millions of Jews had been burned to death. I had seen pictures of the death train found at the gate of Dachau in April, 1945, when the American army moved in. The picture showed heaps of dead bodies of men, women, and children. They were incredibly wasted and were lying sprawled around the open doors of boxcar doors.

Once in Dachau I sensed vagueness about the alleged murders. The whole question melted away when brought up. In general I never saw any proof of the gassing of millions or even thousands of prisoners. No one knew anything about it altho I asked many questions.

At that time in the summer of 1945, the story of the "six million" had not yet been born. The number claimed dead was much smaller than it is now.

It seemed that all the Jews and ex-prisoners at Dachau had been there a long time since before 1939 in many cases. Most of them appeared to be in good health and unmarked by life. A few of them had a hollow look around the eyes and a certain tightness to the skin of the face. The ones I asked about it said they had had typhus "Everyone here had it," they said.

Typhus is a fever that literally burns up and makes skeletons out of its victims.

I asked a German about the murder of millions at Dachau in the crematory. He waved his hands and told me not to believe such lies. He had been at the camp since being drafted into the German army in 1942, first as a guard and then as a prisoner of the Americans. There had been no cruelty, no gassing, no murder.

WHAT ABOUT THE DEATH TRAIN?

"They were prisoners of war, Russian guerrilla bands mostly, brought here to Dachau as we retreated from the East," he said. "Bombing attacks slowed the movement of the train. Typhus broke out in it amid filthy conditions," he continued, "and by the time the train got here, most of the prisoners were afflicted and dying."

HOW DO YOU EXPLAIN THE

"CREMATORY?" I asked.

"Every prison and asylum has a crematory," he said. "There's no room for graveyards in Germany, at least for prisoners. We must use the land to grow food. How could we have a funeral for each of the thousands of Germans killed by bombs including the prisoners?"

The crematory at Dachau was one of the first places I visited upon reaching Dachau. One Saturday I went on a conducted tour of the gas chambers. I joined about fifteen men and women tourists from different countries at the main gate. We went thru a little clump of trees in one corner of the camp, down a muddy path. We entered a small concrete building about the size of a backyard garage.

The first room was empty except for several signs and a large painting around the room. The signs indicated that many beings had met their death on these premises. It was obvious to me that this was propaganda paraphernalia placed there after the war to prejudice tourists. It was not placed there by the Germans. I forget the exact number that the signs claimed had been put to death in Dachau. But it was a few thousands. Since then I have read repeatedly in national magazines that nearly a million jews were exterminated there.

The painting showed a gaunt prisoner in striped convict suit with ball and chain attached to one leg.

The guide said that the prisoners had been relieved of all possessions and clothing in this first room. He said that gold and stainless steel dentures and the hair on the head had been salvaged after the executions which had taken place in the next room.

The second room was fitted out with shower nozzles running along the walls. There were no windows and both doors were heavy. It was not much bigger than a small bedroom. The guide said that the prisoners were gassed in this second room. The gas was wafted thru the shower nozzles after the prisoners had been told they were going to take a shower.

The guide made no reference to jews being gassed. I got the impression that the victims were mostly Russian prisoners of war caught operating back of German battle lines and executed as spies.

The back door to this shower room looked down into a cramped boiler room. This boiler room looked like part of a basement to some small brick building. It was fitted out with two large boilers. The boilers had gas jets inside.

Each boiler was fitted out with two metal stretchers on rollers attached to the front of the boiler. The corpses were placed on the stretchers and pushed inside the boilers. In an hour or so the bodies were reduced to cinders. The remains were raked off the stretchers and new corpses were put in place.

We followed the guide down into the boiler room. We saw wooden push carts sitting outside the boiler room doors under a tree.

The sightseers had been apprehensive and a little jittery when we started from the main gate. They seemed gloomy when we were in the ante-room. But another emotion seemed to come over them down in the boiler room.

The crematory had not quite panned out. Some of them had traveled far to see it. From afar they had heard of a Nazi death factory. They had expected banks of gas ovens and evidence of murder, mass murder.

Instead of a million jews it turned out that a few thousand prisoners of war had been executed there, and after death had been cremated instead of buried. And for all the sightseers knew, the prisoners may have deserved it.

It was obvious to all that the equipment at hand was not sufficient to gas or burn very many bodies. I figured it up later. It would have taken 540 years to burn the proverbial "six million" at Dachau even if the crematory were kept busy all day long, seven days a week, fifty-two weeks a year. It would have taken ninety years to burn a million bodies at Dachau.

When we stepped out the back door of the crematory, there was a buzz of conversation in the crowd and short laughter. One girl laughed cynically and said, "Is that all there is to it?" The German people had not been so evil as she had thought.

But there was one more thing to see. The guide showed us stacks of earthenware jars. They were meant to hold the remains of the dead. The jars were shipped to relatives of the dead.

More than once afterwards during my months at Dachau, I went back to the small building housing the crematory. Most week days it was deserted.

Several things about the premises struck my attention. One was the shower room. The doors were not air tight. No gassing of prisoners seemingly could have taken place in the shower room. The escaping gas would have sickened and eventually killed the guards and attendants.

Also the shower nozzle, from whence it was alleged the deadly gas wafted, appeared to be new. The nozzles were bright and shiny. The plaster around them was lighter in color than the plaster on the rest of the room. The plaster around the nozzles was no more than several months old if that much. This fact suggested that the shower nozzles had been installed after the war, as I had heard before from a German plumber, named Alex, who had been in the prisoner work gang ordered to install them.

The presence of push carts outside the boiler room suggested something too. They probably had been used to bring the dead from the hospital and barracks to the crematory after having died from natural causes.

Incidentally up until the last part of the war, the victims of illness at the camp had been treated at the camp hospital, whose facilities for treatment were excellent even by American standards. Each bed was fitted out with radios and earphones.

As for cremation, it permitted the families of the dead to claim the ashes and to give them a decent burial at home, something they would not have been able to do in most cases without cremation.

Cremation is indeed the accepted way of disposing of dead bodies in many European institutions and prisons and asylums even today. The one at Dachau was no bigger than normal. It served the need to dispose quickly of diseased corpses in order to prevent and control epidemics. The crematory served as camp graveyard.

Further Investigative Research Carried Out By the Author After Leaving Camp Dachau.

Here is how I reconstructed the operation of the crematory, after much thinking and questioning and reading. Every morning the pushcarts gathered the dead from the barracks. It must be said that many prisoners were in bad health or suffering from sickness when they came to Dachau.

The corpses were delivered to the ante-room. They were examined there by a doctor. Death certificates were made out and the bodies were prepared for cremation.

All clothing was removed and valuables were removed. The possessions of the dead were confiscated by the state. They were contributed to the war effort of common defense against Communist invasion from the East.

Here I take issue with the government. The personal possessions ought to have been returned to the families of the dead when possible. This might indeed have been done before the last years of the war.

The bodies were laid out in the so-called shower room. The doors were kept closed for obvious reasons.

The crematory burners were started. The bodies were carried down to the boiler room one by one on stretchers and burned. After an hour or so the ashes were raked out of the boilers and placed in jars. The jars were sealed, labeled and stacked out in back of the crematory. A truck picked up the jars and took them to the camp express office. They were sent home free of charge. Until the last month of the war, the ashes of every single human being who died at Dachau was sent home to his family.

Towards the last part of the war, many of the dead from the epidemics that swept the camp had no records in camp. It was impossible to label the remains of them. So they were given a common burial in large caskets.

When the American army over-ran Dachau, so did teams of jew agents. These orientals and bolsheviks engineered the story of Dachau as a murder camp. Meanwhile other teams of jews were doing the same thing all over Europe. They took possession of the German war archives. They appropriated records, films and whole libraries of information. They forged documents that incriminated individual German governmental officers. The jews destroyed documents that justified the Germans. They coerced and tortured confessions out of prisoners. They doctored photographs. They doctored papers.

In the end they burned over 100 million library and school textbooks in the greatest book burning outrage in the history of the world.

Evidence collected by the German army showed that the Reds had slaughtered close to seventy-eight million Whites, mostly blonds, in Russia and Eastern Europe from 1917 onwards. The Reds liquidated the native Russian stock. By 1941 only Asiatics and mixed breeds remained.

The jews destroyed all evidence of Communist genocide.

But they did more. For example the jews would take a photograph of a Khazar tribesman murdering a blond-haired German family in Russia. They would doctor the photograph and change the faces and insignia on uniforms to make it seem that the White was killing the Asiatic.

The Germans had captured thousands of detailed pictures showing the mass murder of the Russian equivalent to our Pennsylvania Dutch, in Russia in 1940-1941.

The jew agents who descended upon Germany after the close of World War II forced German citizens to sign false confessions admitting the murder of jews. Their confessions were used against Germanic people everywhere.

Frankfurt Germany served as headquarters for the processing of what the jew teams invented, faked and forged. The central office for the jew fabricators was said to be located in the I. G. Farben building for a while.

There the final processing was done on the truckloads of affidavits, photographs and film. The whole mass of faked evidence was assembled into a coherent tale by the end of 1945. It has served as a basis for prosecution in all war crime trials since then. That part of the forged evidence pertaining to the trial of the so-called major war criminals of 1946 is called "Official Documents of Nazi War Crimes and Aggression."

Afterwards the whole bulk of the material was shipped to the Wiener Library in London. This library was made up of thousands of statements by jews charging the Germanic people with all sorts of crimes since 1933.

It is a fact that no jews were driven to prisons in Nazi Germany simply because they were jews.

Wherever it is possible to investigate the truthfulness of stories that jews were persecuted, none can be proven. For example it is admitted that no French jews were gassed. It is too easy to check the facts in France. Journalists have access to all parts of the country. People are not afraid to talk. Plenty of impartial witnesses exist to confirm or deny.

The well-known radical jewess Gertrude Stein lived in France all thru the war. She was not molested by the Nazis.

Our sources of information about the extermination of the "six million" come to us from just those areas where no confirmation is possible, i.e., Eastern Europe and areas are strongly anti-German, anti-White and anti-Nazi. History shows that the governments were launched by these so-called Jews and Jew ideas. The press and institutions for scientific research and scholarship of nearly all of them are tied to national political policy and are regarded as tools of the state.

— "HATE GERMANY" —

Therefore the case against Germany is based upon the word of their worst enemies, supported by witnesses who have been subjected to strong coercion and by documents filtered thru Jewish hands.

Such evidence is no evidence.

In 1933 the Reds burned down the German capitol buildings in Berlin as a signal to Red revolution. The revolution failed. Camp Dachau was built as an auxiliary prison for the purpose of housing communist traitors. Many if not most of them were Jews.

Dachau continued thru the thirties to serve as a prison for Red traitors. Conditions at the camp were no better or worse than any other prison in north Europe. Until 1939 it accommodated only German Jewish and German prisoners. No executions took place there.

Dachau was expanded when war broke out in 1939. Communist infiltrators, spies, and saboteurs from other parts of Europe were sent there once the war started.

Few or no Jews were sent to Dachau after 1941 when the Russo-German war started. The Russian Jews fled en masse with the flight of the Red army. They believed their own propaganda. Few of these Russian Jews ever came under jurisdiction of the German government.

The Jews in such nations as Italy, Rumania, Slovakia, Bulgaria and Hungary also were beyond the control of the German state. Nazi officials like Joseph Goebbels complained often in their wartime diary-writings that Jews still strongly influenced the rulers of these German allies.

At no time were there more than 3 million Jews under control of Nazi Germany. There were no more than half that number ever living at one time inside Greater Germany, including three fourths of the land now claimed as Poland.

By 1944 the Red army began its invasion of Germany. Prisons inside Germany did double and triple duty in order to accommodate prison populations from those portions of Europe that the Asiatics had driven into.

Dachau got its share of prisoners of war starting late in 1944 and early 1945, a few months before the end of the war.

The spring of 1945 brought clear weather to the small territory left to the German army. It also brought clouds of American and British aircraft who shot up everything in sight. The planes strafed and bombed even at night. Nothing on wheels could move.

By April communications and governmental control had broken down in Germany. The Reich was prostrate. Dachau was isolated and quarantined.

Trainloads of prisoners on the way to Dachau were stalled on track sidings for weeks. The results can be imagined. The authorities could not turn the prisoners loose, and they could not supply them with food or medication.

It was one of these trains that was parked at the gate at Dachau on a morning late in April, 1945, when the American army reached Dachau. The Americans were horrified. But they knew it was one of the accidents of war caused by allied invasion of Europe and concomitant circumstances. It took a Jewish press to convince the world otherwise.

The trains that reached Dachau before the Americans came found the same bad conditions there. Food supplies had given out at Camp Dachau. Famine and sickness swept the camp. The newcomers only added to the overcrowding and brought more epidemics to sweep the camp.

The crematory worked overtime to dispose of the typhus racked, pitifully thin bodies of German guards and their prisoners. There was one gathering of the dead in the morning and another in the afternoon. The camp command gave up push carts and resorted to trucks in order to get the corpses delivered to the crematory.

Many of the corpses weighed no more than fifty pounds. They would be reduced to ashes within thirty to forty minutes in the incinerator.

It is important to remember that each of these corpses were counted as Jews by the press in later compilations. Also each one was said to have been murdered instead of having died naturally from disease.

The attendants and German guards at the crematory died from contamination from the dead. Towards the end of the war, most of the German guards and some of the officers and their families stationed at the camp fled. Finally the crematory was abandoned. The bodies were left lying in their beds or at best stacked in one place. The guards who had the courage to remain retreated to the guard towers in order to escape the pestilence. Many were found dead at their posts.

There was no food in the camp for the last three days. These were three of the days late in April that the American army waited passively nearby while the Red army closed in on the heartland of the White man.

The same stories about German atrocities were told during and after World War I. They were shown to be false by revisionist historians after the close of the war. The stories of the gas ovens of World War II were more of the same wartime propaganda of hysteria, designed to fire up the people to fervor for war. But after WW II, it served Jewish propaganda to continue with the stories and to continue to make fools of the masses. The spirit of deliberate scholarship and scientific honesty in evaluating the past has disappeared since 1918. True liberalism in historical research is dead for the most part. The result is that most people still believe in the myth of the "six million."

— Those "SIX MILLION JEWS" —

Anne Frank's diary described her at age 15 standing naked watching a line of naked women four abreast, being thrown into the ovens. She described another camp where she was later, but did not explain how, without clothes, she concealed her diary. Her own father here in New York for a court hearing stated that the statements attributed to her could not be from a girl her age.

A man born and lived in Russia for 25 years viewed the "REMEMBER US" film with us and says that a number of the gruesome scenes attributed to Germany were from the Soviet Union.

Now—hear two Jews on Channel 13: On July 6, 1960, George Sokolsky in an interview with Mike Wallace on TV-NTA, New York, stated that many of the Jews thought to be killed by Germany were killed by Stalin.

Reminds you of the Katyn Massacre—where 14,000 Polish officers were buried in four graves—killed by the Soviet Union and blamed on Germany.

A Colonel of the U.S. Army examined these Polish graves while a German prisoner and reported it was the work of the communists, but our defense department remained silent—protecting the Soviet Union.

Not one Jew or non-Jew was burned alive; thousands of dead, mainly Germans were cremated for sanitary reasons.

Never have we heard one word of sorrow from the Jews as to more than 75 million non-Jews killed under direction of the communist Jews in the Soviet Union and communist-controlled Countries.

Two and a half million Germans, who were prisoners of the Soviet Union, have never been heard of to date.

Today Jews cry before the Walling Wall in Jerusalem for persecution a thousand years ago. The cry of persecution is valuable to this group which is a nation within a nation.

Why have the Jews been repulsed in England, France, Germany, Hungary, Rumania, Italy, Poland, Austria and now the Soviet Union and the Middle East. It is important that our people understand how organized Jewry has deceived the world about the situation in Germany, so that we can prevent them from maneuvering us into World War III, as they did in World War I and II.

No one can disprove these facts.

Are there any four Jewish leaders in the World who will meet Mr. McGinley and Mr. Freedman in debate and deny that the Zionist brought the U.S. into World War I and II against Germany? There are not.

BROTHERHOOD?

The following are exact quotes from the book "GERMANY MUST PERISH" by Theodore N. Kaufman, published by Argyle Press, Newark, N. J., February, 1941.

This book was accepted by the Zionist leaders as the guide for dealing with the German people who had challenged the Jewish plot to rule the world by communism.

"The population of Germany, excluding conquered and annexed territories, is about 70,000,000, almost equally divided between male and female. To achieve the purpose of German extinction it would be necessary to only sterilize some 43,000,000—a figure which excludes, because of their limited power to procreate, males over 60 years of age, and females over 45.

"Concerning the males subject to sterilization the army groups, as organized units, would be the easiest and quickest to deal with. Taking on the assumption that each will perform a minimum of 25 operations daily, it would take no more than one month, at the maximum, to complete their sterilization.

"Inasmuch as sterilization of women needs somewhat more time, it may be computed that the entire female population of Germany could be sterilized within a period of three years or less. Complete sterilization of both sexes, and not only one, is to be considered necessary in view of the present German doctrine that so much as one drop of true German blood constitutes a German."

A copy of this book was forwarded to the Library of Congress for copyright purposes in February, 1941. You will note that this book was written and printed 10 months BEFORE the United States was promoted into World War II. It was printed while the United States was at peace with Germany. Like the Gomborg Map, prepared and printed months before Pearl Harbor, it was done in anticipation of our being shoved into this unnecessary war.

Consider the enormity of this un-Christian, un-American suggestion.

By letter dated 3-8-61, correspondent advised that he is confused and disgusted at not being able to locate the information he is seeking. He indicates that if we cannot supply the requested information, we should be able to refer him to someone who can. He requests that his letter of 10-19, in which he requested information concerning the Christian Educational Association of Union, New Jersey, be referred to the House Committee on Un-American Activities or Subversive Activities Committee or Attorney General, "Bobby."

Bufiles indicate that by letter dated 10-19-60, correspondent inquired about the above mentioned organization which is the publisher of the violently anti-Semitic newspaper, "Common Sense." This paper has come to the Bureau's attention in the past and as a result of its controversial nature, correspondent on 10-26-60, was forwarded a no evaluation and files confidential reply.

RECOMMENDATION:

In view of the tone of correspondent's letter, and in view of his off-hand reference to the Attorney General, and in that future correspondence may provoke him, it is recommended that his letter not be acknowledged.

NEW FRONTIER MARCHES ON

Let us who have opposed Jack Kennedy so vigorously trust that later we will be justified in supporting him.

Our Country faces by far the worst crisis since Columbus landed in America. The periods of World War 1 and 2 were not the least threat or of any concern what ever to us. Anyone who dares look for the truth will learn that the Zionists pushed us into these terrible wars by their influence on all forms of expression, especially newspapers. We were lied into these wars.

Unfortunately the Zionist-Jews now have complete control of our thoughts, as they control T.V. and Radio, the greatest instruments for slanting propaganda.

As we face this crisis, Kennedy is our President. Let's help him all we can when he is right, and pray, he is right more times. And Bob Kennedy when conducting the labor racket committee, white-washed Reuther and Dave Dubinsky.

President we have had for many terms, in a year he will have learned much and he will have changed his opinion greatly. It is difficult to believe Kennedy will go as far down the Marxist road as his team plans on going. God forbid it will be too late, when Kennedy changes his course and fires some of his Marxist team. To be elected it was necessary for Kennedy to accept the support of aggressive, ruthless pressure groups who now demand to be paid off. They want a liberal hand in directing our people down the Socialist road to Communism. Let's hope our Country will not end up like China when General George (no combat time) Marshall, forced Chiang Kai-shek to accept a few Communists into his government, Dean Rusk, remember, was with Marshall.

THREE KHAZARS IN CABINET

Abe Ribicoff, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare. Reliable reports are that this is the heaviest Communist-infected Government agency—70%.

Arthur Goldberg, Secretary of Labor. He is Walter Reuther's righthand man. John and Bob Kennedy when conducting the labor racket committee, white-washed Reuther and Dave Dubinsky.

Douglas Dillon (Lapowski) Secretary of Treasury, listed as an Episcopalian—Bernard Baruch was married by an Episcopalian Bishop.

Several years ago, Common Sense in commenting on a career man with the State Department listed him as a Jew. Several people in Pennsylvania wrote us that we were in error, that he lived in a town in Pennsylvania named after his family, and he was an Episcopalian. About a year later this man died and the National Jewish Post of Indianapolis & New York in an article on the front page, praised him as a Jew for all his life. The Jews knew more than the Episcopalians. Three Hundred Thousand Jews, (Morranos) joined the Church in Spain, some becoming Priests and Bishops. Later, when they were expelled and escaped to England and France, (1492), they boasted they were trying to wreck the Church from within.

Douglas Dillon's father, Sam Lapowski, was a Polish Jew. He changed his name to Dillon. He was a member of Dillon, Read Co. International Bankers of Wall Street, controlled by Bernard Baruch. Douglas Dillon was also with Dillon, Read & Co., which has been deeply involved in arranging loans with reference to wars in Europe. Kennedy has said several times he would take up where F.D.R. left off. F.D.R. also appointed a Jew, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., as Secretary of the Treasury. He in turn appointed Communist-Jews to run the treasury. Harry Dexter White who committed suicide when exposed as a Communist by the H.U.A.C. Harold Glasser and V. Frank Coe were also Communists. They gave our money plates to the communists who printed hundreds of millions of money we redeemed. Morgenthau has been hiding in France for years to prevent examination by Congress.

Ted Sorensen, Special Counsel, Confidant and Speech Writer for President Kennedy. His father was a Unitarian, his mother a Jew. Unitarians are close to Jews, neither have any use for Christ. Sorensen's Deputy, Myer Feldman, White House aide, is also a Jew.

Pierre Salinger, Kennedy's Press Representative, father Jewish engineer, mother French Catholic.

Adlai Stevenson, (See his Red Record in Common Sense, issue No. 348), a Unitarian, Ambassador to United Nations. Jacob Arvey, Jewish political boss of Chicago brought Stevenson into politics and made him governor of Illinois. Arvey is the power behind Adlai. Eleanor Roosevelt with 100 Communist Fronts to her credit and the organized political Jews are behind Adlai. Practically all the Reds and Communists backed him for nomination for President.

Newton N. Minow, a Jew, Chairman of Federal Communication Commission (FCC), is a Law partner of Adlai Stevenson.

George W. Ball, Under-Secretary of State for Economic Affairs, is also a Law partner

Looking Back At McCarthy

by Denis Grant and Paul Ross
This INTELLIGENCE Supplement

is taken from THE WORD, a pictorial magazine published at Donaghadee, Roscommon, Eire.

The word smear, like many other American words, is short and snappy, yet perfectly accurate in its connotation. It denotes a comprehensive method of abuse by every organ of publicity—press, radio, TV, etc.—which is unleashed by Communists against a selected and Governmental and is then brated in a variety of ways by the many trans-mission belts of the Communist liberal and pseudo-intellectual exploiters. This vilification is persistent and devastating in its effects on the victim. Nothing is too vile for the work of covering the anti-Communist in opprobrium: liar, hypocrite, foul-mouthed, biased, coward, brute, fascist, Hitler-like—the list of epithets used is almost unlimited.

No anti-Communist was ever smeared so much, so widely and so successfully in this way as the late Senator Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin. Even today, three years after his death, his calumpniators are still at work. Richard Rovere, former editor of the American Communist periodical Now Masses, recently published a book entitled Senator Joe McCarthy, which ranks as a classic in smear and character assassination. All the smear epithets listed here and many more are to be found in Rovere's book and in the many laudatory reviews of it which have appeared in various papers. Even some Catholic writers have been duped into accepting and spreading the Communist propaganda about McCarthy. Christopher Reeve, reviewing Rovere's book in the Observer, said: "McCarthy was a foul-mouthed politician... His vulgar tongue... led shamelessly... He bluffed and he bullied... the whole nation groaned under him." Laetitia Fairfield described him in the Catholic Herald as a "crooked Senator" with "an astounding facility in the technique of the multiple untruth... making his fortune by grubby speculation and drinking himself to death," whose "antics were blackening his country's good name."

In regards to smears like these it is well to recall what Bishop Lucey of Cork stated after his return from a visit to America during the height of the campaign while McCarthy was still alive. "We in Ireland were sadly misinformed about some things in the U.S.A.," said Bishop Lucey. "For instance Senator McCarthy and McCarthyism, which have been pilloried so unmercifully here. People I met in America were shocked at the way McCarthy has been condemned, without a hearing, in Ireland. To represent Senator McCarthy, as has been done in this country, as a disreputable and discredited witchhunter is just gross misrepresentation."

"Beyond mischief," says Rovere, in his smear book, McCarthy "never accomplished anything." Let us see.

Joe McCarthy, the fourth of the seven children of Tim and Bridget McCarthy, was born in Wisconsin in 1908. His parents were small farmers who had to struggle hard to make ends meet. After school the children helped on the farm and on Sundays they walked seven miles each way to Mass in Appleton, the nearest town. At fourteen Joe left school and worked at various jobs from poultry keeping to truck driving. He soon realised that his lack of education was a serious handicap, so he attended classes, paying his fees by doing all sorts of menial work. In due course he went to the Jesuit Marquette University and qualified as a lawyer; he was elected a Circuit Judge at thirty, the youngest in the history of Wisconsin.

— MCCARTHYISM IS AMERICANISM —

When America entered the war McCarthy, being a judge, could have claimed exemption from active service; instead he volunteered for the Marines, the toughest U.S. fighting force. He was assigned to the Intelligence Department at home, but after some time he insisted on going to the Pacific, where he took part in many dive-bombing exploits. After the war he was elected Republican senator for Wisconsin beating his Democrat opponent by more than 300,000 votes.

The infiltration of Communists and their fellow-travellers into influential positions in the United States began in 1933 when Pres. Roosevelt gave diplomatic recognition to Soviet Russia. His arrest of American Communist agents, and when warned of this in Congress as late as 1938, Roosevelt replied: "There is nothing wrong with the Communists in this country; several of the best friends I have are Communists." During and after the war in which Russia was America's ally, the situation was naturally much worse. The activities of Communist agents became more blatant until the whole nation was shocked by the disclosures in the Alger Hiss case.

Louis Budenz, the convert who was formerly editor of the Communist Daily Worker, summed up the position well when he wrote: "Communism has won victories in the United States, not in the countries it has conquered. Poland was betrayed in Washington through the counsels of Alger Hiss, Harry Hopkins and others of their ilk." So too was Central Europe sold to Stalin at Yalta and half of Korea was let fall to the Communists in 1949 by the U.S. State Dept. on the advice of Owen Lattimore, who said, "Let Korea fall, but do not let it look as though we pushed it."

Among others who helped the spread of Communist terrorism were Harry Dexter White, the Communist spy who became Assistant Secretary of the U.S. Treasury, and Joseph P. Davies, U.S. Ambassador to Moscow, who stated: "The word of honour of the Soviet Government is as safe as the Bible. Communism is protecting the Christian world of free men." Fancy that now!

American Communists and their liberal fellow-travellers were being rewarded on a grand scale, while patriots like Gen. MacArthur, who was rated the greatest general of the war, were driven from public life by smear and calumny. People asked themselves how could these things happen, how could the most powerful nation on earth come to bow before Communism? "There was a man in Washington," wrote Father Richard Ginder, one of the editors of Our Sunday Visitor, America's largest Catholic paper, "who kept asking himself these same questions — Joseph McCarthy. Like the rest of us he was baffled, but, unlike the rest of us, he was in a position to do something about it. He was a United States Senator."

One of the stock-in-trade charges made against McCarthy by his detractors is, believe it or not, that he failed to uncover even a single Communist! For the unthinking the implication is, of course, that he was an irresponsible demagogue and a "witch-hunter" who went about indicting innocent people. The charge, though clever, is untrue, for McCarthy did in fact, uncover card-carrying members of the Communist Party. Yet much more dangerous to the free world than actual Communists are liberals and fellow-travellers, scores of whom were uncovered by McCarthy. "We must always remember," said Dimitroff head of the Communist International, "that one sympathizer is worth more than a dozen Communists. A university professor or writer who defends or lends himself to the interests of the Soviet Union is worth more than a thousand party members." And J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the F.B.I., has warned that "our danger from actual Communist agents is far surpassed by the danger from vast numbers of American pseudo-liberals who carry the ball for the Communists in every play." For obvious reasons most Communist subversives in the U.S. Government departments and armed forces never wear red shirts or carry party-cards in their pockets. Yet the truth is that when McCarthy was Chairman of the Senate Sub-Committee for investigating subversive activities, he did in fact uncover actual Communist Party members. One of them, Annie Lee Moss, was actually employed in carrying secret Government messages to and from the code room in the Pentagon itself. There was too the case of Edward G. Bremer and 15 other Communist agents who were employed in the Government Printing Office, where the secret war and hydrogen bomb documents were printed. McCarthy discovered that from 1944 they had delivered to Russia currency, plates, ink and printing materials worth $238 million. Then there was William Remington, a Communist who was in charge of export licences in the Department of Commerce and who withheld vital licences from shipments to Nationalist China at a critical time. Although his treachery was known to the authorities, he retained his key post until he was exposed by McCarthy.

Many attempts have likewise been made to discredit McCarthy's list of suspects in the State Department, but the fact remains that it was because of his investigations that most of these 81 State Department employees were dismissed or chose to resign. He also uncovered Owen Lattimore — an adviser of State Department employees — who was later branded by both Democrats and Republicans as "a conscious, articulate instrument of the Communist conspiracy."

But the most important investigation McCarthy conducted was probably that at the U.S. Army's secret radar laboratories at Fort Monmouth, where at least 9 Communist agents were uncovered. Here too the notorious atom spy Julius Rosenberg worked for 5 years — he and his wife were later executed for giving the secrets of the atom bomb to Russia. Stevens, Defence Minister in the U.S. Government, and other military authorities stated that if McCarthy had only exposed even one potential spy at Fort Monmouth he would have performed a tremendous service to his country.

Before McCarthy began his investigation, Communists and their agents could not be removed from their key positions no matter how strong the evidence against them; for neither Military Intelligence nor FBI reports could be legally invoked against them. But McCarthy's Senate Sub-Committee changed all that, as witnesses had to testify before it under oath. Many, knowing their of Stevenson, served under Henry Morgenthau when he was Secretary of the Treasury. Willard Wirtz, Under-Secretary of Labor—Stevenson Law partner.

William McCormick Blair, Stevenson Law partner, will be offered a Diplomatic Post unless he follows Adlai to the U.N. in some capacity.

J. Edward Day, Postmaster General former administrative assistant to Adlai Stevenson. Believed to be a stooge of Jake Arvey.

Dean Rusk, Secretary of State; formerly President of Rockefeller Foundation. When Alger Hiss was exposed as a communist spy, he resigned as President of Carnegie Peace Foundation and recommended Dean Rusk for the job. Rusk was an active member of the Institute of Pacific Relations (IPR) exposed by the late Senator Joseph McCarthy as a nest for communist spies and sympathizers.

This organization was saturated with communists. The Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee reported in 1952 that IPR was used by communists and those who controlled it were all either communists or pro-communists. Rusk is also a Rhodes Scholar.

The following excerpts from the book THE CHINA STORY by Freda Utley, speak for themselves: Page 121.

It is important here to call attention to the manner in which the members of the "progressive" group in Washington and New York managed to replace each other in important positions inside the Administration. For instance after Alger Hiss resigned from the State Department to become Director of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Dean Acheson recommended

Dean Rusk to take Hiss's place as Director of the Office of Special Affairs. Rusk had formerly served under Jos. E. Johnson who, as Chief of the Division of International Security Affairs, under the Special Political Affairs Office, had been chief assistant to Alger Hiss. In 1949, Rusk stepped higher up the ladder of preferment, becoming First Assistant, and then Deputy Under Secretary of State. Today, Johnson, who resigned from the State Department in 1947, to return to teaching at Williams College, holds the position with the Carnegie Endowment held by Alger Hiss when he was indicted for perjury.

Dean Rusk may be wholly free of any communist sympathies, but he has proved that he must be classed among the dupes of the Chinese communists. Not even Mao Tse-tung or Stalin ever ventured to give such a clean bill of health to the Chinese communists as he. On June 14, 1950, Dean Rusk told the World Affairs Council conference of the University of Pennsylvania, that the Chinese "Revolution" is "not Russian" in essence and "does not aim at dictatorship." He went further than almost any other State Department official in his desire to represent the Chinese communists as good liberals who follow the American ideal. For he said that "the Revolution in China" is comparable "to the American revolt against the British."

Page 122: Furthermore, in the Korean crisis Dean Rusk appealed strongly in support of an appeasement policy. In a speech on November 15, 1950, he made it quite clear that if only the communists would limit their demands, we would be happy to forget how many American soldiers they had killed and give them assurances they needed that the United States had no intention whatsoever of contesting communist rule over China. He said: "We do not know what Chinese intentions are. It is of the greatest importance to find out whether the Chinese have limited objectives which are negotiable in character, or unlimited objectives which by their very nature are not negotiable." Dismissing as of no consequence all the evidence that the Chinese communist Party acts on Moscow's instructions; Dean Rusk said that "we do not know" whether communist intervention in Korea is part of a pattern of "world-wide aggressiveness; we do not know the real explanation."

Of course, no one can ever know anything if all evidence contrary to his hopes is dismissed as non-existent.

THE INAUGURATION

The inauguration apparently was carefully planned, careful enough to be sure Jesus Christ was not mentioned.

We were sure our Savior's name would not be mentioned, but we listened attentively. Cardinal Cushing made a long talk, the Episcopal Minister, the Rabbi, the President and others with well selected words meant to impress us. We were reminded of the crisis our country faces, but not a word about Christ, who we will certainly need if we are to survive. They dared not mention our Lord's name. Kennedy dares not mention Jesus Christ before any public gathering, not only as long as he is president, but as long as he wishes to hold any office. The Jews forbid this name being mentioned by any public speaker in states where they are powerful!

A number of Christian clergymen have told us they have been warned before making a public address not to mention Jesus Christ.

God is OK with Jews, for their God is Lucifer, they hold a Brotherhood of Christ. And they propagate Brotherhood on us. We are not brothers in blood or under Jesus Christ. This was a Christian country now we dare not mention the father of Christianity. The spineless waterdowned Christians.

SUMMING UP THE APPOINTMENTS

Harvard, the Marxist incubator, stands out prominently—then Rhodes Scholars.

In the Daily Worker of April 25, 1956, writer Joseph Clark in referring to Harvard University described it as "that great center of international communism". They should know as the Worker is the official communist publication.

Jews say they are only 3% of the population. On this basis they do well in Washington. Not one of the appointees has distinguished himself as opposing or exposing communism.

Most of them have a record of being soft on communism and a Marxist educational background. A few we believe are communists.

Such is Kennedy's team, yet he tells us we face a serious threat. From whom?

Since this administration in its efforts to stop communism and turn the tide, it appears we are sending the same crowd to put out the fire that started the fire in the first place. It was the New Deal gang that saved communism and gave it world strength. Kennedy says the New Frontier is a continuation of F.D.R.'s New Deal.

Read over these appointments again. Note the important key spots held by Jews, Harvard Socialist eggheads and Adlai Stevenson and his five associates.

Read and pass on!

evidence would incriminate them, had recourse to the expedient of invoking the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution, though, of course, they thereby established a prima facie case against themselves.

The term McCarthyism was used for the first time in the Daily Worker of May 4, 1950, by Gus Hall, Secretary of the American Communist Party. "I urge all Communist party members and all antifascists," he wrote, "to yield second place to none in the fight to rid our country of the fascist poison of McCarthyism." And Political Affairs, which lays down the party line for all U.S. Communists, stated: "This means the fight against all manifestations of McCarthyism." Louis Budenz, who explained "to the Communists McCarthyism means any attempt to curb this conspiracy," stated that "a considerable segment of American public opinion is being thought-controlled on McCarthyism." Many Catholic papers and their readers have also echoed the Communist cry of McCarthyism and joined in denouncing the Senator without realizing that they were thus serving the cause of Communism. In a sermon on this Communist conditioning in America, Bishop O'Gara, C.P., who was imprisoned by the Chinese Communists for two years, has stated: "Perhaps by far the most disquieting factor to me has been the miasma of pseudo-liberalism which seems to have gained acceptance even in Catholic quarters. It is reflected in print, in periodicals widely read by Catholics and enjoying an otherwise fine reputation for the defence of Catholic principles. It has muddled the well-springs of thought even in our Catholic classrooms." Communists everywhere spread slogans and lies through the non-Communist press and as a result their false labels are accepted as not Communist in origin. This paper technique was never used more effectively than in the smearing of Joe McCarthy, when mazy-minded dupes and liberal intelligentsia vied with one another in condemning the "Fascist monster of McCarthyism."

Some liberals and their dupes say that it was what they call McCarthy's methods to which they mainly objected. Christopher Hollis wrote that he had "a virulent talent for abuse against which responsible people have not the courage to stand up." McCarthy himself stated: "I do not hush mind the Communists screaming about my methods. They are under orders to do just that. But it makes me ill when I hear self-proclaimed liberals, too lazy to do their own thinking, parrot over and over this Communist Party line."

What is the truth about McCarthy's character and methods? Take the Communist view first. Here are some of the things Rovere writes about him in the book that has been the source of most of the recent newspaper smears: "McCarthy, though a demon himself, was not a man possessed by demons... He was a prince of hatred... a low mean fellow... foul-mouthed... this ogreish creature... He was a Bulgarian... a man to whom anything presentable in skirts... a weakness for liquor... wenching... gambling... He invented a military record for himself, though that was a mere tissue of lies... There have been descriptions of him having spent his last years in an unbroken alcoholic stupor... But he was not always drunk... he did not devote his life to drinking... Did he... 'drink himself to death?' One way, or another, he probably did... He died, then, because he could not lay off liquor... He made little pretence to religion or to any species of moral rectitude." If some sort of Nobel Prize is ever given for slander and scurrility, Rovere's smear classic should surely qualify for it.

Let us now consider the testimony of some reliable non-Communists on McCarthy. Patrick F. Scanlon, editor of The Tablet, official New York Catholic newspaper, who was "a close friend of the late Senator for almost ten years," stated: "Senator McCarthy was a practical Catholic, he never missed Sunday Mass; he made a visit to the Blessed Sacrament nearly every afternoon; he was married to a charming girl whom he converted before he married her." And the famous American journalist Father James M. Gillis, C.S.P., formerly editor of The Catholic World, wrote: "I think the Senator did his duty and no more than his duty; that he acted not only legally, but conscientiously and that he conducted himself with great restraint in the face of outrageous abuse. I have read all that Senator McCarthy has written, I have had conversation with him at considerable length, but I have never heard him use such vicious language as that of the editor of the World-Telegram. A friend of mine, a publicist of distinction has made a point of hearing all of McCarthy's speeches in the Senate. He tells me that Joe always speaks moderately, is tolerant, patient and gentlemanly." Alistair Cooke, the well-known radio and press correspondent, stated that McCarthy was "patient with witnesses whose FBI files would give innocent citizens the creeps. He has consistently protected the anonymity of highly suspect witnesses." It was Cooke too who gave us this very accurate definition of the Communist term McCarthyism: "McCarthyism may be defined as putting the searchlight on a Red, who then turns around with the support of friends in the press and radio and hurls smear and witch-hunting charges at the man with the searchlight, demanding that he be arrested for disturbing the peace!"

Regarding the Communist smear that McCarthy terrorised America with his witch-hunting, Cardinal Spellman stated: "Judging from the hysterical tone of the criticism, one would imagine that it is no longer possible in America to keep one's good name. No American uncontaminated by Communism has lost his good name because of Congressional hearings... into Communist activities... There are strong reasons for these inquiries and we thank God that they have begun while there is still time to do something about it. The anguished cries and protests against McCarthyism are not going to dissuade Americans from their desire to see Communists exposed and removed from positions where they can carry out their nefarious plans." And when Cardinal Cushing was asked what he thought about McCarthy, he replied: "The whole thing depends on how you look at Communism. If you look upon it as one of the greatest evils that has ever attempted to undermine Western civilization, naturally you do everything you can to save our way of life from the inroads of this evil."

Like many other political figures the world over, McCarthy may have been flamboyant, fond of publicity and perhaps imprudent at times. But he was certainly not the "hideous magician," who "united in a terrible force, all the bestial rancours and dark passions which lurk... beneath the crust of society," that Hugh Trevor-Roper, the Oxford History Professor, made him out to be in his smear review of Rovere's book in The Sunday Times.

In spite of all the vicious smears he hurled at McCarthy, Rovere, does admit in his book that McCarthy was "incapable of true rancour, spite and animosity." There is an interesting instance of this in McCarthy's own book: "I 'exposed' Time for gross, deliberate lying," he wrote. "There is nothing personal about my exposing the depth to which this magazine will sink in using deliberate falsehoods to destroy anyone who is hurting the Communist cause." McCarthy also wisely remarked that it is more important to expose a liar who has a newspaper or magazine at his disposal to disseminate his poison than one who has not.

With a good measure of success, Joe McCarthy tried, almost single-handed, to expose the infiltration of Communists into key positions in the most powerful non-Communist country in the world. He did not attack Communism, as so many are content to do, with mere pious cant; no, he sought to unmask its agents as they operated in specific places, and he tried to uncover their sponsors. That was his crime in the eyes of the Communists and for that they marked him down for destruction. In doing so, the Communists and their fellow-travellers did everything possible to ensure that a public figure, especially in America, would never again attempt to expose them. That was the real purpose behind their cry of McCarthyism. And with this aim they waged the most successful propaganda campaign the world has probably yet seen. The measure of their victory may be gauged by the recent statement of J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the FBI, that "beyond any doubt secret Communist agents have worked themselves into thousands of strategic positions in American life today, 'ready to step out and act for Russia when the time comes.' For all really effective exposure of their espionage rings and agents has now been stopped, he says, "by smearing into death, defeat, retirement or despair those legislators who were most determined to expose them."

Following a short illness, Joe McCarthy died on May 2, 1957. Nation-wide sympathy was expressed to his widow, Mrs. Jean McCarthy, in the form of over 110,000 messages of condolence and more than 34,000 Mass cards. Solemn Pontifical Mass was offered for him in the Cathedral in Washington by Archbishop O'Boyle of Washington, and in his oration Mgr. Cartwright, Rector of the Cathedral, stated: "Senator McCarthy filled in the last few years a role which will be more and more honoured as history unfolds its record... this man saw Communism clearly and knew that it was an evil with which there can be no compromise... he had the fortitude to stand alone... We take leave in our humble way of the Senator and public man, of the friend... But we also take leave in our Christian way of a brother Christian who has gone to God... And we are confident that in God's place under God's love there will be rest for the weary, reward for the faithful and honour for the brave."

The Communist party line on Joe McCarthy and McCarthyism, especially as presented by Richard Rovere and the duped reviewers of his smear classic, has been given much publicity everywhere. Here you have been able, probably for the first time, to hear the other side of the story. You can now judge which is the truth.

KEYNES AT HARVARD.

by Veritas Foundation

(A group of distinguished Harvard graduates).

Here in simple language is a concise history of the Socialist and Fabian Movement in England and America. You will no longer wonder why Harvard has produced men like Alger Hiss, Walter Lippmann, Harry Dexter White, after reading this factual book.

A blueprint of what the next four years might be, if Kennedy is influenced by his Harvard braintrust, is given in detail. This is must reading with a Harvard man in the White House.

Dear

I have received your letter of May 2, and the interest which prompted you to communicate with me on this occasion is appreciated. Thank you for your prayers.

While I would like to be of assistance, the FBI, being an investigative agency, does not make evaluations nor draw conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. I regret that I am unable to help you on this occasion, and I hope you will not infer either that we do or that we do not have data in our files relating to the subject of your inquiry.

Enclosed is a copy of one of my recent statements on the communist menace which you may like to have.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

As a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and as an American Citizen, I am vitally interested in the present as well as the future of our country.

A number of months ago, there came to me in the mail a paper, "Common Sense", Conde McGinley, Editor, Union, New Jersey. There seems to be little doubt in my mind that this is an anti-Jew publication. I would like to know if the 'so called' startling items in this paper are true, even in part. I refer to the March 15, 1961 and April 1, 1961 issues. I realize that much of your information is classified but can you tell me if this is a publication of 'half quotes'. I know that a partial statement can often be read another way.

I would appreciate any information you can give me in this matter since this paper seems to be getting quite a large circulation in our area.

Thank you so much for the information and rest assured of continued prayer for you in your great work in our country.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:-

I have two Hungarian refugee workers for 3 years and a relative refugee of theirs sold me a subscription to a twice monthly newspaper "Common Sense". I am not a Jew, but a Christian, but I don't like the way these editors who call themselves Christian Educational Ass'n. hate the Jews.

Their Jan. 1st issue smears the Jews beyond reason. They say Jews sponsored a "Hate Germany" campaign. but never much mention the terrible Nazi Party. You know I suspicion they are Pro-Nazi. I am enclosing this Jan 1 paper and would like to know who Holten Whitney is, and if his observations are truths or half-truths?

Any information will be appreciated.

Gentlemen,

Last week I received the enclosed piece of literature thru the mail. It was in an unmarked envelope --also enclosed. I wasn't quite sure to whom I should send it but perhaps you can tell me what I want to know. I cannot imagine who sent it to me or where the people who print such trash would get my name. If I knew who sent it, I would personally shove it down his-or her-throat as as I several Jewish friends and do not believe in slander of this sort against anyone regardless of their race, religion or what country they came from. I myself am a white christian of German decent. Would you please tell me if there is anyway to fight such publications and keep them from being printed and also if the scandal sheet is a communist publication. ||

Thanking you, I am

U.S. High Tribunal Soon To Rule On Sunday As Legal Sabbath

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International

Sometime during the next few months, the U.S. Supreme Court will hand down a decision that could change your way of life.

It will decide whether Sunday is constitutional.

Not Sunday as a day of the week, but Sunday as a day of rest and worship, recognized and protected by law.

Pending before the court are four cases challenging Sunday closing laws in Massachusetts, Maryland and Pennsylvania. But the basic issue is much broader than the specific statutes of these states. It is whether any governmental body in the United States has a constitutional right to accord a special legal status to a day which is considered holy by many but by no means all Americans.

Jewish groups and some small Christian bodies like the Seventh-day Adventists, who observe Saturday as the Sabbath day, have long contended that Sunday observance laws violate the first amendment's guarantee of governmental neutrality in matters of religion.

In the past, with a single exception, lower courts have upheld the constitutionality of Sunday closing laws. They have ruled that states have a right to enforce a shut-down of general business activity one day a week, not for religious reasons, but to protect the health and welfare of workers. The choice of Sunday for this day of rest may have been prompted originally by the tenets of the Christian faith, the courts have said, but it can now be justified on the grounds of social custom and long-standing tradition.

The single exception was a ruling in 1959 by a federal court in Boston. It held Massachusetts' Sunday Law unconstitutional on the grounds that it "furnishes special protection to the dominant Christian sects" and discriminates against those who observe a different Sabbath.

Some Washington observers believe there is a better-than-fair chance that a majority of the Supreme Court justices will take the same view as the Massachusetts court.

If that happens, the relatively small minority of Americans who observe a Saturday sabbath will feel that a great injustice has been corrected. But the vast majority of Americans—not only the practicing Christians who go to church on Sunday, but also the millions who regard Sunday as sacred to other purposes such as golf, late-sleeping or family outings—may find their way of life rudely altered.

ARTICLE VII -- UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION

Reads in part:

"....Done in convention by the unanimous consent of the States present the 17th day of September in the year of our Lord 1787, and of the independence of the United States of America the 12th in witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names...."

2★ Los Angeles Times SUN., FEB. 26, 1961—Sec. A 3

Fife
Says...

Secularization destroys the sacred things of life. It is undermining the foundations of our Christian faith and our Pilgrim-Puritan America.

The U.S. Supreme Court in this session will pass on whether Sunday may be recognized as a day for worship and rest. It will doubtless be deciding whether our Roman Catholic friends can teach birth control in their parochial schools and next whether in any parochial school teachers may pray with their pupils, explore the Bible and even salute the flag. This august body may decide we must remove "In God We Trust" from our dollar—and much more.

Christmas is increasingly secularized with more tinsel and toy and less Jesus Christ the Saviour of the world. Fewer bodies, following the United Nations rejection, open their sessions with prayer. Fewer homes practice prayer and fewer children have the example of praying-Christian, church-attending, Bible-reading parents. These all help dilute the sacred and destroy resistance to the secular.

Mail from this column and from our Sunday night radio program (7:30-8:00 Dial 790) convinces me that increasing numbers are being concerned about this secularization. The Russians have developed a simple brain operation which eliminates memory but impairs nothing more—eliminates all spiritual ideals, therefore, and reduces man to a pure animal level. Secularization could accomplish the same thing though more slowly.

Some who read this article are helping promote the secular trend. Why don't you reverse your position, reverse your influence and become factors of creative helpfulness? Why not cease spreading darkness and start spreading the light of hope, eternal hope, which God has made available to us? I'd like YOUR views on this, May I send you a tract on it—FREE?

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

I am enclosing a paper sent to me including the envelope in which it came. It is my belief that the article is intended to wreck, not inform. No doubt you already know about it, but there is no harm in knowing about it twice. I do not subscribe to it. I don't know who is responsible for getting it to me, for although I am a registered Republican I am first an American, and I believe material of this kind is dangerous.

I am anxious to go on record that I do not subscribe to this kind of thinking, for I sincerely believe that as Americans we should be united, and it is my opinion that this kind of material is surely to divide us.

I am happy to be a member of the American Legion, Rotary International, The Episcopal Church, Free and Accepted Masons, and other worthwhile organizations and sincerely hate Communists. If this in a small way will help our cause it is my pleasure to turn it over to you.

Yours very truly,

HARVARD SOCIALISTS - ZIONISTS Set Up New Frontier

MR. & MRS. TAXPAYER, MARXISTS ARE RE-MAKING YOUR COUNTRY
EXAMINE YOUR GOVERNMENT.

PART I

By Sam Crockett
(FIRST OF TWO PARTS)

Many patriotic Americans are still hoping against hope that their Country has not been taken over by betrayers and subverters. They compare Kennedy's "new" methods with those of the colorless Eisenhower and conclude their rage and disgust at the time of the vote fraud disclosures was perhaps mistaken. That Kennedy was fraudulently elected as President by every device of vote-rigging known to the politicians is forgotten. America was betrayed by marxists after loot and power. The monstrous spectacle called the Democratic Nominating Convention preceding the election has been forgotten. The people have short memories. Among the youth, however, there is a stirring and a great uneasiness. In spite of being brainwashed by every device of communication known, in spite of being isolated from the truth, in spite of having been disinherited from the freedoms of their forefathers, a segment of the youth of America has awakened—slowly,—to the grim reality that their elders have failed to stem the tide of subversion seeping over this Nation.

From November 10, 1960 to March 12, 1961, there were 240 Kennedy appointments or reappointments made and announced to the press. These included the top 80 jobs: the Cabinet, Under Secretaries, Assistant Secretaries, and White House staff. A portion of the 400-500 jobs in the policy making field below the rank of Assistant Secretary have been filled. There is a third group of appointments numbering 1200 or more. In other words there are about 1800 policy-making jobs. And there are 2200 more jobs by appointments below this level, making 5000 in all, superimposed on the vast Federal Civil Service. This political job dispensation or "patronage" is the method by which Kennedy will control the entire governmental structure.

Let us examine some of the top appointments first.

ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG is identified in the ADL Bulletin, Jan. 1961, page 8, as a member of the Washington, D.C., Board of Directors of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. Appendix 9 of the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, 1944, identifies him as President of the Chicago Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild at the time he sponsored the Chicago Conference on Race Relations, 7/22/39, a cited Communist-front operation. The National Lawyers Guild has been repeatedly cited not only as a Communist-front but as the legal arm in the United States of the Communist Party. And Goldberg was President of its top chapter outside of New York City! (p. 610) He was also a sponsor of the Washington, D.C., Conference on Constitutional Liberties in America, June 7-9, 1940, a cited Communist-front enterprise which launched the National Federation for Constitutional Liberties. At the time of the holding of this Conference, the Communist Party was working under the line determined by the Stalin-Hitler pact. (p. 651) He was a sponsor of the National Emergency Conference which met in Washington, D.C. on May 13 and 14, 1939 to map plans of action against a number of bills in Congress which would require deportation of Communist aliens, enforce registration, fingerprinting, and imprisonment of Communists, etc. This was a cited front. (p. 1206.)

In 1956 Goldberg was a member of the administrative committee of the National Civil Liberties Clearing House of Washington, D.C., the advisory board of which included Walter P. Reuther. Its treasurer at that time was Herman Edelsberg, of the ADL; its vice-chairmen included Irving Ferman, of the cited Communist-front American Civil Liberties Union and John J. Gunther of the Americans For Democratic Action, a marxist political action organization. Representatives from the National Conference of Christians and Jews, the American Jewish Congress and the NAACP were co-members of the administrative committee with Goldberg. In 1957 Goldberg was still on the committee, along with a representative of the American Jewish Committee as Treasurer; Herman Edelsberg was Chairman and Kenneth Birkhead of the very pink American Veterans Committee was a new vice chairman. (See letterheads of NCLCH.)

In 1957 Arthur J. Goldberg was a member of the executive board of the Religion and Labor Foundation, a cited front. Co-members of the board with Goldberg included Communist-fronters Walter P. Reuther, James B. Carey, Henry Hitt Crane, Jerome Davis, Benjamin Mays, A. Phillip Randolph, and others. (See program for 4/24/57 Social Justice Award to Communist-fronters Herbert Lehman and Martin Luther King.)

The Internal Security Subcommittee held hearings on "Interlocking Subversion in Government Departments" on May 19, 1953, Part 8, and during the testimony of one Charles Flato (pages 501-2) he swore that he had been sought out by Arthur Goldberg to do some writing assignments of pamphlets for the CIO in 1948 and 1949. He also declined to answer whether he was a member of the Communist Party during the period he worked for Goldberg.

Arthur J. Goldberg was a member of the board of directors of the Fund for the Republic as late as January 1961 and of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace in 1960. There is a wealth of material on the subversive nature of both organizations. Alger Hiss was President of the latter organization. He has been the general counsel for the AFL-CIO, United Steelworkers of America, the ILGWU (David

John Birch Society

Inasmuch as we have received many inquiries from all over the United States regarding the John Birch Society, we want to go on record. We believe this to be an effective, patriotic group, in good hands. The best evidence that they are effective is the fact they are being smeared by people who have done nothing to stop communism.

Dubinsky's union), the Textile Workers Union, the Transport Workers Union (Mike Quill), the American Newspaper Guild and others. Goldberg suggested and secured the appointments of at least 4 high union officials to top posts in the Department of Labor. Back in 1949 he had been the strategist behind the nation's longest and costliest steel strike, which lasted 116 days. And earlier in the forties he had been the chief of the division of the thoroughly communized Office of Strategic Services (OSS) which organized the labor underground activities behind enemy lines. Jacob S. Potofsky, of the CIO, a long-time Communist-fronter, had originally urged that Goldberg be hired as general counsel of the CIO. (All data in this article may be found in the N.Y. Times Nov. 10, 1960 to March 12, 1961, unless otherwise indicated.)

DAVID DEAN RUSK, Secretary of State attended the infamous secret meeting of the Bilderberg Conference, held at St. Simon's Island, Georgia, in February 1957. He told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee he had been at several of the ten or more meetings held to date. The American headquarters of this secret international organization are in the office of Joseph E. Johnson, President of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, the man who had been Alger Hiss' chief assistant in the State Department and took his position as head of the Endowment after Hiss was exposed as a traitor. Rusk's service under Johnson in the State Department places him very closely to the key man in the Bilderberg group.

Rusk was a Rhodes Scholar and on the basis of this background was given charge of the British Empire Division of the red OSS during World War II where he worked closely with his friend, the identified Communist, Ralph Bunche. He became the Deputy Chief of Staff under General Joe Stillwell and therefore was privy to, and most certainly an intimate participant in the violently pro-Communist activities of Stillwell in the China-Burma India Theater. In June 1945 he worked on the plans for the military-security arrangements of the United Nations (Chapter 7 of the U.N. Charter) as a member of the Operations Division of the War Department's General Staff. (In 1941 he had been in the Department's Military Intelligence, Asiatic division.) In 1946 he entered the State Department as an Assistant Director concerned with the U.N. He was a special assistant for a time in the War Department under Robert Patterson. Upon the recommendation of Dean Acheson, an old Louis Brandeis and Felix Frankfurter protege, he returned to State Dept. to take Hiss's place and served under Marshall. In March 1950 he became Assistant Secretary for Far Eastern Affairs. It was he who, on the night of June 25, 1950, when the Communist troops invaded South Korea, telephoned Dean Acheson and secured permission to ask Trygve Lie to convene a U.N. meeting the next day so as to have the Korean effort by the American troops declared a U.N. enterprise. The Korean blood bath and debacle was a direct result of this action by Rusk. And later Rusk accompanied Truman to Wake Island for his conference with Douglas MacArthur, the prelude to the dismissal of the General.

In March 1952 John Foster Dulles and Robert A. Lovett, a Frankfurter protege, recommended Rusk for the job as head of the Rockefeller Foundation. And again it was Lovett who recommended Rusk for the job as Secretary of State in 1961. (Time, 12/26/50; Nomination of Dean Rusk, hearing, Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, 1/12/61.) Rusk also headed the General Education Board, took part in Rockefeller Brothers Fund panels, the Council on Foreign Relations, and has a trust agreement with the Chase Manhattan Bank.

Rusk is evasive verbally and a sharp individual. He was asked what his position was on Communist China and its recognition by the U.N. Imbedded in a mass of verbiage were these statements: "I think it would be difficult for us to specify at what point we deal with specific issues on this matter. . . . I see no prospect at the present time that normal relations could be established with the authorities in Peking. . . . I do not think that I can comment on the details as we move into the future." The Senators should have challenged him on such an answer.

Rusk equivocated when asked about his advocacy of the two-China policy (representation in the U.N. by both Taiwan and Red China). He stated that he and Acheson were warm and close friends. (He was definite about this!) When asked about the future of the United States in U.N., which has 99 members now, in the event we are consistently outvoted, Rusk said he did not believe "that American national interests have been damaged by the parliamentary situation, the voting situation, in these international bodies." He said he believed American prestige had been damaged because "we have not kept our contact with some . . . of the demands for change which are a part of the democratic type of revolution which is a part of our own tradition." He implied the U.S. could not legally veto admission of Red China into the U.N. He affirmed he hoped we could "get on with the general sort of world community we are talking about in the U.N. Charter." Finally, it should be mentioned that it was State Department official Dean Rusk who was behind the maneuvering which brought about the immediate recognition of Israel by the U.S. in 1948.

ROBERT S. McNAMARA, Ford Motor Co. official, was recommended as Secretary of Defense by Robert A. Lovett. He was one of the 98 Harvard faculty members who voted for FDR for a third term in 1940 (2 voted for Willkie!). He taught in the Harvard Business School.

J. EDWARD DAX, Postmaster General, was an editor of the Harvard Law Review (1936-37). After graduation he joined the firm of Sidley, Austin, Burgess, and Harper. He became a close friend of a partner in that firm, Adlai Stevenson; became his administrative assistant in 1949 when Adlai was Governor of Illinois; was elevated to be Insurance Commissioner of Illinois.

ORVILLE L. FREEMAN, Secretary of Agriculture, was a leader in the Democrat Farmer Labor Party and an administrative assistant to Hubert H. Humphrey, admitted radical, when he was Mayor of Minneapolis. Luther Hodges, Secretary of Commerce, worked in ECA (Marshall plan) and for the pro-Communist Marshall Field. Hodges' son is now at the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

ABRAHAM A. RIBICOFF, heads the very socialized Department of Health, Education and Welfare and is distinguished by his—according to Westbrook Pegler's best judgement—association at the Democratic Convention with Sam Carps, the brother-in-law of Molotov, (9/2/60).

ROBERT F. KENNEDY, a Harvard man, is of course Jack Kennedy's alter-ego and the last man who should be the chief legal officer of the United States Government. His ruthless thirst for vengeance, lack of experience, and hot temper are not qualities that make for a good Attorney General. His personal friendship for Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas—shared by the entire Kennedy family—is another liability. Douglas is currently a consultant to the Fund for the Republic's Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions. Douglas urged immediate admission of Red China into the U.N. in a speech before the Jewish Theological Seminary of America on Nov. 14, 1960. His record of support of Communists in court cases before the Supreme Court is unparalleled in the history of that body.

C. DOUGLAS DILLON, Secretary of the Treasury, is, according to the N.Y. Daily News, 2/9/61, p. 40, another of the evasive Kennedy appointees. And Dillon's grandfather was Sam Lapowski, a Polish Jew. Lapowski switched to his mother's maiden name, Dillon. C. Douglas Dillon attended Harvard. He and Jack Kennedy both are members of The Spec (a club) at Harvard. He prepared speeches for John Foster Dulles in 1948 and for Thomas E. Dewey. Dillon is a key man, a carry-over from the State Department under Eisenhower.

Below the Cabinet level, starting with the State Department, we find CHESTER BOWLES as the Under Secretary. According to the Congressional Record, February 19, 1946, page A 893, the Washington Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild, the officially cited legal arm of the Communist Party in the United States, gave a banquet in honor of Chester Bowles on February 15, 1946. Bowles was then head of the OPA. Henry Wallace, then Secretary of Commerce and one of the most notorious pro-Soviet apologists in America, gave the main address. According to the N.Y. Times, 10/16/46, Chester Bowles attended the conference of the Coordinating Committee of the (Chicago) Conference of Progressives, a Communist-front operation. A letterhead of the marxist-socialist Americans For Democratic Action of April 1952 listed Chester Bowles as a member of the board of Jan. 1950 as a vice-Chairman. In October 1956 Mrs. Chester Bowles was a member of the National Advisory Board of the American Committee on Africa, a socialist-pacifist organization which has agitated for the overthrow of the Union of South Africa government by direct intervention in the political affairs of that country. The Three Year Report of the Fund for the Republic, identifies Chester Bowles as a member of the Board of Directors of this Communist-aiding organization. Who's Who, 1942-43, p. 365, listed Bowles as a director of the Communist-infiltrated National Urban League. He was a member, in 1952, of the U.S. National Commission for UNESCO, subject of a special report by the American Legion's Counter-Subversive Committee, listing the extensive Communist-front records of its members.

In the hearing on Bowles' nomination before the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations (1/19/61), he stated he had been a delegate to UNESCO's Paris session in 1946; been a special assistant to Trygve Lie, Secretary-General of the U.N. in 1947, and international chairman of the U.N. 'Appeal for Children the same year; been a trustee of the Rockefeller Foundation since 1954; a member of the Rockefeller Brothers Fund Special Studies Project on National Policy in 1957; and of other internationalist organizations. He called for the neutralization of the islands of Quemoy and Matsu in an article on the China problem, published in Foreign Affairs in April 1960, p. 481, an appeaser's attitude. Bowles was Chairman of Committee which wrote the radically socialist Democratic platform for the 1960 election.

The Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs, Gerhard Mennen Williams, Michigan puppet of Walter Reuther for many years, during his tour of Africa has managed to infuriate every responsible governmental official in the British colonies by his rabid anti-colonial attitude and interference by courtship of the Negroes. Williams as Governor of Michigan sent his official greetings to a convention in Detroit held by the National Lawyers Guild, legal arm of the Communist Party, according to the Daily Worker, 2/21/56, p. 5. He is a member of the NAACP and the National Urban League (Time, 12/12/60).

JOHN J. McCLOY, is the Disarmament Administrator under Dean Rusk. He attended Harvard Law School, studied under his good friend Felix Frankfurter. Secretary of War Henry Stimson, who had brought Frankfurter into government service back in 1906, and who in World War II was indebted to Frankfurter for his job, hired McCloy as a consultant in 1940. McCloy became Assistant Secretary of War in 1941, remained until 1945. He was an adviser to Dulles and in 1947-49 headed the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (World Bank). From 1952-61 he was chairman of the board of Rockefeller's Chase Manhattan Bank. He is married to Ellen Zinsser, sister to Peggy Zinsser, wife of Lewis Douglas, an intimate friend to Dean Acheson and the man who proposed that Acheson become Under-Secretary of the Treasury. Acheson had been law clerk to Louis Brandeis and with Frankfurter's endorsement he got the job. ("The New Dealers," Simon and Schuster, 1934) McCloy was U.S. High Commissioner for Germany, 1949-52. His activities there on behalf of Communists have been extensively documented. A close-up in the N.Y. Post, 1/8/61, p. 2, Magazine section, by Communist-fronter Theodore Kaghan, who was forced out of his employment in Germany following hearings by Senator Joseph McCarthy, wrote that "McCloy had helped write a War Department order which instructed commanders to take no action, predicated on membership in or adherence to the doctrines of the Communist Party unless there is a specific finding that the individual involved has a loyalty to the Communist Party as an organization which over-rides his loyalty to the United States. No such finding should

Let's Revive The Spirit of '76

Stalwart Colonists of Revolutionary days risked all their worldly goods, even their lives, often losing both, to inaugurate the American heritage of human liberty and establish a government of law under which men could enjoy freedom, God's most precious gift to mankind.

Every American has been bequeathed a share of this heritage, more to be cherished than all the gold in the world. America now is in grave danger; enemies at home and abroad plot destruction of our nation and our heritage. Alas, the great majority of citizens do not appreciate this gift or comprehend the nature or gravity of America's peril.

Human liberty will vanish from the earth unless we can awaken "The Spirit of '76," make it shine brightly in the minds and hearts of all Americans.

be based on the mere fact that the individuals views on various social questions have been the same as the views which the Communist Party may have advanced."

"McCloy had defended that order before a Congressional hearing back in 1945 and when he was later called as a witness in the J. Robert Oppenheimer case, he testified that he had no doubts about Dr. Oppenheimer's loyalty." He has also been chairman of the Ford Foundation's board of trustees and of the Council on Foreign Relations.

ADLAI E. STEVENSON, Ambassador to the U.N., has far too extensive a record of support of the Communist Party and various of its enterprises to quote here. The Communist Party backed Stevenson for Presidency in 1952 (Daily Worker, 10/19/52) as have hundreds of individual Communists and notorious frontiers. He testified in behalf of his long-time friend, Alger Hiss, whom he had known since 1933. His law firm merged with that of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton and Garrison, the most dangerous law firm in the United States in terms of the subversive affiliations of its members and the activities of its partners. This firm has spearheaded the fight for pornography in this country. (See "The Lady Chatterley's Lover Case," American Mercury, Jan. 1960) was intimately involved in the defense of Alger Hiss; and includes among its members Lloyd Garrison, attorney for J. Robert Oppenheimer and Arthur Miller, an old Felix Frankfurter protege and a long-time Communist-fronter. Louis Weiss (deceased) has been identified as a Party member. Past associates of Stevenson's have swarmed into the Kennedy administration. Stevenson is a charter member of ADA.

W. AVERELL HARRIMAN, Ambassador At Large, has been in government service since 1934 (NRA) and has operated at the highest possible policy level. The damage this man has done to the civilized world is incalculable. At his nomination hearing (1/31/61) he defended the Yalta agreements, in which he participated; praised the pro-Soviet Phil Jessup, with whom he worked during the Korean War; insisted that we could come to an agreement with the Soviet Union on disarmament. He was educated at Yale and Oxford, has been listed as a chief stockholder of the magazines, Time, Life and Fortune, and a joint owner of Newsweek. As Governor of N.Y. he was elected with ADA, Liberal Party and American Labor Party (Communist Party) support. (National Guardian, 11/21/55, p. 4). His strategists included Alex Rose, David Dubinsky and Arthur Schlesinger, Jr. (of the socialist Liberal Party). He attended Groton with Dean Acheson, is an intimate friend of Adlai Stevenson and Eleanor Roosevelt. He was a member of the Council on Foreign Relations as far back as 1925.

W. WILLARD WIRTZ, Under Secretary of Labor was a partner in Stevenson, Rifkind and Wirtz (Chicago branch of the firm mentioned earlier), and is a Harvard man.

The Deputy Secretary of Defense is

ROSWELL L. GILPATRICK (Yale), booted out of his job as Undersecretary of the Air Force when he started propagandizing the lie (1952) that the Soviet jet progress was ahead of that of the United States.

Secretary of the Air Force EUGENE M. ZUCKERT (Yale; Harvard faculty Business School) has been a long time close associate of Stuart Symington, was Assistant Secretary of the Air Force under him. Symington conspired during the Army-McCarthy hearings with high government officials who were out to "get" Senator McCarthy. He made a gaudy defense of the identified Communist Annie Lee Moss. Zuckert roomed at Salisbury School (Conn.) with G. Mennen Williams; studied law at Yale under William O. Douglas; was fellow faculty member at Harvard with Robert McNamara. (Time, 1/6/51)

PAUL H. NITZE, Assistant Secretary for International Affairs, a Harvard man, was with Dillon, Read 1929-38. He has been an adviser to Adlai Stevenson in recent years and was chairman in September 1960 of Kennedy's private committee of consultants (the "Harvard Group"—Saturday Evening Post 8/13/60, p. 59) (Time, Jan. 2, 1961). Nitze was a key policy planner in the State Dept. under Truman. He directed a Fund for the Republic program.

ROBERT V. ROOSA, Under Secretary for Monetary Affairs, is a Rhodes scholar, taught at Harvard and MIT.

BYRON K. WHITE, Deputy Attorney-General, is a Rhodes scholar.

GEORGE W. BALL, Under Secretary of State for Economic Affairs, is one of the key men in the Kennedy administration, and one of the most dangerous in terms of his virtually unknown background. At his nomination hearing (1/24/61) he testified that immediately upon graduation he was one of several young law school graduates who was recruited by Prof. Herman Oliphant, who had just become General Counsel of the Farm Credit Administration (headed by Henry Morgenthau, Jr.). When Morgenthau, a Frankfurter protege, became Acting Secretary of the Treasury, he took Oliphant, also a Frankfurter protege, and Ball with him. (1933-34.) It was Oliphant who found the loop-hole in the law on which the gold policy (of Roosevelt's) was first based. (Chicago Daily News, Paul Mallon's "Washington Notebook," 2/27/34).

In 1942-44 Ball was Associate General Counsel Lend Lease Administration, and the legal adviser to Edward Stettinius, Jr., the Administrator. He became a founding partner in 1945 of the law firm of Cleary, Gottlieb, Steen and Ball, which is the foreign agent for the European Common Market and its affiliated organizations, Ball being the counsel for the Common Market. Ball attended ten or more of the international conferences of the Bilderberg Group. He is very active in the studies and work of the Council on Foreign Relations. He wrote, with Thomas K. Finletter, a very vicious letter attacking Nixon (to the N.Y. Times, 10/9/60) in which he asserted Nixon was an utter phony. This man is completely internationalized in his thinking. His present job gives him authority as the mutual security coordinator over the ICA, as chairman of the board of the Development Loan Fund, as Alternate Governor of the World Bank. He was head of the Volunteers for Stevenson in 1952.

WILBUR COHEN was nominated (at this writing Senator Byrd has held up his confirmation hearings) to be Asst. Secy.

for Legislative Matters of the Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare. He headed a task force for Kennedy on medical care for the aged under the social security system, an outright socialist plan. Cohen had been a technical adviser to the Social Security Administration from 1936-54.

ALLEN W. DULLES has been retained by Kennedy as director of the Central Intelligence Agency. Dulles attended Princeton and is a director of the Council on Foreign Relations. The CIA has averted investigations of itself by various committees seeking to uncover subversive influences within the agency, yet word of the socialist underground throughout the world operating in a clandestine fashion for the CIA has leaked out. Dulles has been in government service since 1916. Allen and John Foster Dulles worked as a team from the beginning, even while in separate jobs, through the firm of Sullivan and Cromwell. John was an adviser, sponsor and mentor to Alger Hiss; an adviser to Dean Acheson; an early (1906) secretary to the Hague Peace Conference; very active in Communist Institute of Pacific Relations; close friend to Phil Jessup and many others as bad; chairman of the board of the Rockefeller Foundation; a leading figure in the subversive National Council of Churches; a supporter of the one-world organization, Federal Union; etc., etc. (See "Rockefeller Internationalist," 1952).

JAMES M. LANDIS was a member of the Harvard Group, has been the lawyer for all the Kennedys for years. Landis was law clerk to and an early protege of Louis Brandeis; co-author of a book in 1928 with Felix Frankfurter; a key protege of Frankfurter's brought to Washington as a member of the S.E.C. (he did most of the drafting of the act) and later head of it. He and Joe Kennedy brought William O. Douglas into the S.E.C. When Landis became Dean of Harvard Law School, Douglas became chairman of the S.E.C. First Kennedy, then Landis, then Douglas. ("The Remarkable Kennedys," by Joe McCarthy, (not Senator) 1960, p. 48-50, 96). Landis is a special assistant to Kennedy on the regulatory agencies, having prepared a task force report on them as his first job. In earlier years his wife slipped up and sponsored the Communist party organization, the Washington League of Women Shoppers. (Appendix 9, p. 1023).

Other members of the Office of the President include Pierre Salinger, Press Secretary; Theodore Chalkin Sorenson, Special Counsel, Kennedy's closest associate during the past 8 years, liaison between the Harvard Group and the rest of the "egg-heads" throughout the country.

ANDREW T. HATCHER, Negro, Associate Press Secretary, a staff man in Stevenson's 1956 Campaign.

KEYNES AT HARVARD

by Veritas Foundation
(A group of distinguished Harvard graduates).

Here in simple language is a concise history of the Socialist and Fabian Movement in England and America. You will no longer wonder why Harvard has produced men like Alger Hiss, Walter Lippmann, Harry Dexter White, after reading this factual book.

A blueprint of what the next four years might be, if Kennedy is influenced by his Harvard braintrust, is given in detail. This is must reading with a Harvard man in the White House.

MYER FELDMAN, chief researcher for Kennedy in 1960, Deputy Special Counsel, and a past employee of the S.E.C., Bureau of the Budget, and liaison man between Truman and Eisenhower in 1952.

The Office of the President also has other members. DAVID ELLIOT BELL, Director of the Bureau of the Budget, an economist who was an administrative executive asst. to Truman, 1949-53, and his speech writer on economics. He was head of Stevenson's research staff in the 1952 campaign and a co-worker with Seymour Harris and Kenneth Galbraith at Harvard where he has taught off and on since 1941. From 1954-57 he was a professor at Harvard's Graduate School of Public Administration (Littauer School) and after that a lecturer and chief administrative officer.

Myer Feldman's assistant is a Budget Bureau expert, HANS A. ADLER, Fred L. Holborn, a Harvard government professor, is another administrative assistant to Pres. Kennedy.

MCGEORGE BUNDY, Kennedy's Special Assistant on National Security Affairs, was Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences of Harvard, has written for the Council on Foreign Relations, will be the factotum of the National Security Council, as chief of its planning staff. His brother, William P. Bundy of the CIA, is Paul Nitze's assistant, and a Harvard man. He also is Acheson's son-in-law. Senator McCarthy had him investigated. McGeorge Bundy attended the 1957 Bilderberg Conference.

FRANK D. REEVES, a Kennedy Campaign aide, is the special assistant to the President in the handling of minorities. He is a Canadian Negro.

PROF. RICHARD NEUSTADT, a University faculty member and a Harvard man, is a temporary consultant on government organization. He served in the Budget Bureau under Truman. Other consultants on the Executive Branch are Sidney Stein Jr., from Chicago; Robert A. Lovett, who picked top cabinet members for Kennedy after he himself had refused a top post (Lovett is a Frankfurter protégé and was Secretary of Defense—with Anna Rosenberg as his underling—and Under Secretary of State under Truman); and Don K. Price, dean of Harvard's Littauer School, vice-president of the Ford Foundation and a participant in the 1957 Bilderberg Conference.

ADOLPH BERLE JR. is Kennedy's Ambassador to the Organization of American States and his expert on Latin-American Affairs. Berle perjured himself before the House Un-American Activities Committee when he contradicted Whittaker Chambers testimony that he had given Alger Hiss' and other communist agents' names to Berle in 1939 as espionage agents. Berle's own notes giving the lie to his testimony were produced by the FBI during the Hiss trial for perjury. (See Witness, Whittaker Chambers, 1952) Berle was security officer of the State Department in 1939 when Chambers met him. Berle's association with the Liberal Party of New York has been long and intimate (as Honorary Chairman, etc.). The Executive Director under Berle in the Liberal Party, Ben Davidson, was expelled from the Communist Party as a Lovestonite. The Liberal Party is the Socialist apparatus of David Dubinsky and Alex Rose and is intimately associated with the ADA. Berle was a Harvard man, lectured on finance at the Business School, started his career with Louis Brandeis' law firm, joined the Council on Foreign Relations, was an early New Dealer, and a committee member of the cited Communist-front American Civil Liberties Union. (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, Vol. 1, 1938, p.531).

RICHARD N. GOODWIN, special assistant to the President (duties not given press), was a key man in the Harvard Group and chief assistant to Ted Sorenson during the campaign. He is just two years out of Harvard Law School and spent most of the intervening period as law clerk to Justice Felix Frankfurter. (N.Y. Times, 7/14/60, p.18). Goodwin was president of the Harvard Law Review. He is the latest in a long line of Frankfurter proteges planted close to the center of power.

The White House staff also includes ARTHUR SCHLESINGER JR., top member of the brain trust of the Harvard Group, a Harvard history professor, brother-in-law of John K. Fairbank (Harvard, identified as a communist in sworn testimony), ADA chairman, chief researcher and ghost writer for Stevenson, etc. He regards the welfare state (socialist) as "the best security against communism." He wrote speeches for Stevenson during all of his campaigns, and is doing the same thing for Kennedy.

WALT ROSTOW of M.I.T., a Rhodes Scholar, Harvard Group expert on economic development problems in "underdeveloped countries," is also on the White House staff as deputy to the special assistant on national security. (N.Y. Times, 1/25/61, p.37).

PAUL A. FREUND, Kennedy's expert on "civil rights" from the Harvard Group was Louis Brandeis' secretary and planted in the Justice Department in the early days of the New Deal by Frankfurter. He is a Harvard Law professor. (Chicago Tribune, 12/22/35).

COUNCIL OF ECONOMIC ADVISERS

PROF. WALTER W. HELLER became chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers (CEA). Heller is an old-line New Dealer and has held various positions with the Treasury Dept. In 1942 he helped install the income tax withholding system for Treasury. He was chief of internal finance in the German military government under Lucius Clay. He is a Harvard lecturer.

PROF. KERMIT GORDON, a Rhodes Scholar, is another CEA appointee and is also a Harvard man. He was the director of the economic and administrative program of the Ford Foundation, a Brookings Institute consultant, an old OPA, State Department and OSS employee.

REQUIEM OF THE REPUBLIC

By Remlow Harris

Here lies our nation, murdered by enemies from within who pretended to be patriots.

Here rests America, her shroud the Constitution, the garment that for more than 160 years was her Armour and Sword.

Here rests America, her tombstone that hideous house of the United Nations, whose sinister shadow stretches across the land and darkens every door.

How and why and by whose hands was our nation killed? It is a simple and shameful story of citizens who could read, but would not — and of statesman who might have acted and did not.

FIVE CENTS

PEACE CORPS

Zionist's Trojan Horse

by Sam Crockett

Among the many stories which have been issued on the Peace Corps in the past few months there have been a number of conflicting statements as to its initial origin—as a plan, or an idea.

The N.Y. TIMES, 1/9/61 p.16, describes a task force report by Max Millikan of MIT on the peace corps, suggesting that an International Youth Service Agency be set up which would be governed by a board of directors which would include representatives of the International Cooperation Administration (ICA), the U.S. Information Agency, the State Department, and the major private foundations. This task force report was prepared for President Kennedy.

And the same paper, (12/19/60) stated that the Peace Corps had been recommended by the Committee on Educational Interchange, Policy of the Institute of International Education (IIE) the chairman of which committee was Harlan Cleveland, publisher of the marxist-like magazine, "THE REPORTER," edited by Max Ascoli, an Italian Jew. Cleveland, a Rhodes Scholar is now an Assistant Secretary of State. Other committee members included William Fels, president of the "progressive" Bennington College; Fred M. Hechinger, educational editor of the N.Y. TIMES; Kenneth Holland, president of IIE; and Benjamin R. Shute, ex-director of intelligence for the U.S. High Commissioner of Germany. The IIE is an organization which has been extensively financed in the past by the Carnegie Endowment and the Rockefeller Foundation. It has always been internationalist and has included among its officers and associates dozens of subversives. The committee report suggested draft deferment for peace corpsmen.

Kenneth Holland wrote a long letter to the N.Y. TIMES, 3/12/61, praising the Peace Corps, without however mentioning his part in the rendering of the task force report. He compared it to the CCC of the early New Deal days—a socialistic venture which fell on its face (Holland wrote "Youth in the CCC," published by the American Council on Education)—and quoted approvingly from an essay "The Moral Equivalent of War" proposing a kind of Peace Corps (written by William James). He suggested:

"A conscription of the whole youthful population to form for a certain number of years a part of the army enlisted against nature . . . No one would remain blind, as the luxurious classes now are blind, to man's relations to the globe he lives on . . . our gilded youth would be drafted off, according to their choice, to get the childishness knocked out of them, and to come back into society with healthier sympathies and more sober ideas."

Holland also mentioned several "compulsory labor services" established in European countries in 1919 and in 1932. From the tenor of the letter and the implications in it, a normal reader can very easily comprehend the drift of his proposals: that the Peace Corps, first voluntary in nature, shall eventually become a draft organization empowered to conscript youth into its ranks.

There are other indications that this vile scheme is behind the Peace Corps proposal. The brainwashing techniques in the educational system, in the communication fields, and in the armed services have not accomplished all that the brainwashers desire. Through the Peace Corps these conspirators will have a weapon to use directly against the youth, the only remaining barrier against outright enslavement under the heels of the Fabian Socialists (and some Communists) now in power in our Government. The very vagueness of the conception—as presented to the public of the Peace Corps—is a tipoff that its purpose cannot be safely revealed, to the public.

Another story in the N.Y. TIMES, 2/27/61, p.14, stated that a study of the Peace Corps was made by Dr. Maurice L. Albertson, Pauline Birky and Andrew Rice of the Colorado State Research Foundation by an ICA contract under a $10,000 appropriation made by Congress in 1960. These researchers worked with the approval of R. Sargent Shriver Jr., brother-in-law to Jack Kennedy. Shriver is a director of the National Catholic Conference for Interracial Justice, an organization whose activities have been viewed with grave suspicion by conservative Catholics. He has also been executive director of the Joseph P. Kennedy Fund, a Yale Law school graduate, and the expert during the Kennedy campaign on racial problems, including the winning of the Negro vote.

The preliminary report by the Albertson group called for a Peace Corps which would work through private organizations, universities, foundations, and even the U.N. It estimated that it would cost 50 millions a year for a body of 5000 corpsmen. Rep. Henry S. Reuss, Dem. of Wisc. ramrodded the $10,000 appropriation through Congress. Shriver has been working for months from offices in the International Cooperation Administration Headquarters in Washington, D.C. Reuss on 2/13/61 (N.Y. TIMES, p.16) flatly stated that he and Selective Service Director Lewis Hershey had agreed that virtual draft exemption would be a result of the program. "But he said that such a provision can not be written into the bill because of political opposition." He expected the Corps to grow to 10,000 or more. This type of publicity is deliberately calculated to lure the youth to apply for the Corps in lieu of the draft.

A pilot project for the Peace Corps has already been set into operation. The N.Y. TIMES of 1/29/61, p.45, said 150 teachers were to be sent to Africa this year per a contract between the ICA and Teachers College of Columbia University. The subversive affiliation of faculty members from this college are second only to those of Harvard. Officials (not named) said the idea for the program grew out of a conference in December at Princeton University sponsored by the American Council on Education. G. Mennen Williams was present at the 4-day conference. This project will cost the taxpayers over 2 millions as a start. The same story stated that Reuss claimed he had anticipated the peace corps plan by Kennedy by three years when he proposed it at Cornell University in 1957 (quoting the Feb. 1961 leftist monthly, The Progressive, in an article by Reuss). Reuss said that the Albertson report had been authorized by an amendment to the 1960 Mutual Security Act sponsored by himself and the late Senator Richard L. Neuberger, a notorious leftist.

The Albertson group (N.Y. TIMES, 1/12/61) sent out questionnaires to the American Friends Service Committee (an extremely pro-communist pacifist group); the Unitarian Service Committee (even worse than the AFSC), and the Volunteers for International Development, and Service Civil International Voluntary Work Camps. Albertson said the Rockefeller Foundation helped finance two conferences in New York and Washington to help formulate the Youth Corps idea.

Shriver baited the hook again when on March 6th he stated that corpsmen would be deferred from the draft and that when they returned from their tour of duty they could expect a "breathing period" during which time they could seek employment in one of the "deferrable" occupations, such as teaching or Government service. He announced the career planning board for the Peace Corps had been formed. It consists of Ralph Lazarus, a member of the national committee of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith (his brother Fred Jr. is a member of the board of the National Planning Association, a vice President and member of the executive committee of the American Jewish Committee, and a director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews); Joseph A. Beirne, AFL-CIO vp and president of the Communications Workers of America; Roger Jones, an Asst. Secretary of State and a vp of the Washington Institute for Mental Hygiene; and Benjamin S. Willis, General Superintendent of Schools in Chicago. In this story Senator Hubert Humphrey is named as another "father" of the Peace Corps idea. Morris Abram ex, Special Asst. and Advisor to Peace Corps, officer ADL Atlanta, Rhodes Scholar, member of communist-infiltrated Twentieth Century Club, helped write the infamous Marshall Plan.

Shriver's report on the corps was released by Kennedy on March 4th, including the names of 14 of the Peace Corps staff

LENIN DID IT - LENIN DIDN'T!

By our Asian correspondent

Ask an average American about the origin of the Communist Revolution in Russia, and it is practically certain that his reply will be such:

"LENIN DID IT!"

And those who would express their doubt that such gigantic upheaval could be performed by one human being, however dynamic and gifted, might be referred to such authoritative sources as, for inst., the Enc. Britannica, ("LENIN", an article modestly signed by three letters only: "L. Tr.", —Leon Bronstein-Trotsky himself), or to the well-known book "LENIN" written by another Jew, David Shub.

Since, directly or indirectly, YOU too are one of the victims of that Communist Revolution, you should be interested to find out if really Lenin alone shall be blamed and cursed for all our misfortunes, including the ever-present threat of the dreadful nuclear war.

Let us admit, together with Trotsky, Shub and other Jewish or Jewish-inspired sources, that "Lenin did it", or, in other words, that his share in promoting the October's Revolution is a full 100%.

Not so says the same Enc. Brit. in its article about Trotsky; it is stated here, and we quote:

"TROTSKY played a part HARDLY LESS IMPORTANT than that of Lenin in organizing the Bolshevik revolution in 1917."

From this sentence it is clear that we have to give at least a 40% share to this Jewish Communist for starting that Revolution.

But can the remaining 60% be fully attributed to Lenin? Most certainly not! "Life", (May 4, 1953), claims that:

"APPELBAUM (Zinoviev), is CREDITED WITH LENIN for actually starting the Revolution in 1917."

So, as you see, we are compelled to cut down Lenin's share once more leaving him, let us say, 40% of the total and giving 20% to Zinoviev.

There is, however, still another very prominent Jew who cannot be forgotten when discussing this turbulent period of Russian history. It is, of course, none else but Jacob Sverdlov, the so-called "Red Czar", then the Chairman of the all-powerful Central Executive Committee of the Soviets, (in 1918 out of its 12 members 9 were Jewish), who condemned to death the last Russian Emperor and all his family AGAINST THE WISH OF LENIN, as it was rumoured at that time. About that Jew "Time" magazine, (June 13, 1960), says as follows:

"... SVERDLOV, a LEADER of 1917's Red Revolution, credited in Soviet history books with HAVING ORDERED THE EXECUTION of Czar Nicholas II and his family at Ekaterinburg, later renamed Sverdlovsk."

It may be added, that a Jew, Yankele YUROVSKY, was put in charge of this assassination; he murdered personally the Emperor and his young son Alexis. Can we deprive this Jewish "Red Czar" Sverdlov of his legitimate share in shaping the course of the Communist Revolution? Obviously not: let us give him 20% and leave to mighty Lenin the remaining 20% only.

But could this measly share be really his? Apparently not, if we can believe Lenin's own words said once to his old Party comrade, a Jew, Dimanstein:

"The fact that during the war many Jewish intellectuals settled down in Russian cities had a GREAT SIGNIFICANCE for the success of Revolution."

Czar Nicholas II and his family before they were slaughtered by Jewish Communists.

It was THEY who helped to liquidate the general sabotage which confronted us after the October's Revolution. . . . Those JEWISH ELEMENTS were mobilized against sabotage, and thus SAVED THE REVOLUTION at this critical moment. We were able to grasp the government apparatus ONLY BECAUSE we had this supply of intelligent and educated working force." (As quoted by Prof. Solomon Goldmann in the Journal of the "Institute for Study of the USSR", No. 4/32, 1959, p.19.)

A certain Joseph Novak in his article "The Ordeal of the Jews" published by the Sat. Ev. Post on May 28, 1960, fully confirms those words of Lenin and openly admits that the Jews were the BRAINS and the LEADERS of the Communist Revolution. Novak says, and we quote:

"The Jews in Russia, persecuted by the czars, tied their fate to the 1917 Revolution from the very beginning, and SUPPORTED THE IDEALS OF COMMUNISM. The Jewish intellectuals took their stand AT THE HEAD OF THE REVOLUTION and LED IT during the most difficult period."

E. Stevens in his book "This Is Russia" which got the Pulitzer Prize tells also the following significant words about the role of the Jews in the Soviet Union:

"The Jews AS A GROUP were grateful for the equality accorded to them and were among the STANDEST SUPPORTERS OF THE SOVIET REGIME."

As you can see yourself from the above quotations taken from the sources which nobody can call "Anti-Semitic," the Jewish cadres in Russia LED and SAVED the Communist Revolution which, Lenin or no Lenin, would have perished without their enthusiastic help during those crucial times. Lenin's share, consequently, shall rightfully belong to them—and ONLY to them—because the majority of the Russian intellectuals SABOTAGED this Revolution and fought against it nearly causing its collapse.

If the Reader of this short article is neither a hypocrite obsessed with a pathological fear of being called an "Anti-Semite", nor an otherdirected anthropoid incapable of making his own thinking, he should admit that:

REVOLUTION BROUGHT TO THE WORLD.

There are signs, however, that this monstrous crime against humanity will not be left unpunished. Prof. Goldmann mentioned above, and many, many other Jewish individuals and organizations are now bitterly complaining how badly Stalin's successors are treating those who SAVED THE COMMUNIST REVOLUTION. The gigantic conflagration started by Jewry forty-three years ago got after the 2nd world war out of their hands and is beginning gradually to devour its originators.

"BLOODY INSTRUCTIONS WHICH BEING TAUGHT, RETURN TO BLOOD THE INVENTOR!" (Macbeth)

F. D. Roosevelt's death upset the Jewish plans and as the U.S. becomes more aware of the communist plot, the Jews are furiously trying to cause Christians to forget who financed communism, set it up and spread it all over the world. Hence, we witness today Jewish owned television showing as many as ten anti-German, anti-Jew programs a week. They would have us believe Germany which was "crushed" 16 years ago is the threat, not communism which is steadily taking over the world.

To make Christians forget who forced the U.S. into two world wars and who were the force for communism in all European countries, we now have the climax of Eichmann's trial. Israel that was not even in existence during World War II, presents Eichmann with three Jew judges in a hostile country and publicizes over the world ridiculous charges knowing the Germans dare not offer evidence to debunk their lies.

So far nothing has been introduced to prove Eichmann killed even one Jew. God help our gullible Christians.

The United States Of America Is Not A Democracy

By Mrs. J. J. McLaughlin, Chairman,
Defenders of American Education

The United States of America is not a Democracy. Our Founding Fathers explicitly rejected Democracy when they framed the Constitution for the American System, a Representative Constitutional Republic, the first of its kind in the history of mankind.

"We live under the only government that ever existed which was framed by the unrestrained and deliberate consultations of the people. Miracles do not cluster. That which has happened but once in six thousand years cannot be expected to happen often. Such a government once gone, might leave a void to be filled for ages with revolution and tumult, riot and despotism." From Daniel Webster's 4th of July Oration given in church building at Fryeburg, Maine in 1802.

There is no mention of Democracy anywhere in the historical documents of the United States of America.

Our American System was established on Moral Order — Natural Laws.

Down through the ages, history records man's struggle between Moral Order—the Natural Laws and Social Order — Naturalism.

Democracy has but one meaning—"Government in which the supreme power is in the hands of the people."

Those who would attempt to destroy Moral Order and set up a "social order" have employed the term "democracy" to foist the old worn-out, decadent and degenerating ideology of Naturalism upon the past ten generations.

"Democracy" caused the downfall of France at the end of the 18th Century. The students were so thoroughly trained with the ideology they were easily led to incite revolutionary incidents to create chaos and confusion which eventually resulted in the Revolution nearly two centuries ago. France has never fully recovered from this disaster.

Alexis De Tocqueville came to America from France in 1831 to study our penal system. He was amazed to find that some American people had been persuaded to adopt the "democracy" which had devastated his own country. He wrote two volumes, "Democracy in America." While he was seemingly unaware of the basis of the ideology, his keen observation of fundamental Americanism is displayed in the following statement:

"I think that in no country in the civilized world is less attention paid to philosophy than in the United States. The Americans have no philosophical school of their own; and they care but little for all the schools into which Europe is divided, the very names of which are scarcely known to them. Nevertheless it is easy to perceive that almost all the inhabitants of the United States conduct their understanding in the same manner, and govern it by the same rules; that is to say, that without ever having taken the trouble to define the rules of a philosophical method, they are in possession of one, common to the whole people."

"Democracy" is responsible for chaos and confusion in Korea, Turkey and in our own country as evidenced by the recent student demonstrations against the House Un-American Activities Committee Hearings in San Francisco. The "democracy" of France stirred up the students to cry for "Liberty, Equality and Fraternity." The "democracy" propagated over the world today causes the uninformed to cry for "Freedom, Democracy and Brotherhood."

Millions of Americans err when they refer to the American System as a Democracy. In many of our schools and colleges our youth are trained for "democracy" instead of educated with Americanism.

The National Education Association's Report for 1918 contains the following: "Statement of Principles, 1918. SOCIALIZED SCHOOL FOR EFFICIENT DEMOCRACY."

"The schools of a modern, efficient democracy must necessarily be socialized schools. They must train for the whole life of all the people. To achieve this result the Association recommends that larger opportunities be provided for activities which will develop the initiative and resourcefulness of children, thus fitting them to meet the demands of our democracy."

Harold Benjamin, Chairman, National Commission for the Defense of Democracy Through Education, N.E.A., made the following statement in his "Report on the Enemy" at the N.E.A., 88th Delegate Assembly, St. Louis, Missouri, July 3, 1950:

"The teachers of the United States . . . believe in democracy. They propose to teach democracy, to help with all their might to make democracy work, and when necessary—as they have done in the past—to draw and fight for democracy."

Samuel Adams warned, "Remember, Democracy never lasts long. It soon wastes, exhausts and murders itself. There never was a democracy that did not commit suicide."

Alexander Hamilton, Secretary of the Treasury under George Washington, stated that, "We are a Republican Government. Real Liberty is never found in despotism or in the extremes of Democracy."

An informed citizen is an intelligent citizen. Teach our youth the truth. Those Americans who cherish Our Heritage should take time to inform, and correct the current errors. The United States of America is not a Democracy!

- WORLD JEWRY -

from the Khazar's poison pen.

"... RELIGIONS SHALL DISAPPEAR."

The paper Jewish World, of London, states on February 9, 1883, as follows:

"The great ideal of Judaism is that the whole world shall be imbued with Jewish teachings, and that in a Universal Brotherhood of Nations — a greater Judaism, in fact — all the separate races and religions shall disappear."

"... INTO THE HANDS OF JEWS."

The excerpt below is taken from a letter written to Karl Marx by his fellow Jew, Baruch Levy, as quoted in la Revue de Paris, June 1, 1923, p. 574.

"The Jewish people as a whole will be its own Messiah. It will attain world dominion by the dissolution of other races, by the abolition of frontiers, by the annihilation of monarchy which has always been the support of individualism, and by the establishment of a world republic in which the Jews will everywhere exercise the privilege of citizenship. In this new world order the Children of Israel, who are scattered over the world, will furnish all the leaders without encountering opposition; and this will more particularly be the case if they succeed in getting the working masses under control. The governments of the different peoples forming the world republic will, through the victory of the proletariat, fall without difficulty into the hands of the Jews. It will then be possible for the Jewish rulers to abolish private property, and everywhere to make use of the resources of the state. Thus will the promise of the Talmud be fulfilled, in which is said, that when the Messianic time has come, the Jews will have the whole world in their hands."

IS THIS NOT PROOF?

This is exactly what is taking place in the United States TODAY.

General Walker Removed By Invisible Government

Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, graduated from West Point 30 years ago. Since then he has given top service in the Army to his Country.

Because he is accused of being friendly to the John Birch Society which is dedicated to opposing Communism, the General has been relieved of his command of troops in Germany. The General has rendered heroic service in World War 2 and Korea.

Who made the charges against him? The privately owned OVERSEAS WEEKLY, whose reporters had been barred from division installations because of the questionable content of the publication.

The OVERSEAS WEEKLY is published by Marion Rospach; John Dornberg, Editor.

members: Warren W. Wiggins, asst. dep. dir. of the ICA; Edwin R. Baylen, a past reporter for the Milwaukee Journal; Gordon Boyce, Pres. & Sec.-Gen. of the Experiment in International Living of Putney, Vt.; Albert G. Sims, vp of the IIE; Dr. Howard A. Rusk of NYU; Louis E. Martin, editor of the Chicago Defender, a Negro daily (liaison with the UN); Dr. Arthur S. Adams of Harvard University, president of the American Council on Education (corps training program); and others.

It is evident from the information available to us at present, and from the fact that over 20,000 applications have poured in to the Peace Corps Recruitment Center under Shriver (who is actually a State Department official, "unpaid"), that this idea—particularly the lure of avoidance of the draft, and the career planning which follows a tour of duty, is going to appeal to a great number of young men and women. It is also evident that the real sources for the massive planning which had gone into this are not out in the open; nor are the actual purposes behind the idea exposed to public gaze.

The Peace Corps is a perfect vehicle for the indoctrination of its members with Communist doctrines, with pacifist and atheistic ideologies, with whatever brainwashing techniques are desired by its directors. An intensive examination of the past activities of the Experiment in International Living (which has operated for 30 years or more with dozens of other pacifist and worse organizations) would be very productive in revealing just what kind of program planning will be set up by Gordon Boyce for the corpsmen.

On March 30th, Kennedy announced the selection of a 33 member National Advisory Council for the Peace Corps. Its Honorary Chairman is the very, very Red longtime Kennedy friend, Justice William O. Douglas.

The vice-chairmen include Communist-fronter David E. Lilienthal, and Rev. James Johnson of New York, who has an extensive Red record.

Council members include Eleanor Roosevelt (over 100 communist-fronts), Leona Baumgartner (N.Y. Health Commissioner), Harry Belafonte, Dr. Benjamin E. Mays and Clarence E. Pickett (American Friends Service Committee)—all of whom have extensive records of association with Communist-fronts.

Eugene V. Rostow, dean of Yale Law School (brother of Walt Rostow), and James Scott, international vp of the Communist-infiltrated U.S. National Student Association, are other council members.

The USNSA held a conference (New York Times, 4/1/61) which endorsed the Peace Corps, opposed loyalty oaths for volunteers and urged eventual U.N. control of an international peace corps. The student organization also said FBI security checks on applicants should be sharply limited.

Keep your eyes open and your fingers crossed on the youth Peace Corps.

Press releases reveal that young boys and girls are to be sent overseas to various countries to educate and guide the different nationalities. Apparently we are going to make these "different people live, eat, and think like we think they should even if it puts our taxpayers in hock.

We received a hint as to what we can expect when one of Kennedy's spokesmen, in a speech at the Democratic Convention, said: "The U.S. can feed and clothe the whole world."

The New York Journal-American of Mar. 6, 1961, under a picture of Sargent Shriver pointing to the map of Africa, quotes Shriver as saying that 500 to 1000 young volunteers will be sent there. God have mercy on these girls. Eleanor Roosevelt is a prominent promoter of this explosive movement which reminds us that while

MORE KENNEDY APPOINTMENTS

In addition to the appointments by Pres. Kennedy listed in issues 361 and 362 of Common Sense there are the following:

Nicholas D. Katzenbach, Assistant Attorney General, a Rhodes Scholar.

Lawrence Levy of Newton Center, Mass., Defense adviser to Thomas K. Finletter, Ambassador to NATO, also Defense Dept's representative for North Atlantic and Mediterranean area at Atlantic Pact Hq. in Paris.

Cecil Poole, Negro, is to be U.S. Attorney (No. Calif.).

Dr. Noah N. Langdale, Jr., a Harvard Law man, has been nominated to be a member of the U.S. Advisory Commission on Educational Exchange.

Philip Elman, has been nominated to be a Federal Trade Commissioner. Elman was a member of the editorial board of the HARVARD LAW REVIEW in 1939, the Editor of the book, "Of Law and Men" (papers and addresses of Felix Frankfurter), law clerk to Judge Calvert Magruder of Boston, 1939-40 (a Harvard Law professor and Kennedy appointee), LAW CLERK TO FELIX FRANKFURTER 1941-43, and legal adviser to the Office of Military Government in Berlin 1945-46 (during the period of the OMG's violently pro-Soviet activities in West Germany).

(CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, 4/18/61, p. 5673 for his background.)

The Treasury Department announced three more Negro appointments on April 17th to staff positions in that Department and Kennedy named Dean S. W. Robinson 3d, Negro dean of Howard University Law School to be a member of the Civil Rights Commission. Robinson is southeast regional director of the NAACP. Kennedy also appointed Dean Erwin N. Griswold, Dean of the Harvard Law School, to the Civil Rights Commission. Griswold is a notorious propagandist for 5th Amendment Communists.

The new public members named by Kennedy to the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity (April 3rd) include Mrs. Mary Lasker, Fred Lazarus Jr. (of the NCCC and AIC; his brother Ralph—Peace Corps official—is an ADL official), Walter P. Reuther, Rabbi Jacob Joseph Weinstein, (ex-president Rabbinal College Assn.).

Kennedy appointments not named previously as members of the Council on Foreign Relations are: Anthony B. Akers (Herbert Lehman protege in NYC), Ambassador to New Zealand; J. B. Bingham (Common Sense No. 362); W. L. Cary (362); John Gardner (362); Roswell Gilpatrick (361); David Lilienthal (Peace Corps); Chas. P. Noyes (362); Robt. Roosa (361); Chas. Bohlen (362); Harlan Cleveland (362); James Gavin (Amb. to France); Brooks Hays (362); Chas. Hitch (362); Geo. McGee (362); Don Price (362); Edwin Relschauer (362); G. E. Reinhardt (an Ambassador); Walt Rostow (361); Eugene Rostow (Peace Corps); Stuart Symington (362) and John H. Wines (362). Delete Arthur Goldberg, Luther Hodges, Abe Ribicoff and J. E. Day from 362 list. (Note: Jack Kennedy and Felix Frankfurter are both official members of the CFR.)

See Peace Corps article for appointments in that organization.

APPOINTMENT SCOREBOARD

While the classifications in some instances are overlapping, this brings the total to:

Jews	63
Stevenson law partners	3
Stevenson associates, supporters	23
Rhodes Scholars	10
Oxford Graduates or teachers	4
Harvard grads, teachers, officers	52
Bilderberg Conference members	8
Frankfurter proteges	13
Council on Foreign Relations	44
Negroes	15

Catholic and Southerners are conspicuous by their almost complete absence from the appointee lists.

F.D.R. was on the throne, Eleanor used her influence to set up the C.C.C. Camps.

First a serious emergency was promoted by leftist writers depicting thousands of boys in gangs in cities needing guidance. It developed that when these boys were recruited their instructors were communists, hence today, some of our active Bolsheviks are graduates from the C.C.C. Camps.

The American Jewish Examiner of Brooklyn, March 16, page 2, carries large headline: "Jewish Youth Urged To Enlist In Peace Corps." The article quotes Max Bressler, president of Zionist Organization of America, issuing call to Jewish youth to join the Peace Corps.

These Pharisees will take it over and in their groups over the world will re-educate the gullible Christian youth!

The Jewish Spectator, April 1961, carries three and a half columns on the Peace Corps. Below are excerpts:

"The Ideological and idealistic premises of the U.S. Peace Corps cannot but challenge American Jews, particularly professed Zionists . . . The U.S. Peace Corps is being swamped with applications by qualified persons eager to serve where their knowledge and skills are most needed. There are tens of thousands of American Jews with the knowledge and skills Israel needs who would surely respond to the call to give two years of personal service in Israel. Close to six million Jews in this country can assure a steady stream of volunteers for service in Israel for as long as the Young State will need assistance.

We propose that proper organizational steps be taken to channel for Israel's benefit some of the American sacrificial readiness to assist the new countries. We ask all those who are in favor of setting up organizational machinery for "American Jewish Personal Service in Israel" to stand up and be counted. In particular, we are calling upon the Rabbis to devote a sermon to the distinctly Jewish implications of the U.S. Peace Corps."

THERE YOU HAVE IT. Israel since it was established by theft and murder on May 15, 1948, has been supported by the U.S. and Germany, the U.S. by political pressure, and Germany by blackmail. Now they want U.S. taxpayers to pay for thousands of people to help build up Israel while a million owners of the property exist in the desert-like animals.

Kennedy under pressure of the leftist groups has ignored Congress and launched this young growing Frankenstein which will absorb millions of taxpayers' money, demoralize many girls, and condition them all for COMMUNISM.

SUCH IS THE NEW FRONTIER.

U.S. MISSION TO THE U.N.

Under Adlai Stevenson at the U.N. is Eleanor Roosevelt, a U.S. representative to the U.N. She is and always has been Stevenson's top supporter, is a founder and honorary chairman of the ADA. She has intervened in the Alger Hiss Case, the Welles Warrower Case, the Itasca Irene Berkman (Mrs. Earl Browder) Case, and the Hanns Eisler Case. All were Soviet agents. Her Communist-front record of 88 citations and 42 radical affiliations are cited in "Eleanor's Red Record," and News for Action, May 1960.

Stevenson's aide and deputy of ambassadorial rank at the U.N. is Francis T. P. Plimpton, a long-time friend and associate, and a Harvard Law man. He is a very early New Dealer (general solicitor Reconstruction Finance Corporation) whose career suggests Frankfurter influence. He has been a member of the faculty of the very red New School for Social Research, a recorder of the equally red Union Theological Seminary, member of the radical Church Peace Union, a director of the Communist-infiltrated Foreign Policy Association, associated with the Communist-espionage-front Institute of Pacific Relations, a member of the supra-governmental and internationalist Council on Foreign Relations, and of 24 other organizations or institutions. (Who's Who in America, 1942-43). He was a director of the Communist-front, Open Road (Appendix 9, p.477).

Stevenson's ministerial aides include Chas. P. Noyes (Yale Law), as counselor of the U.N. Delegation. Noyes was a consultant to the Rockefeller Brothers Fund from 1953-61 and previously (1941) was on the legal staff of the Lend-Lease Administration and an adviser to the U.S. mission to the U.N. staff, 1945-51. In Chicago he practiced law, often working in Stevenson's law firm. Another aide is Jonathan Brewster Bingham, past editor of the Yale Law Review, secretary to N.Y. Governor Averill Harriman (1955-58), former N.Y. state chairman of the ADA, and an early (1936) Yale supporter of Roosevelt! He is married to ADA Communist-fronter Herbert Lehman's grandniece, June Rossbach, a psychiatric expert and co-writer with Dr. Fritz Redlich of "The Inside Story." Her biography of the notorious Communist-fronter Reinhold Niebuhr is to be published by Scribners in 1961.

Standing: Gittler, Benson, R., Freedman, Sadove, Solomon, Levenson Linenthal.

ROBERT S. BENJAMIN, chairman of the board of United Artists, reddest of the motion picture companies in terms of its releases, is the new national chairman of the U.S. Committee for the U.N.

The most significant appointment of a U.S. representative to the U.N. Council is that of PHILIP M. KLUTZNICK, an official Kennedy supporter who started out in the Justice Dept. in 1935 and by 1944 became the Commissioner of the Federal Public Housing Authority. He was a U.N. representative in 1957. During his nomination hearing (1/31/61) before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, he stated he was a member of the commission on money and credit set up by the Ford Foundation and of the Committee for Economic Development, that he had served as international president of the B'nai B'rith ADL for 6 years and is its honorary president for life, that he has been national chairman of the United Jewish Appeal, and a delegate to the World Jewish Congress meetings. He was chairman of the group of Jewish leaders which tried to arrange a private meeting with Premier Khrushchev and is "a power behind the scenes in the Democratic Party in the Midwest."

ABRAM CHAYES, is the new legal adviser to the State Dept. and is therefore a man who wields tremendous influence in the political area most likely to affect the lives of every American: foreign affairs. From 1951-52 he was law clerk to Felix Frankfurter. By 1958 he was a Harvard professor. On the question of the Connally Amendment (limiting the power of the World Court over the affairs of the United States), he stated he "firmly" supported its repeal. When it was pointed out to him that Communist-fronter Phil Jessup was the American World Court judge, that the Soviet Union and Poland—even though sitting on the court—refuse utterly to submit to its jurisdiction, that only 3 small countries had agreed to submit to it, he still insisted we should submit to it in accordance with "our announced objective to further the rule of law in the world." After confirmation Chayes appeared with George Ball before the same committee (Feb. 14, 15, 1961) for the hearings on the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development treaty, the most dangerous instrument ever planned for the destruction of liberty within these United States. Chayes, Ball and Dillon fought as a team for ratification of the treaty.

ELIZABETH R. SMITH daughter of Clarence M. Rudel, president of the munitions firm of Canadian Vickers, is the new Treasurer of the U.S. She is also a past strong Stevenson campaigner.

FRANK M. COFFIN (Harvard Law and Business Schools). Manager of the Development Loan Fund, helped establish the same agency in 1957; with Brooks Hays brought about the formation of the U.S.-Canadian Interparliamentary Committee, a part of the training apparatus for the future world government; and is an expert on the European Common Market, an economic organ for the world state in preparation.

PROF. ARCHIBALD COX was an organizer of the educators in behalf of Kennedy's presidential aspirations, and the coordinator of the Harvard Group brain trust. He advised Kennedy from 1953 on, and has been rewarded with the position of Solicitor General. He is the labor law expert from Harvard Law School.

ROBERT C. WEAVER, Negro, was national chairman of the Communist-fronting infiltrated NAACP, just prior to his appointment as Federal Housing and Home Finance Administrator. A Harvard man, he was a member of FDR's New Deal Black "Kitchen Cabinet." His communist-front record includes endorsement of a program by the Council on African Affairs ("New Africa," Oct. 1945); membership in the executive committee of the National Citizens Political Action Committee (Appendix 9, page 263 official list, August 28, 1944); leadership in a discussion at the 2nd National Negro Congress, Oct. 1937 (Appendix 9, p.1280); signing of a letter endorsing the Negro People's Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy (Daily Worker, 2/8/39, p.2; Appendix 9, p.1347); contribution of $5 in 1940 to "Social Work Today," Jan. 1941 issue, pp. 16-18 (Appendix 9, p.1783); sponsorship of a Testimonial Dinner in Honor of Ferdinand O. Smith (program, Sept. 20, 1944); and affiliation with the Washington Book Shop 1941 (Special Comm. on Un-American Activities hearings, Vol. 17, 1944, p.10347). See Georgia Commission on Education Vol. 2, "Communism and the NAACP," pp.95-97, for a recent statement. Weaver started his career in 1933 as an aide to Interior Secretary Harold Ickes, "a violent partisan of the New Deal revolution, and continued in the WPA, the WPB and the WEC, New Deal alphabet agencies. He was the most powerful Negro in the Federal government by 1944. He later was State Rent Administrator under Harriman in New York State. He has been a "civil rights" crusader for three decades and is "a close friend to identified Communist Ralph Bunche, another Harvard man who is slated for a top post in the Kennedy administration. (Congressional Record, 1/8/61, pp.267-8). Opposition to Weaver's appointment was so intense that Kennedy was forced to place his personal imprimatur on the appointment via a signed letter. Kennedy stated he had "evaluated" the F.B.I. record on Weaver and still would recommend him. The wording of his response suggests that that report would include much more than a few front listings. This appointment was an absolutely disgraceful action on the part of Kennedy. Weaver testified that he "didn't know" the organizations he joined were Communist-fronts. He was under oath!

Under Weaver, as Deputy Adviser of the HHFA is Walter P. Reuther's ex-administrative assistant, Jack T. Conway. W. Alanson Wilcox, new General Counsel of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, has served in the government from 1934 to date, as general counsel of Treasury, of Federal Security Agency, etc., and of course is a Harvard man.

ELVIS J. STAHR, JR., Secretary of the Army, is a Rhodes Scholar.

ROGER W. TUBBY, Truman's press secretary and assistant, 1950-52, is the Assistant Secretary of State for Public Affairs and was an assistant to Stevenson in 1956.

WILLIAM H. ORRICK, JR., brother of Andrew Orrick, acting chairman of the SEC under Eisenhower, is the Assistant Attorney General (Civil Rights) and was a leader in Stevenson's campaign in 1956.

Our Country in Distress!

JOHN BAILEY, Democratic National Chairman (not an appointment) is a Harvard Law man, worked for Kennedy for 4 years, and is a Bibloff protege.

CARL ROWAN, Negro, race relations writer is Roger Tubby's deputy in State.

HARLAN CLEVELAND, publisher of "The Reporter" edited by Communist-fronter Max Ascolix, is the Assistant Secretary of State for International Organization Affairs (US-UN liaison). He is a Rhodes Scholar, served (since 1940) in the FEA, ECA, MSA, etc.

The new Commissioner of Internal Revenue, MORRIMER CAPLIN, of the University of Virginia Law School, owes his appointment to the fact that he taught law to Robert Kennedy, and that he is an ex-member of Paul Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton and Garrison.

GEORGE F. KENNAN is the new Ambassador to Yugoslavia. He originated the "containment policy" towards communism which became official U.S. policy and which presumed that U.S.-Soviet relations could be based on the peaceful co-existence theme (now official Soviet policy—for the time being). Kennan was Ambassador to the USSR in 1952 and had previously served as director of the State Department's Policy Planning Staff and as counselor from 1947-50. In 1953 he joined the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton, N.J., and became a professor there. He also lectures at Oxford University, and taught at Yale in 1960. See "Dr. Oppenheimer's Institute" by Karl Hess (American Mercury, July 1956) for a good study of the Institute for Advanced Study and its major figures, Albert Einstein, top policy Communist, and J.R. Oppenheimer, identified as a Communist and as a Soviet agent in the 1954 examination by the Personnel Security Board of Oppenheimer's activities as an atomic scientist. Kennan is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and past president of the East European Fund of the Ford Foundation and attended the 1957 Bilderberg Conference.

CLARENCE D. MARTIN, JR., (Harvard) is Under Secretary of Commerce for Transportation.

CHARLES E. BOHLEN, a special adviser on Soviet affairs to the Secretary of State, once faced a bitter battle against his appointment as Ambassador to the Soviet Union based on his pro-Soviet attitude and activities. He is a Harvard man.

JOHN KENNETH GALBRAITH, Ambassador to India, was a key member of the Harvard Group, a backer of Stevenson in 1952-56, a professor of economics at Harvard and an "egghead socialist" (N.Y. Times, 2/25/61, p.2, col. 2). He was a member of the key communist-front, the National Citizens Political Action Committee (when he was with Fortune magazine) (Appendix IX, p. 264); "Dr. Galbraith on May 31, 1948; resigned his post as deputy OPA administrator, after he was accused, before a Congressional investigating committee, of being a radical theorist whose policies were seriously hurting business". (Appendix IX, page 1624.) His article, "Benefits of General Disarmament," was featured in the official Soviet magazine, New Times, published by TRUD weekly in nine languages from Moscow (No. 51, Dec. 1959, pp. 14-16). "Thus the prestige of Harvard is invoked once again to aid communism" and Galbraith has graduated as a "favorite of the Kremlin." ("Keynes at Harvard," Veritas Foundation, N.Y. 1960, p. 39.) This Fabian Socialist has boldly spoken out for Castro and during his nomination hearing stated that U.S. recognition of Red China and its admission to the U.N. were necessary to bring peace to Asia.

RICHARD M. SCAMMON, director of the Census Bureau (now used as a snooping organ for the government) was the senior consultant to Louis Harris and Associates in N.Y., the organization which conducted all of the secret polls for Kennedy and which used very questionable techniques of gathering information in the process. He was governmental host to a group of Soviet citizens (spies) observing U.S. elections and himself went to the USSR in 1958 to observe Soviet "elections." He attended the Fabian Socialist London School of Economics.

The Administrator of the Farmers Home Administration is HOWARD BERTSCH, a past employee of the Department of Agriculture and a Ford Foundation adviser to the Government of Iran for 7 years.

BROOKS HAYS (of the socialist TVA) is the Asst. Secy. of State for Congressional Relations. He was an official of the Communist-front Southern Conference for Human Welfare in 1938 (Appendix IV, p. 1624). He attended the 1957 Bilderberg Conference.

Another participant in the Conference was Rhodes Scholar GEORGE C. MCGHEE, counselor for the State Department.

PHILIP H. COOMBS, new Asst. Secy. of State for Educational and Cultural Affairs (a new post) was the program director for education in the Ford Foundation and the Secretary of the Ford Fund for Advancement of Education.

NEWTON N. MINOW, an ex-law partner of Stevenson's, is the new FCC chairman.

DEAN ACHESON, of whom volumes have been written as to his pro-Soviet activities in the State Dept. and in other departments, his friendship with Alger Hiss, his membership in the Council on Foreign Relations, his role in the sellout of China and the firing of Douglas MacArthur, has been appointed head of the US Advisory Group in NATO. He was the private secretary to Louis Brandeis, studied under Felix Frankfurter, at Harvard and became his protégé for a post in the Treasury Department in the early New Deal era. He was sponsored by Sen. Millard Tydings, deceased son-in-law of the pro-Soviet Joseph E. Davies, and has represented Red Poland as a lawyer (Donald Hiss was his law partner, brother to Alger). He persistently protected and elevated Soviet espionage agents to positions of importance within the government and is probably one of the all-time greatest subverters ever to have been in a position of importance in the United States.

EDWARD R. MURROW, director of the United States Information Agency, has been associated with the socialist Liberal Party in New York, has been an assistant director of the Institute of International Education (financed by the Carnegie and Rockefeller Foundation) in 1932-35; is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation. He has been a master of twisted propaganda in behalf of Communists and against such persons as Senator McCarthy. His special assistant is Thomas O. Sorenson.

THOMAS K. FINLETTER, the U.S. Ambassador to NATO and the OECD, is a member of the Herbert Lehman-Eleanor Roosevelt reform movement in New York, served as Secretary of the Air Force under Truman, backed Stevenson for the presidency in 1960, is and has been on the national board of the ADA for over ten years.

The Associate Director of Harvard's Center for Far Eastern Affairs is PROFESSOR EDWIN O. REISCHAUER, a man who is cited repeatedly in the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee's hearings on the Communist-espionage-front Institute for Pacific Relations for his activities and membership in that organization (1944-48), writings in its Far Eastern Survey, association with leading Communists within the IPR, and pressure on the State Dept. and in his writings for the furtherance of Red Chinese objectives. He is the new Ambassador to Japan.

WILLIAM ATTWOOD, new Ambassador to Guinea, traveled around the world with Stevenson in 1955, reporting on his activities, wrote speeches for Kennedy in 1960, wrote scurrilous smear articles against the South in Look magazine, also wrote pro-Castro articles.

STANLEY SURREY, a Harvard Law tax expert, is an assistant Secretary of Treasury.

ADRIAN S. FISHER, ex-legal adviser to the State Department, is a deputy to McCloy, and has just left his position as vp and counsel of the very red Washington Post and Times Herald.

WILLIAM LUCIUS CARY, chairman of the SEC, is a Columbia Law professor and attended Harvard Business School and lectured there in 1945. He was recruiter for the Volunteers for Stevenson in 1952. He was counsel for the red-infiltrated Coordinator of Latin American Affairs office in the early '40's.

ARTHUR H. DEAN attended the 1957 Bilderberg Conference and is an ex-law partner to John Foster Dulles (Sullivan and Cromwell). He is to be the main negotiator for the U.S. at the nuclear discussions at Geneva. Dean was heaviest financial backer of Institute of Pacific Relations, and in 1946 was Vice Chairman. He was a close friend of Frederick Field, communist, also Philip Jessup, Alger Hiss and Owen Lattimore. He later was Chairman of American Council of I.P.R.

JOHN HAY WHITNEY (Oxford) is the chairman of the U.S. delegation on the West Indies defense areas.

MURAT WILLIAMS (Oxford) is the U.S. Ambassador to San Salvador.

CLIFFORD R. WHARTON (Negro) is the Minister to Norway.

CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS SCOTT (Negro) is deputy assistant Postmaster General for Transportation.

BENJAMIN MAYES (Negro) has been nominated to be a member of the Federal Civil Rights Commission. He is a member of the board of directors of the NAACP and has a Communist-front record of thirty-one citations, too extensive to quote here, some of recent date. (See Georgia Comm. of Education's "Communism and the NAACP," Vol. 2, pp. 65-6.)

RALPH PAIEWONSKY, Governor of the Virgin Islands, owns half of the islands and controls the Island's liquor business.

JAMES J. REYNOLDS, brother of the Communist-fronter Question Reynolds, is an Assistant Secretary of Labor and was with the very red NLRB under Truman, 1946-52.

EDWYN SILBERLING, is the chief of Justice Department's anti-racketeering division (Harvard Law).

ADAM YAMOLINSKI (Harvard) is Asst. Secretary of Defense in charge of personnel. Another Assistant Secretary (Controller) is CHARLES J. HUTCH (Harvard and Rhodes Scholar), whose Harvard University Press book, 1960, "The Economics of Defense in the Nuclear Age" is the "Bible" of the Pentagon.

EDWARD GUDEMAN, of the Chicago Executive Board of the ADL (ADL Bulletin, Jan. 1961, p. 8) is Under Secretary of Commerce. He is a Harvard man and has been associated with Lehman Brothers.

GEORGE C. LODGE (Harvard) is an Asst. Secretary of Labor.

WALWORTH BARBOUR (Harvard) is the Ambassador to Israel.

JEROME WEISNER (MIT) is the special scientific adviser to Kennedy (from the Harvard Group).

Task force reports for Kennedy were rendered by red-fronting SENATOR PAUL DOUGLAS (depressed areas); SOLOMON BARKIN, research director of the Textile Workers Union (area development); PROF. PAUL SAMUELSON of MIT, a Fabian Socialist writer (right of President to fix revenue rates); JOHN GARDNER, President Carnegie Foundation. ALVIN EURICH, vp Ford Foundation; FRANCIS KEPPEL, dean of the Graduate School of Education at Harvard (education report); JEROME SPINGARN of the National Planning Assn., secretary of the task force on Soviet-U.S. arms talks headed by JEROME WEISNER, and composed of members BENJAMIN V. COHEN, ex-legislative aide to FDR and KENNEDY campaign adviser on disarmament, THOMAS SCHELLING, Harvard Center for International Studies, and others; CALVERT MAGRUDER, NLRB counsel 1934-5 and Harvard Law professor (ethics in government); PROF. LOUIS LOSS (Harvard) of the SEC, who refused the SEC chairmanship to head a group to completely revise its structure; DR. W.K.H. PANOFKY (nuclear testing); EDWIN M. PURCELL of Harvard (space report); STUART SYMING-

TON, CLARK CLIFFORD, THOMAS FINLETTER and MARX LEVAY (defense); etc., etc.

Other appointments of interest: MILTON PHILIP SEMER, to be general counsel HIFA under Weaver; JON O. NEWMAN, administrative asst. to Ribicoff; LOUIS FALK OBERDORFER, asst. attorney general; ROWLAND BURNSTAN, Asst. Sec. of Commerce; BERNARD SEGAL, chairman 11 man screening committee for judicial appointments for Attorney General; M. L. FRANKEL, task force on teaching reform.

SIMON H. RIFKIND, Chairman Railroad Commission of Stevenson's law firm. SEYMOUR E. WOLFEIN, Labor Dept. expert.

JACK ROSENTHAL, Asst. Director of Public Information, Dept. of Justice.

MAURICE ROSENBLATT, Consultant Interior Department.

A.H. ROSENFELD, Chief of U. S. Civil Rights Commission.

ROBERT MORRIS MORGENTHAU, U.S. Attorney Southern New York.

HAROLD F. LINDER, President and Chairman of U.S. Export-Import Bank (he is vice-president Jewish Joint Distribution Committee and ex-partner in Carl M. Loeb, Rhoades & Co.). A CIA official and is a trustee of Institute for Advanced Studies.

MORRIS ABRAM, Special Asst. and advisor to Peace Corps. Officer ADL, Atlanta.

Other appointments not named here include 3 Stevenson campaigners, 3 Harvard men and one Negro.

DAVID G. ACHESON (son of Dean Acheson) U.S. Atty. for Dist. of Columbia.

MAXWELL ISENBERG, Den. Asst. Sec. of State for Educational and Cultural Affairs; JAMES LOEB, JR., Natl. Secy. of ADA, 1941-51, Exec. Asst. to Harriman, Ambassador to Peru; EDWARD WEINBERG, Interior Dept. Aide.

Other Council of Foreign Relations Members:

Goldberg, Day, Stevenson, Ribicoff, Hodges, Bowles, Barkin, McGeorge Bundy, Dean, Dillon, Finletter, Linder, Ben Cohen, Fisher, Galbraith, Landis, Schlesinger, Nitze, David K. E. Bruce (Ambassador to England).

APPOINTMENT SCOREBOARD

The major appointments made by Pres. Kennedy in the period covered by this listing (which is incomplete) reflects a very clear pattern which is of interest as an indication of what kind of men are now in tight control of our Government.

The following classification in some instances are overlapping:

Jews	54
Stevenson law partners	8
Stevenson associates, supporters	23
Rhodes Scholars	9
Oxford Graduates or teachers	4
Harvard grads, teachers, officers	40
Bilderberg Conference members	8
Frankfurter proteges	12
Council on Foreign Relations	27
Negroes	8

Catholics and Southerners are conspicuous by their almost complete absence from the appointee lists.

Anyone who examines the foregoing list of appointments and presumes for an instant that they are not participants in a conspiracy with full knowledge, consent and backing of Jack Kennedy—which is directed towards bringing about the ultimate complete socialization and enslavement of this Nation, is still asleep.

Keep in mind this article makes no reference to several thousand employees who are placed in government by these heads of department as was done under F.D.E. and by Anna Rosenberg.

HELP US SECURE A MILLION READERS

Dear Subscriber:

We have been most gratified by your loyal support of our publication. You have proven by your continuing subscription to "Common Sense" that you believe in our cause. We, therefore, believe that you—in particular—might wish to help us reach our 1961 goal of carrying our message to an ever greater number of people.

Currently, we print an average of 87,360 copies of each edition of "Common Sense," many of which go to prominent men in all fields. By wide inquiry, we learn that a very conservative estimate of the number of readers is more than 225,000. There are many more people who should be aware of the Communist Jewish Conspiracy, but who do not read "Common Sense." They COULD, however, if you would send us the name and address of even one person of your choice, returning the bottom portion of this letter and one dollar for your selection.

Yours in Freedom's name,

Straight Talk

By Tom Anderson, Editor,
FARM and RANCH, Nashville, Tenn.

"Well, what're you going to be against this month?" my friend inquired. "I'll bet you couldn't possibly come up with another page telling what you're for."

As the fellow who had to ride with his mother-in-law at his wife's funeral said to the undertaker: "I'll do it, but it's going to ruin my whole day."

I'm for "urban renewal" for all cities who want to pay all the cost themselves. For Harry Truman for a psychiatrist's couch. For ridiculing beatniks—phonies who make a fad out of failure. For getting out of the U.N. and getting into a world organization composed only of those nations who believe in and practice the freedom and dignity of the individual. For encouraging those who would "rather crawl on their knees to Moscow than to die under an atom bomb" to start crawling, and good riddance. For remembering the Cold War abroad and the Cold War at home are directly related; and that we cannot possibly win the Cold War at home; that although Moscow could possibly destroy us, Washington is more likely to.

Stop Stealing From Children

I'm for beginning, now, regular payments on the national debt, which is the largest any nation has ever known. For paying it off ourselves rather than stealing from our children's children.

I'm for allowing gangsters arrested while in peaceful, private assembly like those in Appalachia, N.Y., the same Constitutional immunities as are granted our Communist citizen criminals. The gangsters were arrested and jailed on mere suspicion, with no evidence that they were planning a job bigger than a bridge tournament or course in flower arranging. Yet other known criminals, Communists dedicated to the overthrow of our country, are untouchable! If touched, our touched Supreme Court turns 'em loose.

I'm for replacing politicians who vote for whatever their constituents want, right or wrong, with voting machines. This would be a real economy. And in many cases the voting machine would give us better representation. For publishing, periodically, the salaries and expense accounts of public employees. For preventing public employees from spending any government time, money or equipment in any political campaign. For restricting political contributions to individuals—no corporations, co-ops, or unions.

Defining "New Frontier"

For making radio and TV stations who're still fighting Nazism and Fascism give "equal time" to fighting the "New Frontier"—Socialism-Communism. For making display of the hammer and sickle an equal crime with display of the swastika. For according Fascists equal "human rights" with Communists. For revival of the old slogan: "Buy American." And for adding: "Be American, Think American, Act American." For revising Hull's outdated Reciprocal Trade Agreements to make our foreign trade really reciprocal. For trading to win, not to lose. For changing government policies which have ruined or are ruining our watch, coal, textile, glass, cutlery, steel, chinaware (87% of the chinaware bought in the U.S. last year was produced by foreign countries) and many other industries. I'm for halting the flight of American investment capital from this country by offering more freedom and a better deal at home. We've given two million jobs to foreign friends and enemies with the $21 billion we've put into foreign factories since 1945. I'm for "free trade" with the world, just as soon as we regain our freedoms at home—ending union more pay-less work racketeering, confiscatory taxation—and federal strangulation of free enterprise.

I'm for a notation on each of Drew Pearson's columns showing what he scored on the lie detector test for that day's column. I'm for the right to be prejudiced. People are individuals endowed with God-given freedom to arrive at different conclusions and prejudices from whatever facts they want to explore. Or to say, like the dear old lady: "Don't confuse me with the facts, my mind is made up."

Before Any Summit

Before having any Summit—two-man or 20-man—I'm for making the Kremlin prove its claim to wanting peace by doing these things:

(1) Lift the Iron curtain to let everybody out who wants out. Freedom-to-leave is the essence of democracy. Any country that does not allow its citizens to leave is a slave state.

(2) Agree to free elections in all the satellite countries.

(3) Allow East Germany and West Germany to vote on reunification.

(4) Withdraw Chinese Communist troops from North Korea and agree to free elections and unification.

(5) Free all enslaved states; free elections, freedom of religion, assembly, press.

I'm for killing foreign aid to all enemies, like Tito and Gomulka; and to all "neutrals" like Nehru, unless the United States gets strategic materials, war bases or other concrete "value received." For severing diplomatic relations with all Communist governments.

For the original Bricker Amendment, outlawing secret, unconstitutional, Presidential treaties not ratified by Congress. For ending all federal aid to education. For vesting strict control and support of the schools in state and local governments. For schools which invest in teachers instead of elevators and gymnasiums. For schools which educate not society but individuals. For the right of states to give the pro rata cost of tuition to the school chosen by each child's parent: private, public, segregated, integrated, Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, I'm for freedom of choice.

ARE YOU FOR AMERICA FIRST OR AMERICA LAST?

It is a little late to decide, however, many need to think seriously and quickly. Those who want to be for America First had better do something to preserve American Freedom.

Dear Sir:

Are you familiar with the anti-Communist paper "Common Sense" which is printed at Union, New Jersey? If so, do you think all or most of the information in it concerning Communist infiltration in the United States Government is true? I have a friend who reads it and believes every word of it and worries over it until I sometimes fear that she will lose her sanity. I would greatly appreciate any information you can give me concerning the reliability of what is printed in this paper.

Yours very truly,

Who Started World War 2... and When? Mr. Untermeyer Answers the Questions

OH, WHAT A TANGLED WEB WE WEAVE
WHEN FIRST WE BEGIN TO DECEIVE!

Twenty-seven years ago a worldwide "sacred war" was declared on Germany, not by Great Britain, not by France, not by any nation; but by the Jews of the World.

Startling as that statement is, it is substantiated by a public address made over Station WABC, outlet of the Columbia Broadcasting System, by Mr. Samuel Untermeyer, an American Jew.

Was Mr. Untermeyer speaking as an individual, as an American citizen, as a crackpot? Absolutely, no. He was speaking as a member of "our race."

He was speaking as the executive official of the World Jewish Economic Federation.

What was the occasion of his speech? Having returned from Amsterdam, Holland, where he presided over the International Jewish Boycott Conference—at which conference he was elected president of the World Jewish Economic Federation formed to combat the oppression of Jews — Mr. Samuel Untermeyer spoke most officially, most representatively, most authoritatively. In announcing the factuality of the "sacred war," he definitely referred to "race," not religion. He went so far as to say that those Jews who did not join with him were "traitors to their race."

Twenty-seven years ago, approximately, this high Jewish official—whom there was no higher at the moment—did not say that we "will go" to war against Germany. He said that the "sacred war" against Germany was then under way—"actively embarked upon."

Thus, at Amsterdam, Holland, at the meeting above referred to at which Mr. Samuel Untermeyer was elected president of the World Jewish Economic Federation, a "sacred war" was declared against Germany to destroy Germany's very existence.

Jews all over the world were ordered not to buy from Germany, not to patronize German merchants, not to deal with firms which sold German goods, not to ship on German boats.

Mr. Untermeyer, speaking officially for all the Jews in the world on "what we are proposing and what we have already gone far towards doing," said that his organization would "undermine the Hitler regime and bring the German people to their senses by destroying their export trade on which their very existence depends."

All this to rescue 540,000 Jews resident in the Third German Reich.

Thus, a "sacred war" of revenge was undertaken and was under way by Aug. 6, 1933.

Did Mr. Samuel Untermeyer foresee that some Jewish leaders would not go along with him? He did not; for he said that all Jewish leaders of Jewish organizations would be compelled to go along with him, following a meeting to be held at Prague, Czechoslovakia that same year—1933.

WE REPEAT: for 540,000 Jews in Germany the world was catapulted into a "sacred war" of economic boycott. The object of the war was to destroy Germany's export trade upon which her "very existence" depended. Only an irrational man would deny that such an economic war would inevitably lead to a bloody physical war.

Few people realize the main force motivating the master minds behind communism is the hatred of Christ and his followers. When marxism takes control, Christians and their institutions are first victims.

And what about the persecution of the 540,000 Jews in Germany? It is true that Hitler placarded their shops; ostracized many Jews from professional ranks; instituted, in some instances, concentration camps for what Hitler thought to be the more dangerous ones. But why did Hitler practice such extremities? All civilization knows that, following the first World War, wealthy Jews from America, Britain, France, Holland, Galicia and elsewhere moved into Germany with their valuable money and purchased property which was represented by worthless inflated German marks.

Indeed, the Jews became the aristocrats of Germany — financial aristocrats, if you please, having confiscated through their monetary manipulation a great share of the wealth that belonged not only to the 2 million members of the Nazi Party but to the 50 million Catholics, Protestants and other Gentiles who did not belong to the Nazi Party. And as far back as 1933, a world war—a "sacred war" was declared not only against Hitler and his 2 million Nazis, but against the 50 million Catholics, Protestants and other Gentiles who were not Nazis.

Flauntingly before the American public—nearly six years before military war was declared, chief executive officer Samuel Untermeyer of the World Jewish Economic Federation had the effrontery to ask the Christians of the World to join with his nationals throughout the world to destroy, not only Hitlerism and the 2 million Nazis, but also the more than 40 million Christians in Germany whose very existence — according to Mr. Untermeyer — depended upon their economic activities with the outside world.

Apart from the poor logic of the Untermeyer proposal, the Christians throughout the world—not defending Hitler—suffer an intellectual insult by the invitation to join with the racial Jews against their own fellow Christians who were more sinned against than sinning.

Perhaps the Untermeyer speech throws some light upon the refusal of the Jews to accept Father Coughlin's invitation issued November 20, 1933, for the Jews to join with the Christians to battle against the commissars of the Soviet Union whose hands were reeking with the blood of millions of Christians—Christians not persecuted economically, but done to death most outrageously. And at the time Mr. Untermeyer was speaking — 1933 — not one Jew in Germany had suffered at the hands of the Hitlerites although they had unjustly acquired German property with their foreign gold.

Unctuously Mr. Untermeyer advertised the purpose of his "sacred" Jewish worldwide war to wipe out bigotry, race hatred and fanaticism. Nothing could persuade that gentleman and the worldwide organization he represented to strike at Moscow.

Twenty seven years have elapsed since the beginning of this world war upon which we "actively embarked." Millions of lives have been affected by it. Millions of homes have been reduced to rubble. Millions of children have been blasted out of existence. Yet Mr. Untermeyer said that the "hell of war and the alleged Belgian atrocities will pale into insignificance as compared to this devilishly deliberately, cold-bloodedly planned and already partially executed campaign for the extermination of a proud, gentle, loyal, lawabiding people."—This for 540,000 German Jews whom he subsequently, referred to as the "aristocrats of the world."

Americans were under the impression that this was a war to save democracy; a war to guarantee the lastingness of the four liberties. Mr. Untermeyer has been truthful and told us the real objective of the war.

The entire war planned by 1933, according to Mr. Samuel Untermeyer — not planned with its litany of defeats for France, Great Britain and the United States. But planned, nevertheless, to rescue 540,000 Jews in Germany, planned to destroy German trade upon which Germans depend "for their very existence."

Mr. Untermeyer specifically said in the interview given to the reporters when he arrived in America from Amsterdam, that capitalism in America would be forcibly lined up, as it were, through means of "a peaceful revolution." Even before Mr. Roosevelt had an opportunity to discuss his plans for the reconstruction of America. Mr. Untermyer disclosed to the world the nature of the plans.

'And further, the "sacred war" would be implemented through the League of Nations, according to the high spokesman of Jewry. We now understand the reason for the rancor which existed in the hearts of Jewry when the entrance of the United States into the League of Nations was opposed.

In 1933 America was a country with its sleeves rolled up, its head held high, and its heart athrob, determined to dig our way out of depression and scale the rugged height of national prosperity. Then we were a united country. But diabolically the poison of disunion was dumped into our national vein through propaganda, press, radio, pulpit — and boycotts.

Those who prayed night and day for the energy and will to walk hand-in-hand with Mr. Roosevelt found it impossible to do so when they envisaged the blood bath which a handful of revengeful men was preparing for us—despite the fact that "revenge is Mine, saith the Lord." And these same men have the audacity this day to talk of disunity, of bigotry, of pro-Nazism, of fanaticism.

This most historic speech of Mr. Untermyer renders foolish the insincere words of those who dare prate of disunity. Let them indict as pro-Nazis, if they will, those who are not fearful to tell the truth; for truth was always the characteristic of a real American.

WHO STARTED THE WORLD WAR?

We leave the answer to that question to Mr. Samuel Untermyer, refusing to alter one word of his most historic speech—a speech which speaks for itself.

The Jews of America, through their various publications persistently have calumniated prominent patriotic American citizens and termed them un-American.

Here, then, is our answer to them—in part. We will let the world know who is un-American and undemocratic. If pro-Americanism consists in boycotting a suffering 40 million German people; if pro-Americanism consists in casting the entire civilized world into a seething cauldron of bloody war for the protection of 540,000 racialists or religionists — as you care to call them; if pro-Americanism is identified with secret economic conferences at Amsterdam and dictatorial decrees emanating from Prague which nullifies the peaceful progress of our country — then Americanism, under that interpretation, is not worth fighting for.

Of course, Mr. Untermyer does not refer to the Jews in Germany as religionists. To him they are racialists. But the propagandizing Jews in America avoid the word "racialist" and employ the word "religionist" not only to suit their convenience, but to bandage the eyes of the blind "goyim" of America — the "goyim" who are not the "aristocrats" but are employed to fight a world war for the Jews, who are the "aristocrats."

Note: GOYIM—ALL NON JEWS

Text of Untermyer "Sacred" War Speech

Following is the text of Samuel Untermyer's address over Station WABC after his return from Europe. (From New York Times, Aug. 7, 1933).

"My Friends:

What a joy and relief and sense of security to be once more on American soil!

The nightmares of horrors through which I have passed in those two weeks in Europe, listening to the heartbreaking tales of refugee victims, beggar description.

I deeply appreciate your enthusiastic greeting on my arrival today, which I quite understand is addressed not to me personally but to the holy war in the cause of humanity in which we are embarked, Jews and non-Jews alike, for we are equally concerned that the work of centuries shall not be undone, and that civilization shall not be allowed to die.

It is a war that must be waged unrelentingly until the black clouds of bigotry, race hatred and fanaticism that have descended upon what was once one Germany, but is now medieval Hitlerland, have been dispersed. If we will but enlist to a man and persist in our purpose, the bright sun of civilization will again shine upon Germany, and the world will be a safer place in which to dwell.

As our ship sailed up the bay today past our proud Statue of Liberty, I breathed a prayer of gratitude and thanksgiving that this fair land of freedom has escaped the curse that has descended upon benighted Germany, which has thereby been converted from a nation of culture into a veritable hell of cruel and savage beasts.

The World's Concern

We owe it not only to our persecuted brethren but to the entire world to now strike in self-defense a blow that will free humanity from a repetition of this incredible outrage. This time the Jews are the victims, next time it may be the Catholics or the Protestants. If we once admit, as is brazenly insisted by the German Government, that such fiendish persecution of the people of one race or creed is an internal domestic affair and not a world concern, how are we to know whose turn will be next?

Now or never must all the nations of the earth make common cause against the monstrous claim that the slaughter, starvation and annihilation, by a country that has reverted to barbarism, of its own innocent and defenseless citizens without rhyme, reason or excuse is an internal affair against which the rest of the world must stand idly by and not lift a hand in defense

Back to Dark Ages

But why dwell longer upon this revolting picture of the ravages wrought by these ingrates and beasts of prey, animated by the loathsome motives of race hatred, bigotry and envy. For the Jews are the aristocrats of the world. From time immemorial they have been persecuted and have seen their persecutors come and go. They alone have survived. And so will history repeat itself, but that furnishes no reason why we should permit this reversion of a once great nation to the Dark Ages or fail to rescue those 600,000 human souls from the torture of hell, as we can with the aid of our Christian friends, if we have the will to act.

Protests and pleas from all corners of the earth, from the leaders of all creeds, having proven as vain and unavailing, as was the idealistic dream of our martyred President of making the world safe for democracy and of protecting minorities, what then are to be the lines of our defensive campaign against these atrocities, on which we are already actively embarked? Are we right in our plan? If so, what steps shall now be prosecuted to attain success?

Our campaign is two-fold — defensive and constructive. On the defensive side will be the economic boycott against all German goods, shipping, and service. On the constructive side will be an appeal to the League of Nations to construe and enforce the labor union provision of the Versailles Treaty and the written promise made by Germany, while the treaty was under negotiation, to protect its minorities, which have been flagrantly violated by its disfranchisement and persecution of the German Jews.

What Boycott Means

As to the boycott, strange to say a mere handful in number, but powerful in influence, of our thoughtless but doubtless well intentioned Jews seem obsessed and frightened at the bare mention of the word "boycott." It signifies and conjures up to them images of force and illegality, such as have on occasions in the past characterized struggles between labor unions and their employers. As these timid souls are capitalists and employers, the word and all that it implies are hateful to their ears

What we are proposing and have already gone far towards doing, is to prosecute a purely defensive economic boycott that will undermine the Hitler regime and bring the German people to their senses by destroying their export trade on which their very existence depends.

'Force Them to Learn'

They have flaunted and persisted in flaunting and defying world opinion. We propose to and are organizing world opinion to express itself in the only way Germany can be made to understand. Hitler and his mob will not permit their people to know how they are regarded by the outside world. We shall force them to learn in the only way open to us.

Revolting as it is, it would be an interesting study in psychology to analyze the motives, other than fear and cowardice, that have prompted Jewish bankers to lend money to Germany as they are now doing. It is in part their money that is being used by the Hitler regime in its reckless, wicked campaign of propaganda to make the world anti-Semitic with that money they have invaded Great Britain, and the United States, and other countries where they have established newspapers, subsidized agents and otherwise are spending untold millions in spreading their infamous greed.

The suggestion that they use that money towards paying the honest debts they have repudiated is answered only by contemptuous sneers and silence. Meantime the infamous campaign goes on unabated with ever increasing intensity to the everlasting disgrace of the Jewish bankers who are helping to finance it and of the weaklings who are doing nothing effective to check it.

The Hitler regime originated and is fiendishly prosecuting their boycott to exterminate the Jews by placarding Jewish shops, warning Germans against dealing with them, by imprisoning Jewish shopkeepers and parading them through the streets by the hundreds under guard of Nazi troops for the sole crime of being Jews, by ejecting them from the learned professions in which many of them had attained eminence, by excluding their children from the schools, their men from the labor unions, closing against them every avenue of livelihood, locking them in vile concentration camps, starving and torturing them, murdering and beating them without cause and resorting to every other conceivable form of torture inhuman beyond conception, until suicide has become their only means of escape, and all solely because they are or their remote ancestors were Jews, and all with the object of exterminating them."

Editors Note: Not one Jew had been starved, tortured or murdered because they were Jews. Communist Jews from the Soviet Union were swarming in thru Czechoslovakia and were caught sabotaging Germany.

APPEAL TO MANKIND

"As against this, the foulest boycott in the annals of time, we are appealing to all mankind to enforce a counter-boycott. That appeal is meeting with the conviction that idealism and justice are still alive

President Roosevelt, whose wise statesmanship and vision are the wonder of the civilized world, is invoking it in furtherance of his noble conception for the readjustment of the relations between capital and labor under the terms of the sweeping Industrial Recovery Act, to the end that labor shall receive a more just share of the wealth it creates. He is about to enlist the consumers of the country in a national campaign in which they pledge themselves to boycott all manufacturers, jobbers and retailers who fail to subscribe to the codes and to buy only from those who have assented and who are thereby privileged to fly the blue eagle of NRA. What more exalted precedent do our timid friends want?

With this explanation, of our aims, I appeal to the American Jewish Committee, whose public spirit and good intentions I do not for a moment question, but the wisdom of whose judgment I challenge, no longer to hold aloof but to rid themselves of their timid and ill-considered prejudices and join in actively pressing this boycott as our only weapon except the appeal to the League, which I shall discuss at a later time.

I purposely refrain from including the American Jewish Congress in this appeal because I am satisfied that 95 per cent of their members are already with us and that they are being misrepresented by two or three men now abroad. Of them I ask that, prior to the meeting to be held this month in Prague by their executive committee, they instruct these false leaders in no uncertain terms as to the stand they must take on this all-important subject and demand that they shall either openly represent their views or resign their office.

PROGRESS SO FAR MADE

There is not time now, but I hope and expect in the near future to be able to report to you the steps that have been taken and that are already under way, and the surprising and gratifying progress already made in many countries toward the success of the economic boycott in which we are engaged. Although considerable progress in that direction has already been made in Great Britain and the United States, you will be surprised to learn that they are the least advanced and as yet the most inadequately organized of all the countries that were represented at the Amsterdam World Economic Conference where the boycott was unanimously and enthusiastically approved by formal resolution by a rising vote.

With us in America the delay has been due in part to lack of funds and the vast territory to be covered, but it is hoped and expected that this condition will soon be corrected. The object-lesson we are determined to teach is so priceless to all humanity that we dare not fail.

Each of you Jew and Gentile alike, who has not already enlisted in this sacred war should do so now and here. It is not sufficient that you buy no goods made in Germany. You must refuse to deal with any merchant or shopkeeper who sells any German-made goods or who patronizes German ships or shipping. To our shame be it said that there are a few Jews among us, but fortunately only a few, so wanting in dignity and self-respect that they are willing to travel on German ships where they are despised and meet with the just contempt of the servants who wait upon them and of their fellow passengers. Their names should be heralded far and wide. They are traitors to their race.

In conclusion, permit me again to thank you for this heartening reception and to assure you that, with your support and that of our millions of non-Jewish friends we will drive the last nail in the coffin of bigotry and fanaticism that has dared raise its ugly head to slander, belie and disgrace twentieth century civilization."

Are you doing your best?

By this time most intelligent people realize our country faces a frightening situation. We are working long hours and doing our best. Examine your conscience—are you doing all you can to help? We especially need funds at this time to complete important projects.

"The Cat is out of the Bag"

NEW YORK TIMES REVEALS TRUTH ABOUT THE SIX MILLION JEW FRAUD

LEADING SPOKESMAN FOR WORLD JEWRY RELEASES IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The New York Times publishes the proof that there are more persons professing Judaism in the world today than there were in 1938. The Zionists have claimed that the Nazis slaughtered 6 million persons professing Judaism between 1939 and 1945. The figures which the New York Times publishes on this subject are reliable.

The statistics given by the N. Y. Times prove positively that Zionists resorted to this gigantic untruth to gain the world's sympathy and support for their political ambitions and nationalist aspirations in Palestine. It was a well known fact to the Zionists when they were using this vicious propaganda that there was no foundation for their false claims that Nazis had slaughtered 6 million human beings because Judaism happened to be their religious belief.

The American Jewish Committee wants to be recognized as the Vatican of Judaism. They claim to be the authorized spokesmen for world Jewry. Statistics which they have issued in the past have always been regarded as very reliable. Organized in 1908, the American Jewish Committee has acted throughout the world as the guardian of the interests and the welfare of persons professing Judaism. Its active leaders have included Jacob H. Schiff, Paul Warburg, Herbert Lehman, Henry Morgenthau, Sr., and Americans professing Judaism of similar origin.

The authoritative World Almanac for the year 1947, on page 219, states that the world's population of persons professing Judaism, in the year 1939 was 15,688,259. The World Almanac states that this figure was supplied to them by the American Jewish Committee and by the Jewish Statistical Bureau of the Synagogues of America, H. S. Linfield, Director. It is not possible to find the equal of these two sources for unchallengeable statistics on this topic.

In the year 1948 the New York Times stated that the world's population in 1948 of persons professing Judaism amounted to "15 million to 18 million Jews" in addition to the "6 to 7 hundred-thousand in Palestine." The N. Y. Times at that time spared no effort to establish the exact world's population of persons professing Judaism. They are very expert in this field.

These figures can be accepted without hesitancy by even the most skeptical Zionist. The New York Times is owned and operated by two outstanding Americans professing Judaism. They would not permit their paper to publish untrue statistics on that subject for any consideration.

The New York Times in 1948 assigned one of the world's leading authorities on matters relating to populations to prepare an up-to-the-minute article on the situation in Palestine. The statements of this noted authority, the well-known Mr. Hanson W. Baldwin, are accepted everywhere and by everyone without hesitancy on matters connected with statistical facts.

After his investigation and consultations with official sources, Mr. Hanson W. Baldwin, in the New York Times on February 22, 1948 over his own signature, supplied the figures stated above.

The American Jewish Committee and the Statistical Bureau of the Synagogues of America officially confirm the world population of persons professing Judaism in 1938 as 15,688,259 and the New York Times officially states that in the year 1948 that population totaled between 15,600,000 and 18,700,000. Based upon these figures from sources which cannot be challenged the disappearance of 6 million during that period can only be regarded as political propaganda.

It must be very evident that the world's population of persons professing Judaism would today be less than 10 million if the 6 million allegedly murdered by the Nazis were deducted from the 1938 world's population of 15,688,259. The authenticated 1948 world's population of 15,600,000 to 18,700,000 persons professing Judaism completely discredits this propaganda.

The Zionists have used this vicious untruth as propaganda to entice the sympathy and support of the non-Zionist populations of the world for their well-camouflaged and completely misrepresented intentions in Palestine. The Zionists did not underestimate the tremendous force this big untruth would exert upon the sympathetic and the unsuspecting non-Zionist populations everywhere. It won support which won for them.

The Zionists pointed their accusing finger at populations professing Christianity and pleaded for their support the world over for the "remnants of Hitler's wrath," never overlooking to play up the alleged 6 million who were murdered. The Zionists claimed the right to ask for this assistance in creating a sovereign Zionist state in Palestine as a matter of atonement for the alleged slaughter of 6 million of their co-religionists.

FROM THE BOOK—

"THE WORLD CONQUERORS"

—THE REAL WAR CRIMINALS By Louis Marschalko, 1958 . . . pages 148 & 149.

"When General Telford Taylor, the Chief Public Prosecutor at Nuremberg, was asked where he had got this figure of six million, he simply replied the figure was based on the confession of S.S. General Ohlendorf. During the Nuremberg enquiries, Ohlendorf allegedly said this was the number of Jews killed. Later it became known that American Jews had extorted this 'confession' from Ohlendorf under torture. Oswald and Berger, both S.S. group leaders, were similarly tortured. Forged affidavits were also used to support this unprecedentedly high figure of Jewish 'martyrs.' This figure was given by Dr. Wilhelm Hoettl, a rather strange person in the service of the American C.I.C., the author of several books written under the pen name of Walter Hagen. He appeared in Nuremberg as a witness for the American prosecution. We learn from DER WEG (3rd number, 1954, p. 203) that his evidence was the only 'proof' regarding the supposition of the murder of six million Jews. He was also engaged by the Soviet for espionage working with two Jewish emigrants from Vienna, Ferger and Verber, as U.S. officers during the preliminary inquiries of the Nuremberg trials."

NOTE: This mysterious Wilhelm Hoettl and Walter Huppenkothen were the only ex-Nazis allowed to come to Israel and testify, and these for the prosecution! The only source we have been able to locate for the figure of "six million" are these two mysterious persons and Gen. Telford Taylor who has a long red record. Sen. McCarthy reported receiving a list of 125 reds who were employed on Taylor's staff. Lately Taylor has represented Harry Bridges and other communists in court.

Now the Jewish organizations are pushing Telford Taylor to head the Central Intelligence Agency.

"I WAS IN DACHAU"

(From "WHAT OUR READERS THINK," in OUR SUNDAY VISITOR, 6-14-59)

I was in Dachau for 17 months after the war, as a U.S. War Department Attorney, and can state that there was no gas chamber at Dachau. What was shown to visitors and sightseers there and erroneously described as a gas chamber, was a crematory. Nor was there a gas chamber in any of the other concentration camps in Germany. We were told that there was a gas chamber at Auschwitz, but since that was in the Russian zone of occupation, we were not permitted to investigate, since the Russians would not permit it.

The old propaganda myth that millions of Jews were killed by the national socialists was also referred to. From what I was able to determine during six postwar years in Germany and Austria, there were a number of Jews killed, but the figure of a million was certainly never reached. I interviewed thousands of Jews, former inmates of concentration camps in Germany and Austria, and consider myself as well qualified as any man on this subject.

WE CAN'T BELIEVE IT

Republished from—

Tampa Morning Tribune, Jan. 26, 1946.

An amazing revelation comes with the disclosure of a poll of 1700 American soldiers in Germany, taken last Fall, but just released.

It is hard to believe the figures of the vote; harder to understand just what influenced these men at the front in forming the opinion they expressed.

The report of the poll shows that 19 percent of these soldiers believed Germans had some justification for starting the war; 51 percent said they believed Hitler did Germany a lot of good before 1939; 22 percent said they believed Hitler had good reasons for persecuting Jews; 28 percent said they agreed with some of the German explanations why Germany went to war; 29 percent said they had grown more favorable toward the Germans since they had been in that country.

NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, 5-7-61

The British historian, Arnold J. Toynbee, said (at the 17th annual conference of the American Council for Judaism):

"Dr. Toynbee described Zionism and anti-Semitism as 'expressions of an identical point of view'—that it is 'impossible for Jews and non-Jews to grow together into a single community, and that therefore, a physical separation is the only practical way out.'"

Editors note: Which reminds us of the Rabbis on the Freedom Riders busses touring the south trying to mix two other races.

"The Jewel Box of the World"

The following is an interesting quote from "the Message to Israel" Nov. Dec. 1957.

"The land of Israel is the center of the land surface of the earth. It is located on the eastern border of the Mediterranean. 'Mediterranean' means middle of the earth. Israel is so located that travellers going from one continent to another must pass through her territory. The land has therefore been referred to as 'the bridge between the nations.' Israel has a decided advantage over other nations and think of what an advantage this will be when Jerusalem is the capital of the world! The land of Israel is also the center of all population. It is also the political center of the world for the laws and forms of government coming out of this land have furnished the pattern for most all other nations. For years we have heard and read about the treasures to be found in the mineral wealth of the Dead Sea. The Dead Sea will be a perpetual source of wealth to the nation that controls it and contains sufficient wealth for the land to be called 'The Jewel Box of the World.'"

(From their own publication—1948).

"The majority of German Jews succeeded in leaving Germany before the war broke out and a substantial number settled in Latin America countries. These sections of our people organized themselves with skill and discipline and built up new economic positions . . ."

MUSMANNO'S TESTIMONY

Republished from—

Pittsburg Post Gazette
Pittsburg Post-Gazette, May 17, 1961

Judge Michael A. Musmanno, that romantic poet of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court who has been away from his duties recently waiting to be a witness at the Eichmann trial in Israel, has now testified.

After reading the judge's testimony about his interview with Goering, about his talk with Ribbentrop, we were sufficiently intrigued with this new evidence to turn to the Judge's book, "Ten Days to Die," written in 1950. In that volume he reviewed the last days of Adolf Hitler, discussed the history of the Nazi regime with all its horrors, and described his talks with various members of the Hitler regime at Nuremberg during the trials in 1946.

This review of the Judge's past writings leaves us a bit perplexed. In his testimony, Monday, he said that Goering told him that Eichmann was the key man in the Jewish persecution. Yet in the book he wrote only a few years after the Nuremberg trials, he never mentioned Adolf Eichmann. A number of pages are devoted to the persecution of people of the Jewish faith, but the book's chief devil is Heinrich Himmler. No Eichmann. It seems to us that the Judge would have had a tremendous scoop if he had related then the baleful influence of Adolf Eichmann, a man who had escaped and was still at large.

There are other perplexing matters. The book refers to many interviews with Nazi officials and German military leaders, but there is no reference to an interview with Goering, just an exchange of remarks in a recess during Goering's trial. There is also no reference to an interview with Ribbentrop.

Presumably Judge Musmanno under oath is able to remember things that did not seem to him important at the time he was writing a book on Hitler and the Nazi regime. Which brings us to another curious matter. Dedicated as he is to American jurisprudence, the Judge must know that not a single matter he stated in the court in Israel would be admissible as evidence in a court in this country. It would all be classified as hearsay and thrown out. After all, there are no corroborative documents. Nor is there any rebuttal from the grave.

Why do Jews need a Gestapo?

(Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith)

Other races do not. Haven't they for centuries brought condemnation on themselves all over the world? Can't or won't they change, instead of fighting the Truths? Don't their Anti-Christian activities create Hitlers? In Germany they were about 2% of the population, but controlled about 90% of the economy. In the United States aren't they about 5% also and don't they control or influence almost all of the economy — Radio, TV, finances, entertainment, liquor, garments, magazines, newspapers, furniture, department stores, gambling, etc.? When American citizens awaken, what then?

Gentlemen:

Recently a friend gave me for my perusal and opinion several editions of a publication entitled "Common Sense" with a headline "Communism is Treason." Also a headline about the so-called "Harvard-Zionist - (& something else) Plot." The publisher is "Christian Educational Assn." 530 Chestnut St., Union, N. J. The editor is listed as Conde McGinley. In asking for subscription it states the publication is mailed in "plain" envelope.

Two editions are given to the listing of all President Kennedy! government appointees. A number of them are called "known Communists" and practically all the others, either outright or by inference, connected with communist or communist front or organizations. If one were to believe what is there printed he could certainly have no confidence in the purpose of the statesmen in our country. However, it is so blatant as to test one's credulity and my husband & I came to the conclusion that, instead of being anti-communist, the purpose of this publication is to undermine the confidence of Americans on their government.

I would appreciate hearing from you on this subject.

Yours truly,

COMMON SENSE

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Enclosed is some literature which was shown to me today by a relative. I would appreciate it very much if you could clear up a few questions which are in my mind.

According to this paper put out by the Christian Educational Association the Jews are as much our enemies as the Communists are. In fact, this piece of literature implies that the Jews and Communists are actually in cahoots with each other. Now, in your book, Masters of Deceit you say that the two are enemies and that the Communists are trying to eliminate not only the Jews, but, eventually, all religious groups.

This paper makes some mighty serious accusations, both against Jews and non-Jews, for instance Presidents Eisenhower and Wilson. It also appears to defame the United Nations.

I am uncertain as to when this literature was first printed. It appears that it was sometime in the middle or late 1950's. However I am concerned as to the organization which circulated it and as to whether or not it is documented.

In Masters of Deceit you have a chapter on Communist front organizations. Is it possible that the Christian Educational Association is such an organization? Do the Communists feel that there is some way that they can further their cause by defaming themselves as well as other organizations? In reading this paper you will find that the Jews and Communists are linked and that it appears that the Christian Educational Association advocates the elimination of both. Or is this literature to be taken seriously and should we consider the Jews to be our enemies in the same light that we consider the Communists to be our enemies?

I am a Christian and a Baptist minister and am concerned about this. I am concerned that the Communists would use the name of a Christian organization as one of their fronts, if this is what they are doing. This organization denounces the U. N. and in its proposed solution to the problem appears to denounce much of what we Americans believe in, freedom of religion and freedom of speech.

I would appreciate it very much if you would set me straight on this.

DAN SMOOT

Vol. 7, No. 24 (Broadcast 306) June 12, 1961 Dallas, Texas

INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT—PART I

On May 30, 1961, President Kennedy departed for Europe and a summit meeting with Khrushchev. For one full week, intelligent Americans cringed with embarrassment at the semi-literate juvenility of the American press reporting the expensive circus. The Dallas Morning News likened Kennedy to the 'new neighborhood kid' going, 'with his dukes up' to meet the old neighborhood bully, Khrushchev. James Reston of The New York Times told about how President Kennedy, at Vienna,

"... greeted Khrushchev warmly . . . running down the steps of the United States Embassy residence to meet him."

Virtually all American newspapers featured innumerable pictures of "Jackie" Kennedy nuzzled by horses and ogled by Khrushchev, while, generally, "enchanted," "captivating," "flooring," "bowling over," and otherwise making profound impressions upon the total population of western Europe.

America has been thoroughly disgraced in the eyes of the world in recent years—a worldwide series of anti-American demonstrations in 1958, which included the murdering of American citizens in Iraq and hoodlums spitting on our Vice President in South America; violent Japanese demonstrations against our President in 1960; and in 1961, because of the shameful Cuban fiasco, officials of Latin American governments publicly calling us "North American idiots." So, many Americans were probably soothed to read about our young President and his beautiful wife being lionized in Europe. They want their President to be a hero; and the grand tour helped them forget Cuba; helped them forget that Kennedy as a candidate, had criticized the kind of grandstand diplomacy he was now conducting.

All Americans who know anything about the general history of the monstrous tyranny which is the Soviet regime, and who know even a little about the specific history of Khrushchev whose most justly deserved title is 'butcher of the Ukraine,' were sick at heart that another President of the United States was paying homage to the Kremlin gangsters and building up their prestige in the eyes of the world.

Many Americans were worried about the concessions that our inexperienced and naive President would make to the callous overlord of the communist world — remembering, as they must, that Presidents Roosevelt, Truman, and Eisenhower never met Soviet leaders without conceding something tragically detrimental to the interests of America.

There was much reason for Americans to be ashamed that an American President was once again going abroad with warm greetings, and jokes, for people who should be barred from all decent human society; but, basically, there was much more reason to worry about government policy makers who were not making headlines.

While the grand tour of Jack and Jackie, providing froth and frivolity and a handsome jutting of chins, captured the world's attention, the real government of the United States — the invisible government — had just met quietly in the Soviet Union to decide, without fanfare, what American governmental policy will be in the months and years ahead.

On May 12, 1961, Dr. Philip E. Mosely, Director of Studies of the Council on Foreign Relations, announced that,

"prominent Soviet and American citizens will hold a week-long unofficial conference on Soviet-American relations in the Soviet Union, beginning May 22."

Dr. Mosely, a co-chairman of the American group, said that the State Department had approved the meeting but that the Americans involved would go as "private citizens" and would express their own views.

The New York Times' news story on Dr. Mosely's announcement (May 13, 1961) said:

"The importance attached by the Soviet Union to the meeting appears to be suggested by the fact that the Soviet group will include three members of the communist party's Central Committee . . . and one candidate member of that body.

"The meeting, to be held in the town of Nizhnyaya Oreanda, in the Crimea, will follow the pattern of a similar unofficial meeting, in which many of the same persons participated, at Dartmouth College last fall. The meetings will take place in private and there are no plans to issue an agreed statement on the subjects discussed. . . .

"The topics to be discussed include disarmament and the guaranteeing of international peace, the role of the United Nations in strengthening international security, the role of advanced nations in aiding under-developed countries, and the prospects for peaceful and improving Soviet-United States relations.

"The Dartmouth conference last fall and the scheduled Crimean conference originated from a suggestion made by Norman Cousins, editor of The Saturday Review and co-chairman of the American group going to the Crimea, when he visited the Soviet Union a year and a half ago. . . .

"Mr. Cousins and Dr. Mosely formed a small American group early last year to organize the conferences. It received financial support from the Ford Foundation for the Dartmouth conference and for travel costs to the Crimean meeting. This group selected the American representatives for the two meetings.

"Among those who participated in the Dartmouth conference were several who have since taken high posts in the Kennedy Administration, including Dr. Walt W. Rostow, now an assistant to President Kennedy, and George F. Kennan, now United States Ambassador to Yugoslavia"

The head of the Soviet delegation to the Council on Foreign Relations meeting in the Soviet Union, May 22, 1961, was Alekesander Y. Korneichuk, a close personal friend of Khrushchev. The American citizens scheduled to attend included, besides Dr. Mosely and Mr. Cousins:

Marian Anderson, the singer; Dean Erwin N. Griswold, of the Harvard Law School; Dr. Arthur Larson (former assistant to, and ghost writer for, President Eisenhower, often called "Mr. Modern Republican," because the political philosophy which he espoused was precisely the philosophy adopted by Eisenhower) now Director of the World Rule of Law Center at Duke University, where his full-time preoccupation is propagandizing for repeal of the Connally Reservation so that the World Court can take jurisdiction over American affairs; Gabriel Hauge, former economic adviser to President Eisenhower and now an executive of the Manufacturers Trust Company; Dr. Margaret Mead, a widely known anthropologist whose name (like that of Norman Cousins) has been associated with communist front activities in the United States; Dr. A. William Loos, Director of the Church Peace Union; Stuart Chase, American author notable for his pro-socialist, anti-anti-communist attitudes; William Benton, former U. S. Senator, also well-known as a pro-socialist, anti-anti-communist, now chairman of the Board of Encyclopedia Britannica; Dr. George Fisher, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Professor Paul M. Doty, Jr., of Harvard's Chemistry Department; Professor Lloyd Reynolds, Yale University economist; Professor Louis B. Sohn of the Harvard Law School; Dr. Joseph E. Johnson, an old friend and former associate of Alger Hiss in the State Department, who succeeded Hiss as President of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, and still holds that position; Professor Robert R. Bowie, former head of the State Department's Policy Planning Staff (a job which Hiss also held at one time), now Director of the Center for International Affairs at Harvard.

These individuals, operating at the largess of tax-exempt foundations and with official sanction of the State Department, but without official responsibility, meet with Khrushchev's friends and henchmen in the Soviet Union and make secret agreements concerning policies of the United States government. More than that — because of their influence in American opinion-forming institutions — propaganda in support of their decisions will be filtered into the thinking of the American people and of American congressmen and senators.

To get an inkling of how complete and far-reaching the influence of this crowd is, notice that William Benton now controls Encyclopedia Britannica, a standard set of reference books in homes, schools, colleges, and libraries throughout America. Britannica earned this respect many years ago when it was reliable and factual. Taken over by internationalist left-wingers in recent years, Britannica subtly changes with each new edition. It is a revealing experience to compare articles in Britannica of forty years ago and in Britannica's most recent edition, on such topics as "democracy," "socialism," "communism," and so on.

In short, the ruling members of the Council on Foreign Relations constitute the invisible government of the United States: they are the people who actually set the major policies of the government.

Every American Secretary of State since Cordell Hull (except James Byrnes) has been a member of the Council on Foreign Relations. Practically all of the key "advisers" to President Roosevelt, during his last two administrations, to Presidents Truman and Eisenhower throughout their terms of office, and now to President Kennedy were, or are, members of the Council. Practically every policy-forming job in the State Department (and many in the Treasury, Commerce, Labor, Defense and Justice Departments) has for years been held by a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

The Council directly, or through other organizations with which it has interlocking directorates and membership and contributors, has actually selected most of the cabinet officers of the United States Government during the past quarter of a century.

History of the Council

a part of it, at the close of World War I.

Having been reelected President in 1916 on his promise to keep America out of the European War, Wilson succumbed to the pressure of his chief adviser, Colonel Edward M. House, and plunged America into that war. House first persuaded Wilson that the way to end wars was to create a world federation of nations. Wilson publicly endorsed the idea of world government in a speech which he made on May 27, 1916, to the League to Enforce Peace.

On April 6, 1917, the United States declared war on Germany. In September of that year, Wilson (at the urging of Colonel House) appointed a committee of intellectuals (the first President's Brain Trust) to formulate peace terms and draw up a charter for world government. This committee, with House in charge, consisted of about 150 college professors, graduate students, lawyers, economists, writers, and so on. Among them were men whose names are still familiar to Americans in the 1960's; Walter Lippmann (columnist); Norman Thomas (head of the American socialist party); Allen Dulles (now head of C.I.A.); John Foster Dulles (late Secretary of State); Christian A. Herter (former Secretary of State).

These eager young intellectuals around Wilson, under the clear eyes of crafty Colonel House, drew up their charter for world government (League of Nations Covenant) and prepared for the brave new socialist one-world to follow World War I. But things went sour at the Paris Peace Conference. They soured even more when patriots in the United States Senate found out what was being planned and made quite plain that the Senate would not authorize United States membership in the world federation thing.

Bitter with disappointment but not willing to give up, Colonel House called together in Paris, France, a group of his most dedicated young intellectuals—among them John Foster and Allen Dulles, Christian A. Herter, and Tasker H. Bliss, and arranged a dinner meeting with them and with a group of like-minded Englishmen at the Majestic Hotel, Paris, on May 19, 1919. The group formally agreed to form an organization "for the study of international affairs."

The American group came home from Paris and formed The Council on Foreign Relations, which was incorporated in 1921.

The Council did not amount to a great deal until 1927, when the Rockefeller family (through the various Rockefeller Foundations and Funds) began to pour money into it. Before long the Carnegie Foundations (and later Ford) began to finance the Council.

In 1929, the Council (largely with Rockefeller gifts) acquired its present headquarters property: The Harold Pratt House, 58 East 86th Street, New York City.

In 1939, the Council began taking over the American State Department.

Shortly after the start of World War II, in September, 1939, Hamilton Fish Armstrong and Walter H. Mallory of the Council on Foreign Relations visited the State Department to offer the services of the Council. It was agreed that the Council would undertake work in certain fields without any formal assignment of responsibility. The Council formed four general groups—Security and Armaments Problems, Economic and Financial Problems, Political Problems, and Territorial Problems.

The Rockefeller Foundation agreed to finance, through grants, the operation of this plan.

In February, 1941, the Council on Foreign Relations' relationship with the State Department changed. The State Department created the Division of Special Research, which was divided into Economic, Security, Political, and Territorial sections. Leo Pasvolosky, of the Council, was appointed Director of this Division. Within a very short time, members of the Council on Foreign Relations dominated this new Division in the State Department.

During 1942, the State Department set up the Advisory Committee on Postwar Foreign Policy.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull was chairman. The following members of the Council on Foreign Relations were on this Committee: Under Secretary of State Sumner Wells (Vice-Chairman), Dr. Leo Pasvolsky (Executive Officer); Hamilton Fish Armstrong, Isaiah Bowman, Benjamin V. Cohen, Norman H. Davis, and James T. Shotwell.

Other members of the Council also found positions in the State Department: Philip E. Mosely, Walter R. Sharp, and Grayson Kirk, among others.

The crowning moment of achievement for the Council came in 1945, when over 40 members of the United States Delegation to the organizational meeting of the United Nations (where the United Nations Charter was written) were members of the Council. Among them: Alger Hiss, Secretary of State Edward R. Stettinius, Leo Pasvolsky, John Foster Dulles, John J. McCloy, Julius C. Holmes, Nelson A. Rockefeller, Adlai Stevenson, Joseph E. Johnson, Ralph J. Bunche, Clark M. Eichelberger, and Thomas K. Finletter.

By 1948-1949, the membership list of the Council on Foreign Relations looked like a directory of the political, intellectual, financial, and military leaders of America: Dean Acheson, Gerald F. Beal, Elliott V. Bell, William Benton, Adolf A. Berle, Percival F. Brundage, McGeorge Bundy, Ellsworth Bunker, Lauchlin Currie, Arthur H. Dean, William Diebold, Jr., C. Douglas Dillon, Lewis W. Douglas, William H. Draper, Jr., Dwight D. Eisenhower, Artemus L. Gates, Michael A. Heilperin, Eric Johnston, Arthur Bliss Lane, Paul V. McNutt, Robert P. Patterson, James B. Reston, Nelson Rockefeller, David Rockefeller, John D. Rockefeller, III, Elmo Roper, David Sarnoff, Hans Christian Sonne, Arthur Hays Sulzberger, George W. Ball, Robert Woods Bliss, David K. E. Bruce, Marquis Childs, Will L. Clayton, Ralph E. Flanders, Marion B. Folsom, John Kenneth Galbraith, Christian A. Herter, Paul G. Hoffman, Herbert Hoover, George F. Kennan, James M. Landis, Owen Lattimore, General Lyman L. Lemnitzer, David E. Lilienthal, Paul H. Nitze, J. Robert Oppenheimer, Milo Perkins, Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr., H. Alexander Smith, General Carl Spaatz, Robert G. Sproul, General Maxwell D. Taylor, Edward Weeks, Norman Cousins.

By 1960, the names of the following U.S. Senators could be found on the membership lists of the Council on Foreign Relations: Clifford P. Case, Hubert Humphrey, W. Stuart Symington.

Some of the officials of the Council on Foreign Relations are: John J. McCloy, Chairman of the Board; Henry M. Wriston, President; Frank Altschul, Vice-President and Secretary; David Rockefeller, Vice-President; Elliott V. Bell, Treasurer.

Allen W. Dulles was a member of the Board of Directors from 1927 to 1960 when he retired. Among the present Board of Directors are: John J. McCloy (since 1953), David Rockefeller (1949-), Adlai Stevenson (1958-), Henry M. Wriston (1943-), Thomas K. Finletter (1944-), Lewis W. Douglas (1940-), Arthur H. Dean (1955-).

In this Report last week ("We Have Been Wristonized"), we indicated the controlling influence which the Council on Foreign Relations has had on the American State Department: we quoted Senator Prescott Bush's boast that Henry Wriston (president of the Council) had "wristonized" the Department.

Senator Bush was not exaggerating. He could have said that the United States government has been 'wristonized.' Here, for example, are some of the members of the Council on Foreign Relations who presently hold positions in the United States Government: John F. Kennedy, President; Dean Rusk, Secretary of State; Douglas Dillon, Secretary of the Treasury; Adlai Stevenson, United Nations Ambassador; Allen W. Dulles, Director of the Central Intelligence Agency; Chester Bowles, Under Secretary of State; W. Averell Harriman, Ambassador at large; John J. McCloy, Disarmament Administrator; General Lyman L. Lemnitzer, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; John Kenneth Galbraith, Ambassador to India; Edward R. Murrow, Head of United States Information Agency; G. Frederick Reinhardt, Ambassador to Italy; David K. E. Bruce, Ambassador to United Kingdom; Livingston T. Merchant, Ambassador to Canada; Lt. General James M. Gavin, Ambassador to France; George F. Kennan, Ambassador to Yugoslavia; Julius C. Holmes, Ambassador to Iran; Arthur H. Dean, head of the United States Delegation to Geneva Disarmament Conference; Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr., Special White House Assistant; Edwin O. Reischauer, Ambassador to Japan; Thomas K. Finletter, Ambassador to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and Organization for Economic Co-Operation and Development; George C. McGhee, Assistant Secretary of State for Policy Planning; Henry R. Labouisse, Director of International Cooperation Administration; George W. Ball, Under Secretary of State for Economic Affairs; McGeorge Bundy, Special Assistant for National Security; Paul H. Nitze, Assistant Secretary of Defense; Adolf A. Berle, Chairman, InterDepartmental Committee on Latin America; Charles E. Bohlen, Assistant Secretary of State.

The names listed do not, by any means, constitute a complete roster of all Council members who are in the Congress or hold important jobs in the Administration. The Council does not publicize organizational and membership information about itself. The information in this Report was gleaned from the Council's own annual reports (which are rather difficult to come by and the most recent of which in our files is for the 1958-1959 fiscal year), and from various newspaper stories which identified prominent people as members of the Council on Foreign Relations.

An idea of the over-all accomplishment of the Council can be found in its Annual Report for 1958-1959. Beginning on page 5 of that Report is a speech by Walter H. Mallory, who was retiring after 32 years as Executive Director of the Council. Speaking to the Board of Directors of the Council at a small dinner in his honor on May 21, 1959, Mr. Mallory said:

"When I cast my mind back to 1927, the year that I first joined the Council, it seems little short of a miracle that that organization could have taken root in those days. You will remember that the United States had decided not to join the League of Nations . . . On the domestic front, the budget was extremely small, taxes were light . . . and we didn't even recognize the Russians. What could there possibly be for a Council on Foreign Relations to do?

"Well, there were a few men who did not feel content with that comfortable isolationist climate. They thought the United States had an important role to play in the world and they resolved to try to find out what that role ought to be. Some of those men are present this evening."

Council Operations

The Council is actually a small organization — its membership restricted to 700 resident members (American citizens whose residences or places of business are within 50 miles of City Hall in New York City); and 700 non-resident members (American citizens who reside or do business outside that 50-mile radius) — but practically every one of the members occupies an important position in government, in education, in the press, in the broadcasting industry, in business, in finance, or in some multi-million-dollar tax-exempt foundation.

The Council's principal publication is a quarterly magazine, Foreign Affairs, with a circulation of less than 30,000; but it is probably the most influential publication in the world. Key figures in government — from the Secretary of State downward — write articles and announce new governmental policies in Foreign Affairs.

The Council's financial statement for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1959, recorded a total income of $850,600: $123,600 of this came from membership dues; $306,400, from Foundation Grants (Rockefeller, Carnegie, and Ford); $134,400 from Foreign Affairs subscriptions and sales; $83,600 from "Corporation Service."

"Corporation Service" means money contributions which American business firms make to the Council on Foreign Relations — and what the Council does for these business firms. Here are the firms listed as contributors to the Council during the 1958-1959 fiscal years:

Aluminum Limited, Inc.
American Metal Climax, Inc.
Arabian American Oil Company
Asiatic Petroleum Corporation
Bankers Trust Company
Belgian Securities Corporation

According to the Council's Report, the 'Corporation Service' provided the Council with "a convenient channel for business support of important foreign policy research." The $83,600 was "solicited industry by industry" with efforts directed "toward leading banks, oil companies, and firms which supply the oil companies."

In return for the $83,600 (which the Council announced as 'gratifying results') the contributing corporations sent their 'Young Business Executives' to Council conducted seminars to hear "serious discussions of foreign policy issues."

In the fall of 1958, the theme of the seminar was "The Conflict of Soviet-American Interests: An appraisal of Selected International Problems." A. Doak Barnett (whom the Council advertised as a 'leading authority on Communist China') opened the Seminar with an analysis of Sino-Soviet policy in East Asia.

Mr. John C. Campbell (The Council's Director of Political Studies) discussed the "situation" in Eastern Europe and its important implications for United States policy. At the third meeting of the seminar, Mr. Edward A. Bayne (of the American Universities Field Staff) "examined" the conflict of Soviet American interests in the Middle East.

At the fourth meeting, Mr. James A. Perkins (Vice President of the Carnegie Corporation of New York) discussed "the probable range of diplomatic consequences stemming from the incorporation into the American and Soviet armories of new weapons systems, and their effects on some of the most important strategic interests of the United States."

At the final session, Mr. Paul H. Nitze (formerly of the State Department's Policy Planning Staff, and later president of the Foreign Service Educational Foundation) spoke on "possibilities of fruitful negotiations between the United States and the Sino-Soviet bloc in the foreseeable future."

The Council's appointed Chairman of the seminar for 'young business executives' was Mr. Shepard Stone, Director of the International Affairs Program of the Ford Foundation'

It should be evident that sixty-two leading corporations paid over $83,000 for the privilege of having their young executives attend a series of lectures designed to brainwash them into approving internationalism and Soviet-American co-existence as 'good business.'

Another seminar, held in the Spring of 1959, was devoted to "The Changing Climate of American Private Investments Abroad." The International Finance Corporation's interest in promoting private investment abroad; the Federal Government's role in providing incentive to private investment abroad; and the problem of relating private enterprise to the government's foreign economic aid program were subjects discussed.

The Council's 1958-1959 'Corporation Service' was by no means confined exclusively to the enlightenment and brain-washing of young business executive. The coup d'etat was saved for Chairmen of the Board and Presidents of the participating companies, who were honored, by the Council, with a dinner on May 4, 1959. Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, spoke to the distinguished group confidentially and "off the record" on some of the most critical problems of United States Foreign Policy.

Next Week

One cannot fully comprehend the vast influence of the Council on Foreign Relations without some understanding of the interlocking connection which the Council has with many other tax-exempt organizations also dedicated to the ideal of pushing America into a one-world socialist system.

Next week, we shall discuss, among other things, some of these connections—with such outfits as the Foreign Policy Association, the Business Advisory Council, and—indirectly—the National Council of Churches.

WHO IS DAN SMOOT?

Dan Smoot was born in Missouri. Reared in Texas, he attended SMU in Dallas, taking BA and MA degrees from that university in 1938 and 1940.

In 1941, he joined the faculty at Harvard as a Teaching Fellow in English, doing graduate work for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in the field of American Civilization.

In 1942, he took leave of absence from Harvard in order to join the FBI. At the close of the war, he stayed in the FBI, rather than return to Harvard.

He served as an FBI Agent in all parts of the nation, handling all kinds of assignments. But for three and a half years, he worked exclusively on communist investigations in the industrial midwest. For two years following that, he was on FBI headquarters staff in Washington, as an Administrative Assistant to J. Edgar Hoover.

After nine and a half years in the FBI, Smoot resigned to help start the Facts Forum movement in Dallas. As the radio and television commentator for Facts Forum, Smoot, for almost four years spoke to a national audience giving both sides of great controversial issues.

In July, 1955, he resigned and started his own independent program, in order to give only one side—the side that uses fundamental American principles as a yardstick for measuring all important issues.

If you believe that Dan Smoot is providing effective tools for those who want to think and talk and write on the side of freedom, you can help immensely by subscribing, and encouraging others to subscribe, to The Dan Smoot Report.

OPEN LETTER No. 12 TO THE CONSTITUENCY OF THE UNITED STATES SENATORS

Dear Friends:—

The last of our series of OPEN LETTERS are directed to YOU. Your Senators have taken their stand and some have answered you. It is well that you take it from here. The few replies received by people all over the country from the Senators follow the same pattern. They are NOT impressed with the letters. They fail to see how the writers reached such conclusions. Some of the letters refer to our writing as "attack" against the honesty, integrity or intent of our "leaders". The use of the word "attack", as you probably know, has been the best defensive propaganda weapon of those who have learned the technique of defense because they so often need it. The trained propagandist will nobly defend the right to criticize (by telling the truth) and, at the same time, deny the right to "attack" (by telling the same truth). We must read carefully every word written by anybody on these subjects which admittedly are a peril to our freedom and the survival of our nation. Double talk and word twisting are more dangerous than "enemy" submarines.

We cannot too strongly stress what we said in our OPEN LETTER NO. 6—"IT IS NOT A QUESTION WHETHER YOU BELIEVE IT OR NOT,—THE QUESTION IS—IS IT TRUE". That is the issue. We do not know of a single Senator who denied the truth of anything we said. Some have asked—"who are these people—the Council on American Relations"? We ask—what has that to do with it? If we were a group of thieves, drunks or all lunatics, these facts would not relieve the Senators of their responsibility to ascertain the facts as requested by thousands of constituents. Nor would such limitation of the responsibility of the writers alter in the least, the TRUTH or FALSITY of the plainly stated charges. These statements ARE TRUE OR THEY ARE FALSE—AND THAT IS ALL THERE IS TO IT. We know of NO PERSON who will deny that the American Republic is in trouble. We submit that somebody is responsible. We contend, of course, that our troubles began in 1913 when a handful of men in Congress turned over to a group of New York Bankers the power over the money and credit. We say that the Constitution (the people) gave that power to CONGRESS and to CONGRESS ALONE—IT WAS NOT THEIR PREROGATIVE TO SURRENDER IT TO ANYBODY. It was the first fateful step which has led to our present terrifying position. The Congress—through a constant succession of "grants" of their power—THEIR SWORN DUTY—has reduced ITSELF to the position of TAX ASSESSOR. NOTHING MORE.

All the Senatorial replies we have learned of follow the same pattern, also, in a real resentment of our lumping our great political leaders with well known THIEVES and TRAITORS. Not the THIEVES so much as the TRAITORS. So let us recapitulate. There is a COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS. It is listed in the New York telephone directory. The headquarters at East 68th Street (corner of Park Avenue) are next door to the headquarters of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations. It was organized following the failure of the League of Nations and by its members who played a prominent part in the League of Nations plan. It was financed by a "grant" from the Laura Spellman Rockefeller Foundation, originally, and supported to a great extent, over the years, by numerous and substantial "grants" from ROCKEFELLER, CARNEGIE and FORD FOUNDATIONS. The headquarters were donated to them by the widow of HAROLD PRATT, partner of old

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER in the STANDARD OIL BUSINESS—and MR. PRATT WAS THE GRAND-FATHER OF CHRISTIAN HERTER'S WIFE.

According to their own publications—in our possession—their number was NEVER LARGE—not more than 1,200 men at any one time—and yet from that SMALL GROUP—no larger than the P.T.A. in a small community—has come ALMOST THE ENTIRE OPERATIONAL ARM OF OUR GOVERNMENT FOR MANY YEARS. WE HAVE NAMED THESE PEOPLE. WILL ANY MEMBER OF THE UNITED STATES SENATE DENY THAT THEY ARE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS MEMBERS—OR THAT THEY HAVE DETERMINED THE POLICIES OF OUR GOVERNMENT DURING THE PAST FORTY-SEVEN YEARS, WITH ONLY A SHORT LET-UP DURING THE TERMS OF CALVIN COOLIDGE? We would suggest that YOU write the SENATORS asking if they would DENY that these men were members of THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS or that they, and their subordinates, played important and decisive parts in forming and putting into effect, the policies of OUR GOVERNMENT:—

Bernard Baruch	Dean Rusk
Edward M. House	Henry A. Wallace
Henry L. Stimson	John Stewart Service
Allen W. Dulles	William G. McAdoo
John Foster Dulles	Ogden Mills
Robert B. Anderson	Adolph A. Berle
Senator Wm. Fulbright	Beardsley Ruml
Charles E. Bohlen	Owen L. Roberts
John J. McCloy	Edward Stettinius
David K. E. Bruce	Henry Morgenthau
Chester Bowles	Philip Jessup
Herbert Hoover	Dwight D. Eisenhower
John Carter Vincent	Dean Acheson
Averill Harriman	Douglas Dillon
Robert Lansing	Lewis L. Strauss
Harold Stassen	Myron G. Taylor
Maxwell Taylor	Lauchlin Currie
Herbert H. Lehman	Lyman Lemnitzer
Paul Warburg	Nelson Rockefeller
Harry Dexter White	Philip Jaffe
Alger Hiss	Sumner Welles
Leo Pasvolksky	Robert A. Lovett
Nelson Aldrich	Sinclair Weeks
Felix Frankfurter	Laurence Duggan
Charles E. Wilson	Charles Evans Hughes
Eugene Black	George A. Wickersham
George C. Marshall

Now here is what we charge is a choice sample of THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS product. We ASK THE SENATORS—

QUESTION NO. 1 — ARE THESE NEW MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS—OR ARE THEY NOT? IT IS NOT FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE—collectively or individually to say "I—OR WE DO NOT KNOW". IF THEY HAVE ANY SENSE OF DUTY TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AND THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT—IT IS UP TO THEM TO FIND OUT!

QUESTION NO. 2 — DID THESE PEOPLE DECISIVELY INFLUENCE THE POLICIES OF OUR GOVERNMENT? IF THEY DID NOT—THEN WHO DID?

QUESTION NO. 3 — DO THE SENATORS FIND ANYTHING STRANGE OR UNUSUAL ABOUT SUCH PEOPLE AS THESE—NO MATTER HOW YOU DESCRIBE THEM—ASSOCIATING THEMSELVES TO-

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED

GETHER IN A SMALL AND HIGHLY SELECTIVE ORGANIZATION?

QUESTION NO. 4 — HOW DID SO MANY PEOPLE FROM ONE ORGANIZATION GET INTO SUCH HIGH POSITIONS IN THE GOVERNMENT?

QUESTION NO. 5 — DO THE SENATORS EXPECT US TO BELIEVE THIS WAS JUST COINCIDENCE?

QUESTION NO. 6 — DO THE SENATORS HONESTLY BELIEVE THESE WERE THE BEST MEN OBTAINABLE FOR THESE JOBS?

QUESTION NO. 7 — WHY NOT SEND A CLERK TO THE NEAREST PUBLIC LIBRARY TO CHECK OUT IN WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA, ALL OR ANY ONE OF THOSE LISTED IN OUR LETTERS TO SEE WHETHER OR NOT THEY BELONG TO THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS? OR BETTER STILL, — CALL THEM BY PHONE AND ASK THEM?

If our Senators would answer these questions in simple, understandable English,—frankly and unequivocally,—we might find A WAY TO WORK OUT OUR PROBLEMS TOGETHER. The Senators have been informed and the Senators owe the people a frank and complete statement of their position. If they deny all or any of the charges, let them say so. If they are not concerned about whether these charges are TRUE or NOT, LET THEM SAY SO — PLAINLY. If they know the charges to be true—or if they believe they are—or may be true—let them so state.

We are not so stupid,—nor so intolerant of human feelings that we would condemn a man because he was "taken in", as even the smartest of his constituents have been "taken in". We would not condemn a man who ran for the highest (truly elective) office in our government, only to learn that he was completely incompetent to handle the job to which he was elected. We KNOW the people themselves must share responsibility—not blame, for there is none—for the tragic conditions existing in a government almost completely taken over "whilst we slept". The people have for a long time realized that government had spread too far—beyond control of Congress and the people. They have just recently gotten 'round to worrying about it. And, finally, we hold this fact to be self-evident—THE CONGRESS MUST "COME CLEAN" WITH THE PEOPLE—THEY MUST TAKE US INTO THEIR CONFIDENCE. Otherwise a great nation will perish.

Horrible mistakes have been made because THE CONGRESS AND THE PEOPLE WERE IGNORANT. LET US ALL ADMIT IT — AND GET DOWN TO A COMMON SENSE APPROACH TO OUR NATIONAL SECURITY. WE HAVE ALL WE CAN DO NOW, TO TAKE CARE OF OURSELVES. And we can only do that by drawing our government back within our own boundaries. "Conspiracies" — or alleged "conspiracies" of the past can wait—The Country cannot.

Ask your Senators — again and again — "WHAT ABOUT THE ACTIVITIES OF THE TAX EXEMPT FOUNDATIONS". The Senators know all about how Congressman Wayne Hayes of Ohio "torpedoed" the Reece Committee. We need another investigation of FOUNDATIONS by a COMMITTEE OF THE CONGRESS — BY MEN IN WHOM THE PEOPLE HAVE CONFIDENCE — AND ABOVE ALL, WE NEED TO HAVE THAT INVESTIGATION TELEVISED — ALL OF IT. NOTHING ELSE WILL SUFFICE.

The people need to consider prayerfully, the repeal of the Seventeenth Amendment. The Founding Fathers—with far more wisdom than has been evidenced by any of their successors—carefully weighed the matter of selecting the Senate. Did they make a mistake — or did we? People living in States having large cities know of the difficulty—in many cases the impossibility—of the people controlling elections on a STATE-WIDE basis. We have now had forty-seven years' experience with the "elected" Senate. We should be able to evaluate the process on the basis of this experience and decide for ourselves whether it has worked to our advantage.

Consider too, the question of the "liberal" in the light of what we now know. The sincere "liberal" occupies a strange position in THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS' program. Insofar as a "liberal" is presumed to represent the best interests of the worker-producer, (as he can be differentiated from the investor-producer), by what phantasy is his vote cast for the most notorious exploiters in history—those billionaires who acquired their wealth primarily from the CONTROL OF THE MONEY—THE ACTUAL MANUFACTURE OF THE MONEY AND THE CREDIT OF THE PEOPLE? It is for us to reason with the sincere liberal and make him understand that he has NOTHING IN COMMON WITH THE PHONEY LIBERALS OF THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS. The liberal worker-producer and investor-producer KNOWS IN HIS HEART, HE HAS NOTHING IN COMMON with such "liberals" as NELSON ROCKEFELLER and his gang, — HERBERT LEHMAN, AVERILL HARRIMAN, CORNELIUS VANDERBILT FIELD, CYRUS EATON, JOSEPH OR JOHN KENNEDY or others of their class. The liberal worker-producer and investment-producer is smart enough to understand this,—he needs only to know the truth.

And we insist that what we have revealed in this series of OPEN LETTERS, WILL STAND AS TRUTH UNTIL THE UNITED STATES SENATE, AND THE SENATE ALONE, DISPROVES IT.

IT IS NOT A QUESTION
WHETHER THEY BELIEVE IT OR NOT.
THE QUESTION IS —
"IS IT TRUE".

Where will final judgment be rendered — IN THE HALLS OF CONGRESS OR IN THE SLAVE LABOR CAMP? The helpless people can only work, and pray as they have never prayed before. Our task has been clear from the beginning. TO DO EVERYTHING WE COULD AND "HAVING DONE ALL" — "TO OCCUPY". Many thousands of patriotic people have joined with us in our efforts and the word has been broadcast against great odds. Our work can never be done until the government of our fathers is returned to the control of its rightful owners. And so WE—ALL OF US—"OCCUPY" BUT NOT IN IDLENESS.

OPEN LETTER No. 13 TO THE CONSTITUENCY OF THE UNITED STATES SENATORS

DEAR FRIENDS:—

We had planned to end our reports with OPEN LETTER NO. 12, but find it necessary to continue to keep you informed regarding the activities of one another, and to exchange information concerning the activities of THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS.

There is much comment from people and press regarding Mr. Kennedy's inaugural address. That of the press clearly reflects the policies of their masters: It was good for the "birds", the pre-occupied, lame-brained American hoot-owls. The people generally wonder just what he said. And we didn't hear what he said — HIS APPOINTMENTS DROWNED OUT HIS WORDS. From now on anything coming from the "Administrative branch" or any of its agencies, commissions, projects and projectors will register on the informed mind as pure, unadulterated COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS' propaganda. If Mr. Kennedy does not know this, HE SHOULD. THE CONGRESS—BOTH HOUSES—SHOULD KNOW IT ALSO, and be reminded daily that hundreds of thousands of "informed" are using their eyes and their ears,—and will not be deceived.

We know many of our readers were mystified, as we were, at the heavy silence of the Senate, following our mass distribution of the TRUTH about THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS,—and many were chagrined when the Senate confirmed the whole motley crew almost enthusiastically. We must admit that the most charitable informed constituent could not find evidence of courage, patriotism or responsibility in the conduct of the Senate. Getting elected—or better still keeping in position to get a good salaried job if defeated,—IS WHAT COUNTS. There is no use griping about something we cannot change—not yet, at least. We should gird for the battle ahead,—the battle in which our elected representatives—in the Senate at least,—certainly appear—on the surface,—to be against us.

But is there anything below the surface? Let us explore a little. The fact is that the Senators—with a few exceptions,—DID NOT KNOW A THING ABOUT C.F.R.—never heard of it. Another fact is, that they KNEW —BEYOND ALL SHADOW OF DOUBT, THAT THE PEOPLE WE NAMED, HAD BEEN RUNNING THE GOVERNMENT FOR YEARS. It must have come to them as a distinct shock to learn that these people—millionaires, screwballs, eggheads and traitors ALL CAME FROM THE SAME CLUB—a small organization which had made plans to take over the whole world, and had almost achieved their objective. And don't ever forget the MONEY POWER,—you can be sure our Senators are acutely conscious of it. THEY FEAR IT AND THEY YEARN TO SERVE IT, and be noticed as they do. Most of them, at any rate.

We still have a ray of hope. The Northern Republican —Southern Conservative coalition has been strengthened in the House and Senate. This coalition COULD HOLD THE FORT WHILE THEY AND WE ORGANIZE,—and by their votes, prevent the C. F. R. program from getting off the ground. To this end, we must:

BEGIN IMMEDIATELY TO CIRCULARIZE
THE HOUSE AS WE DID THE SENATE.
INFORM THEM ALL.

Our friends from coast to coast have done a remarkable job of exposing the COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS. The C. F. R. knows it and you may be sure — HAS A PLAN — (PLANS ARE WHAT THEY HAVE

MOST OF). There is evidence that they are going to admit to our major charges, crank up the propaganda machines and sell the gullible public and the panting politicians another BILL OF GOODS. They are going to sell us the idea that the C. F. R. training school for governmental elite' corps is a GREAT THING. Noble in its "concepts", and fully worthy the "dedicated philanthropists" who sneaked it over on us. This is what we must be prepared to fight.

The January 25th, Miami Herald-Chicago News Wire reported as follows: "Ambassador Adlai Stevenson has asked his Harvard Law School roommate, Francis T. P. Plimpton, to be his deputy on the permanent U. S. delegation to the United Nations, with the rank of ambassador. Plimpton is a senior partner in one of New York's largest law firms in the Wall Street financial district. Stevenson plans to add a second deputy with the rank of ambassador to his staff, placing a senior, experienced diplomat in the post. Former Ambassador to Cuba Philip W. Bonsal has been mentioned. Plimpton, an independent in politics, served as general solicitor of the Reconstruction Finance Corp. under Presidents Hoover and Franklin Roosevelt. He was a Phi Beta Kappa and magna cum laude graduate in the FOREIGN POLICY ASSOCIATION, COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS and INSTITUTE FOR PACIFIC RELATIONS. Plimpton's partner, Eli Whitney Debevoise, was general counsel to John J. McCloy when McCloy was high commissioner in Germany after World War II. Another partner, Robert B. Von Mehren, was general counsel to the U.N.—affiliated International Atomic Energy Agency. Roswell Perkins, another member of the law firm, was general counsel to New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller."

So we see the first straw in the wind. They will not only boast of membership in C.F.R., but also of membership in FOREIGN POLICY ASSOCIATION AND OF ALL THINGS, THE INSTITUTE OF PACIFIC RELATIONS. THIS SHOULD WAKE UP EVERY RIGHT WING PUBLICATION IN AMERICA. And it will—with your help. YOU SMOKED OUT C. F. R. WITH YOUR DYNAMIC ACTION. Now try to get help for more of same from your favorite publications. THE BATTLE LINES ARE DRAWN. SOMETHING JUST HAD TO GIVE,—and it did. For the first time, "they" are out in the open and on the defensive. "THEY" ARE FAIR GAME FOR PATRIOTS. LET US ALL BEGIN TO REALLY GET OUR "LICKS" IN.

The enclosed information should be "required reading" for every American who is interested in PRESERVING THE FREEDOM OF THIS NATION.

The majority of the people in the United States feel that Communism is the greatest threat to our nation. After you have read the enclosed information you will realize that Communism is secondary and that our Real Enemy is the INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT.

This Invisible Government, which is the COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS, was incorporated in 1921, but did not really exert its influence on this nation until Franklin Roosevelt took office. Pretty heavy argument

The COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS has a "strangle-hold" on us. It is running this nation. Our government in Washington are only "pawns" in the hands of this "ruthless group". In addition to the CFR dictating policies in the United States, they are affiliated with an International Group of very wealthy Hebrews - whose objective is the ENSLAVEMENT OF ALL GENTILES.

There is in process THE MOST DIABOLICAL PLOT IN HISTORY to take over the world. A group of International Manipulators are using the Communists as STOOGES, in the same manner that they used Hitler as a FRONT MAN. This group, through the COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS, unquestionably fostered the United Nations and were responsible for the election of Roosevelt and likewise Kennedy. In addition the council has been responsible for the election of most of Kennedy's advisers, which includes the Cabinet.

If you really want to know about the plan to ENSLAVE ALL CHRISTIANS you should read a booklet entitled: PROTOCOLS of the Meetings of the LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION. To date, most of the objectives set down in the PROTOCOLS have been obtained. You will learn how the creation of wars, the utilization of money and politics, etc., all fall into a predetermined scheme. You will find proof that COMMUNISM IS A JEWISH WORLD PLOT TO ENSLAVE THE GENTILES.

NO THINKING CHRISTIAN CAN AFFORD TO IGNORE THIS PATTERN FOR DESTRUCTION IN CONNECTION WITH THE PRESENT WORLD SITUATION.

I first learned of the COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS (The Invisible Government) through the OPEN LETTERS TO A UNITED STATES SENATOR. Upon reading these letters I JUST COULD NOT BELIEVE the information given, so I did some checking on the authenticity of the contents of these letters. In addition to discussing this matter with local groups who are well informed on Communistic Activities and who all vouched for the truth of these "Open Letters", I decided to check with a Mr. Myron C. Fagan, National Director of the Cinema Educational Guild, Inc., in Hollywood, California. Mr. Fagan is the man who uncovered the Communists in Hollywood and was responsible for eliminating most of them from the Motion Picture Industry. Then on the advice of Mr. Fagan, I wrote a [redacted] who is carrying on the work of Mr. Upton Close (deceased) who originated the Open Letters to a United States Senator. You can see from the copies of my correspondence (enclosed) that both men vouch for the truth of these letters.

Senator? He is nameless.*

Subsequently, Dan Smoot, a well known Radio Commentator, took up this matter of INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT on his regular Sunday Night broadcasts. To date he has made five talks on this subject and plans many more. Due to the tremendous demand for copies of his broadcasts, I have only received copies of INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT, Parts I, II and III, which you will find enclosed. Copies of other broadcasts can be obtained by writing Dan Smoot.

In addition to the above, you will find enclosed information supplied by COMMON SENSE, an Anti-Communist Newspaper. You will find that this information substantiates the "Open Letters", the "Dan Smoot Reports" and my remarks concerning the "DIABOLICAL PLOT TO ENSLAVE ALL GENTILES".

Who is "G" & who is "my", this is unsigned?

THE FREEDOM OF OUR NATION IS AT STAKE. IT IS UP TO ALL OF US TO SPREAD THIS INFORMATION TO EVERY CORNER OF THE UNITED STATES.

NOTE: Bufiles reflect we have had difficulty with Congressman Huddleston in the past, and this perfunctory reply is deemed appropriate. On 9-9-60, Congressman Huddleston forwarded to the Bureau a letter from [redacted] National States Rights Party, in which Fields claimed the FBI was surveilling him. On 9-16-60 at the Bureau's instruction, the ASAC in Birmingham contacted Huddleston concerning this matter and the Congressman classified Fields as a "crackpot." On 1-18-61 the Congressman forwarded another letter he had received from Fields accusing the FBI of harassment, and on 1-24-61, SA [redacted] contacted the Congressman regarding this matter and Huddleston stated he considered Fields insane. The March, 1961, issue of "The Thunderbolt" carried a vicious article concerning the Director and reproduced the Congressman's letter to Fields of 2-28-61 which stated "I did contact Mr. J. Edgar Hoover on January 18 and have not had any reply. I am just sorry he has not reported to me about the matter I called to his attention." Since this was an obvious lie, it was suggested someone in Mr. DeLoach's office again contact the Congressman. The Director noted: "No use. Huddleston would again misrepresent it." Bufiles reflect [redacted] wrote the Director on 1-29-61 and received an in-absence reply since it appeared he had anti-Semitic views. The Secretary of Defense

Dear Sir:

Please have your Secretary secure for you a copy of "Common Sense", the ANTI-Communist Newspaper, Issue No. 369 for August 1961. Sir, after reading and studying this issue of the paper, will you inform me as to the policy the Defense Department will follow in informing members of the Armed Forces about Communism and the extent to which they may participate in fighting communism, personally?

We have been in World War III on a psychological and propaganda basis for several years now and the actual shooting with live ammunition may break out any minute, anywhere, on the globe.

The writer has continually written the White House on the subject of Communism and has advocated the corally now, now later, the known Communists and Communist sympathizers in the U.S. Government and in all other areas of the United States.

Sir, you will recall the mess that Anna Rosenberg caused in the Armed Forces when she was Assistant Defense Secretary. She was the person, I feel sure advocated the abolishing of Grosses on Soldier's graves, for one thing.

The present Asst. Defense Secretary, according to one source (in charge of Personnel) is a threat to the American way and will not act in the best interests of the Military.

I am deeply concerned about the subject of security in the U.S. Government, and am at all times opposed to a one world government.

The Newspaper, "Common Sense", offers documentary evidence of the information published therein.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Recently I have been receiving an anti-communism literature paper called Common Sense, America's Newspaper against Communism. It is published in union, New Jersey & the editor is Conde McGinley. It has appeared so radical in past editions that I seriously have had my doubts how anti-communistic it is.

As an American citizen I feel it is my duty to find out the truth behind such publications I would appreciate any information you would send me concerning the above publication.

Dear [REDACTED]:

Your letter of September 15, 1961, with enclosures has been received.

While I would like to be of assistance, I must advise that the FBI, as strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government, does not furnish evaluations or comments relative to the character or integrity of any individual, organization or publication. I hope you will not infer in this connection either that our files do or do not contain data regarding the publications you mentioned.

This Bureau has no jurisdiction concerning use of the mails. The material you forwarded is being returned herewith since you may wish to send it to the Chief Postal Inspector, Post Office Department, Pennsylvania Avenue between Twelfth and Thirteenth Streets, Northwest, Washington, D. C.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE:

Allegations were received that while he was with the Union he was sympathetic to communism. "The Thunderbolt" is the official organization of the National States Rights Party, and extreme Right-Wing organization founded in 1957. This organization has printed various attacks against the Director and the Bureau. (105-9621)

"Common Sense" is a notorious anti-Semitic hate sheet published by the Christian Educational Association of Union, New Jersey. This Association has in the past been the subject of a Racial Matters investigation for the purpose of determining whether the organization advocated, condoned or incited to violence for the purpose of denying others their Constitutional rights. (105-9621)

Correspondent's enclosures were a copy of "Common Sense" entitled "The Coming Red Dictatorship," which has been brought to the Bureau's attention on numerous occasions, and the August '61 issue of the "Thunderbolt." Since both publications are well-known, copies were not made for retention in Bureau's files. The third enclosure was an envelope postmarked New York, New York, transmitting these two publications.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

The Christian Educational Association of 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey, is the publisher of "Common Sense," a tabloid size newspaper published twice monthly except during July and August. Current issues of this paper identify the editor as CONDE MC GINLEY and the publisher as the Christian Educational Association.

On December 17, 1954, the Committee on Un-American Activities of the United States House of Representatives published a "Preliminary Report on Neo-Fascist and Hate Groups" in which their growth and objectives are discussed at length. This report indicates that "Common Sense" has a circulation which fluctuates between 30,000 and 100,000 copies an issue. It describes "Common Sense" as a "hate sheet" vehicle which publishes "some of the most vitriolic hate propaganda ever to come to the attention of the Committee."

According to the report, "Common Sense" depicts Communism as Judaism and devotes its pages almost entirely to attacks on the Jewish and to a lesser extent, the Negro minorities in the United States. Sympathy for the former Nazi government in Germany is also shown in the paper.

NOTE: Correspondent cannot be identified in Bufiles. Robert H. Williams heads Williams Publications. They have in the past put out a monthly sheet called Williams Intelligence Summary and other anticommunist literature. It is regarded as anti-Semitic, anticommunist, anti-Negro and "hate" type literature. The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion are anti-Semitic pamphlets translated from foreign languages originally appearing in the 2-1-57 issue of "Common Sense." They are now being distributed by the "Christian Education Association," of Union, New Jersey, which is the publisher of "Common Sense." This magazine is a notorious anti-Semitic hate sheet.

o Communal Sense

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Recently I have come across a paper received after one of Kenneth Goff's lecture in Los Angeles containing the PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION. After reading this entirely I also read Know Your Enemy and The Ultimate World Order both authored by Robert H. Williams ex- counter intelligence Officer of the Army Air Force.

The PROTOCOLS bore a startling similarity to COMMUNISM. My questions are these:

1. Are the PROTOCOLS OF ZION a forgery or fact?
2. Is Major Robert Williams qualified to write such books?
3. Was he actually a counter intelligence agent?
4. Have the F.B.I. agents investigated the Zionist movement in our country?
5. If so do the Zionist Jews pose a threat to our country by hiding behind the doors of Communism and promoting it here and elsewhere in the world?
6. Is this new literature against the Zionist a campaign to instigate a hate trend for the Jewish race?

I would appreciate your information before passing this type of literature on to my friends. I do not like to feel against any race and I distaste making false assumptions unless they are verified and do constitute a danger to our society. For if Zion and Communism are one in the same it would make for a terrible threat to our nation. However I must know the truth and you are one source I feel I can rely on. Thank you very much.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover,
Federal Bureau of Investigation:

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I am just an average american wife and mother who has joined the fight against the spreading cancer of communisum in our country.

Recently I recieved a small paper who's vehemence and (what seemed to me) hate campaign against the Jewish race was alarming. A method of pointing out all Jewish communists in the government with a star of David after their names bothered me. I wrote a letter to the editor. He sent me a reply and more papers which to me are more disturbing than ever. I find it impossible to believe these things, and yet would a man of his aparent education and standing put himself open for libel? If these things are not true then he is doing a lot of damage. If they are true -- where do we go from here?

I am sending to you a copy of my letter to Mr. Conde McGinley the editor of "Common Sense," along with a copy of his reply to me and the additional material which he sent to me. I am keeping the original of his reply, but if you wish it you may have it if it will be of aid.

My letter to Mr. McGinley

Dear Sir:

I recently recieved two copies of your paper Common Sense (March 15 '61 and April 1 '61) I am in full accord with your fight against communism and with your effort to bring into the open the actions of government servants, who's wages we pay, and who are supposed to represent us. I am at odds with you on your manner of pointing out the Jews on the list. It seems to me that you are, in effect, saying that because they are Jews they are communists. This, to me, seems like a communist trick of spreading fear and suspicion of a whole class because of the actions of a few. If we are going to fight an evil then we ourselves must not fall into the same error.

In our fight against communisum we must present a united front, with no concessions to suspicions or fears. They are destructive forces. It is only through the united efforts of free men every where, be he white, black, Jew, Catholic, or Protestant, that the American way of life can survive in this twentieth century.

Perhaps two issues of your paper are not sufficient for me to judge, and I sincerely hope I'm wrong.

Mr. McGinley's letter to me.

Dear :

b6

We thank you very much for your frank letter of recent date. It is always pleasant hearing from our readers, especially those earnestly concerned with the menace that threatens our nation.

You are like many other good folks who haven't studied the subject enough to realize that communism is Jewish. The jews conceived the theory of communism and installed this system in Russia. In fact 265 New York Marxist-jews were amongst the first rulers of Red Russia.

If you doubt this, think about the following; How come no jewish voice is raised against communism, but against the John Birch Society and the H. U. A. C. Why have jews headed up the N. A. A. C. P. since its inception, and why are they promoting racial integration and trying to keep the mention of God out of the class rooms. Have not all the Atom Spies in this country and Canada been jews?

I'm sure if you will continue to read our paper, and also read some of the books we sell, that you will agree with us that communism is jewish-inspired and directed. Remember, only communist-dominated countries have laws that forbid any unfavorable mention of the jews.

We do hope to have you continue as a reader and that we will hear from you again real soon.

In a letter dated 8-9-56 [REDACTED] applied for admission to the Academy for training.

By letter dated 11-13-60 he advised the Director that he was ready to continue his "research-study" in reviewing the 14 U. S. Supreme Court decisions affecting communism and the United States Communist Party.

All of [REDACTED] letters over the years, which include many others not specifically mentioned, received courteous replies. A review of his past correspondence indicates that he has sincere convictions regarding a variety of topics. The enclosures which [REDACTED] included with his letter to the Director were a personal photograph and a copy of a poem entitled "A New Day Dawns," which [REDACTED] dedicated in 1945 to the late President Franklin Delano Roosevelt. All of his communications to the Director invariably include a copy each of these same enclosures.

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Information set out above concerning [REDACTED] contained in Bufiles [REDACTED]; and [REDACTED] In declining his offer of assistance made in the letter dated 8-9-56, we informed him that all investigations by the FBI are conducted by regularly appointed Special Agents. Our answers to his previous letters have all carried the salutation as set out above.

[REDACTED]

ATTENTION: SAC, LOS ANGELES:

Enclosed is one copy of correspondent's communication. Bufiles show that your office interviewed [REDACTED] in 1940 in connection with the case entitled "[REDACTED]"

Informant: IS (G)." Your report dated 2-17-41 by SA [REDACTED] sets forth the results of that interview.

b6
b7D

For your information, the following additional data concerning [REDACTED] are set forth.

He is approximately 32 years of age. In 1935 he applied for employment with the Bureau and was not qualified for employment. Bufiles show that between 1935 and the present [REDACTED] has communicated with the Director on a number of occasions concerning a variety of matters. He has described himself as a Ph. D., LL.D., LL.M., a U. S. Patent Attorney, and an Assistant to the [REDACTED] of the Los Angeles University of Applied Education.

In a letter dated 7-16-35 he offered his services as one of the Director's aides.

On 9-19-35 he wrote to request permission to attend communist, Nazi and other un-American assemblages.

In August, 1937, [REDACTED], an attorney at [REDACTED], submitted to the Immigration and Naturalization Service 15 bound files of newspaper clippings and various papers together with a brief of "Factual Findings" and "Legal Reasons" to support his contention that the citizenship of Fritz Kuhn should be revoked because of Nazi activities and German allegiance.
